

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's office in the Village of Phoenix in said county, on the 27th day of March, A. D., 1887.

Present J. David, Surrogate.

IN THE MATTER OF
 Thomas Ballister
 As General Guardian of the personal estate of
 Ashbel Ballister
 late a Minor.

Thomas Ballister and
 Ashbel Ballister
 having appeared in court and presented their joint petition duly verified, by which said petition it appeared that on or about the 22nd day of June, 1887, the said Thomas Ballister was duly appointed by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, the general guardian of the person and estate of said Ashbel Ballister, that on the _____ day of _____, 1887, the said

Ashbel Ballister arrived at the age of twenty-one years, that since he so arrived at the age of twenty-one years, said Thomas Ballister as such guardian, had fully settled with him and had paid and passed over to the said

Ashbel Ballister all property, money and interest remaining in his hands or under his control as such guardian and belonging to the said Ashbel Ballister, and had taken his receipt and release in full therefor, (which was on the back of said petition,) and that there was nothing now in the hands of said Thomas Ballister as such guardian, belonging to him, and nothing due from him as such guardian to the said Ashbel Ballister, and praying that upon reading and filing said petition, and the receipt, release and discharge on the back of the same, (and which was duly acknowledged) that an order and decree be immediately made by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, adjudging said matter fully settled, and releasing and discharging the said Thomas Ballister, and the person or persons who signed his bond as such guardian from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

Now, therefore, on reading and filing said petition, receipt, release and discharge it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of said petitioners be and the same is hereby granted. Also, that this settlement be deemed and taken as final and conclusive upon the parties to these proceedings, and that the said Thomas Ballister, and the persons who signed his bond as such guardian be, and they hereby are, forever released and discharged from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

In Testimony Whereof the Surrogate of the County of Oswego has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal of office the day and year first aforesaid.

J. David Surrogate

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's office in the Village of Phoenix in said county, on the 14th day of March, A. D., 1887.

Present Francis David, Surrogate.

IN THE MATTER OF
 J. W. Harter
 As General Guardian of the personal estate of Nellie Eaton
 late a Minor.

Nellie Eaton having filed herein her petition duly verified, and filed herein March 3, 1887, praying for an order directing J. W. Harter her guardian to show why he should not render an account of his proceedings as such guardian, and pay over into your petitioners' care all moneys in his hands, belonging to your petitioner, having appeared in court and presented their joint petition duly verified, by which said petition it appeared that on or about the 1st day of April, 1886, the said J. W. Harter was duly appointed by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, the general guardian of the person and estate of said Nellie Eaton, that on the _____ day of _____, 1887, the said arrived at the age of twenty-one years, that since she so arrived at the age of twenty-one years, said J. W. Harter as such guardian, had fully settled with her and had paid and passed over to the said

Nellie Eaton since the filing of her petition herein as shown by two receipts & release herein filed dated March 16, 1887 whereby she does fully acknowledge the receipt of all property, money and interest remaining in his hands or under his control as such guardian and belonging to the said Nellie Eaton, and had taken her receipt and release in full therefor, (which was on the back of said petition,) and that there was nothing now in the hands of said J. W. Harter as such guardian, belonging to her, and nothing due from him as such guardian to the said Nellie Eaton, and praying that upon reading and filing said petition, and the receipt, release and discharge on the back of the same, (and which was duly acknowledged) that an order and decree be immediately made by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, adjudging said matter fully settled, and releasing and discharging the said J. W. Harter, and the person or persons who signed his bond as such guardian from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

Now, therefore, on reading and filing said petition, receipt, release and discharge it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of said petitioners be and the same is hereby granted. Also, that this settlement be deemed and taken as final and conclusive upon the parties to these proceedings, and that the said J. W. Harter, and the persons who signed his bond as such guardian be, and they hereby are, forever released and discharged from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

In Testimony Whereof the Surrogate of the County of Oswego has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal of office the day and year first aforesaid.
