

The People of the State of New York, To all to whom these presents shall come or may come: —

Send Greeting: —

Know Ye, that at Mexico in the county of Orange, on the 24th day of November A.D. 1851 before Orla A. Whitney County Judge of our said county, the last will and testament of Stephen Eagle deceased, was proved and is now approved and allowed by us: And the said testator at or immediately previous to his death being an inhabitant, or having left assets, which the same or have since come within the said county of Orange, by reason whereof the proving and registering the same will and granting administration of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said testator and also the auditing, allowing and final discharging the account thereof do belong unto the County Judge of the said county: The administration of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said deceased, and in any way concerning his will, is granted unto Stephen Tucker the executor in the said will named, he having first taken and subscribed an oath or affirmation, faithfully and honestly to discharge the duties of such executor, hereby requiring you to make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said testator within a reasonable time, and return a duplicate thereof to our County Judge of the county of Orange, within three months from the date of these presents; and if further personal property or assets of any kind not mentioned in any inventory that shall have been so made, shall come to your possession or knowledge to make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory thereof and return the same within two months after discovery thereof; and also to render a true and just account of the administration when thereunto required.

In Testimony Whereof We have caused the Seal of the Surrogate's Court of our said County of Orange to be hereunto affixed.
