

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's office in the Village of Thruval, in said county, on the 11th day of September, A. D., 1887. Present James David, Surrogate.

IN THE MATTER OF John H. Lott, General Guardian of the personal estate of Alice Byrnes, late a Minor. John H. Lott and Alice Byrnes

having appeared in court and presented their joint petition duly verified, by which said petition it appeared that on or about the 11th day of November, 1884, the said John H. Lott was duly appointed by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, the general guardian of the person and estate of said Alice Byrnes, that on the 11th day of June, 1887, the said Alice Byrnes arrived at the age of twenty-one years, that since he so arrived at the age of twenty-one years, said John H. Lott as such guardian, had fully settled with husband had paid and passed over to the said Alice Byrnes all property, money and interest remaining in his hands or under his control as such guardian and belonging to the said Alice Byrnes, and had taken his receipt and release in full therefor, (which was on the back of said petition,) and that there was nothing now in the hands of said John H. Lott as such guardian, belonging to him, and nothing due from him as such guardian to the said Alice Byrnes, and praying that upon reading and filing said petition, and the receipt, release and discharge on the back of the same, (and which was duly acknowledged) that an order and decree be immediately made by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, adjudging said matter fully settled, and releasing and discharging the said John H. Lott, and the person or persons who signed his bond as such guardian from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

Now, therefore, on reading and filing said petition, receipt, release and discharge it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of said petitioners be and the same is hereby granted. Also, that this settlement be deemed and taken as final and conclusive upon the parties to these proceedings, and that the said John H. Lott, and the persons who signed his bond as such guardian be, and they hereby are, forever released and discharged from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

In Testimony Whereof the Surrogate of the County of Oswego has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal of office the day and year first aforesaid. J. David Surrogate
