

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's office in the Village of Phoenix, in said county, on the 18th day of June, A. D., 1887. Present Francis David, Surrogate.

IN THE MATTER OF
As General Guardian of the personal estate of George M. Starr - Heir to a Minor.

Charles R. Couler of Central Square, N.Y. having appeared in court and presented their joint petition duly verified, by which said petition it appeared that on or about the 24th day of January, 1884, the said Cora L. Harrington was duly appointed by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, the general guardian of the person and estate of said George M. Starr; that on the 29th day of March, 1887, the said George M. Starr arrived at the age of twenty-one years, that since he so arrived at the age of twenty-one years, said Cora L. Harrington as such guardian had fully settled with him and had paid and passed over to the said George M. Starr all property, money and interest remaining in her hands or under her control as such guardian and belonging to the said George M. Starr, and had taken her receipt and release in full therefor, (which was on the back of said petition,) and that there was nothing now in the hands of said Cora L. Harrington as such guardian, belonging to her and nothing due from her as such guardian to the said George M. Starr and praying that upon reading and filing said petition, and the receipt, release and discharge on the back of the same, (and which was duly acknowledged) that an order and decree be immediately made by the Surrogate's Court of the county of Oswego, New York, adjudging said matter fully settled, and releasing and discharging the said Cora L. Harrington, and the person or persons who signed her bond as such guardian from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

Now, therefore, on reading and filing said petition, receipt, release and discharge it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of said petitioners be and the same is hereby granted. Also, that this settlement be deemed and taken as final and conclusive upon the parties to these proceedings, and that the said Cora L. Harrington, and the persons who signed her bond as such guardian be, and they hereby are, forever released and discharged from all further liability and accountability in the matter.

In Testimony Whereof the Surrogate of the County of Oswego has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal of office the day and year first aforesaid.
