Oswego County ss. Be it remembered that on this twenty eighth day of [illegible] 1824 before me Chester Hayden Surrogate of said County personally came Polly Rowley [illegible] to whom letters of administration of which the preceding is a copy were then delivered, who being thereupon duly sworn ... that Reuben Rowley deceased, named in the said letters of administration made no last will or testament so far as they know or believe; that they will well and truly to the best of their ability make ... a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of which the said deceased died possessed ... and that they will exhibit the same into the office of the Surrogate of the County of Oswego before the expiration of six Calendar months ... and that they will well and faithfully ... to the best of their ability well and truly administer the same by paying the debts of the said deceased so far as the said goods chattels and credits will thereto extend and the law require; and that they will to the best of their ability render a just and true account of administration when thereto lawfully required, and that if it shall hereafter appear that the said deceased made any last will and testament and the executor or executors therein named, or any other person, or persons do exhibit the same, and request to have it allowed & approved, that then on being thereunto duly required they will render the said letters of administration to the office from which the same were issued.

C. Hayden, Surrogate

L.S.

[Letters of Administration]

The People of the State of New-York, by the Grace of God Free and Independent: To Maria English & Ezra Tyler of the town of New Haven in Oswego county, send Greeting:

WHEREAS Seth English, late of New Haven aforesaid

as is alleged, lately died intestate, having whilst living, and at the time of his death, goods, chattels, or credits within this state, by means whereof the ordering and granting administration of all and singular the said goods, chattels and credits; and also the auditing, allowing and finally discharging the account thereof, doth appertain unto us; and we, being desirous that the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased may be well and faithfully administered, applied and disposed of, do grant unto you the said Maria English & Ezra Tyler full power by these presents, to administer and faithfully dispose of all and singular the said goods, chattels and credits, to ask, demand, recover and receive the debts, which unto the said deceased, whilst living, and at the time of his death did belong, and to pay the debts which the said deceased did owe, so far as the said goods, chattels and credits will thereto extend, and the law require; Hereby requiring you to make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to your hands, possession or knowledge, and the same so made, to exhibit, or cause to be exhibited into the office of the said Surrogate of the said county of Oswego at or before the expiration of six calendar months from the date hereof; and also to render a just and true account of administration when thereunto required; And we do by these Presents, depute, constitute and appoint you the said Maria English and Ezra Tyler administrators

Administrators of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits which were of the said Seth English deceased at the time of his death

In testimony whereof, we have caused the Seal of Office of our said Surrogate to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS Chester Hayden Esquire, Surrogate of the said county, at [illegible] the twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five and of our Independence the forty ninth

C. Hayden
Surrogate