

SURROGATE'S COURT—OSWEGO COUNTY.

In the matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament
OF

Emily Moss deceased.

OSWEGO COUNTY, ss.

Jonathan Seymour and George B. Seymour being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several oaths, each for himself, doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Emily Moss late of the town of Palermo in the County of Oswego, and State of New York deceased. And those deponents do further say, that the said Emily Moss deceased, did in the presence of those deponents, subscribe her name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to those deponents, and purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the second day of May one thousand eighty three. That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing her name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be her last Will and Testament; and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each in the presence of said deceased, and in the presence of each other; That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing her name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the State; that she appeared to be, and deponent believe she was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and deponents verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of those deponents saw the other sign her name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this
10th day of July A. D. 1890
F. David Surrogate.

OSWEGO COUNTY, ss.

Appearing upon the proofs duly taken in respect to the Last Will and Testament of Emily Moss late of the town of Palermo in the County of Oswego and the State of New York, deceased, that the said Will was duly executed, and that the said Emily Moss at the time she executed the same, was in all respects competent to devise real estate, and not under restraint, the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and the proofs and examinations are hereby recorded, signed and certified by me, pursuant to the provision of the Revised Statutes, this 10th day of July A. D. 1890,
F. David Surrogate.

Emily Moss deceased.

BE IT REMEMBERED, That heretofore, to-wit, on the 10th day of July in the year 1890, one thousand eight hundred and ninety Thomas Clark Executor in the LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF Emily Moss late of the town of Palermo in the County of Oswego, deceased, appeared before the Surrogate of the County of Oswego and made application to have the said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT proved; and on such application the said Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who were the heirs at law and next of kin of the said deceased, and their respective residences, all interested parties here having waived citation & consented to probate of said will and the said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law, and next of kin of the said deceased, by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence, requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at Palermo in the said County, on the 10th day of July A. D. 1890 to attend the Probate of said Will,

And afterwards to-wit: on the 10th day of July A. D. 1890 satisfactory evidence by all interested parties was produced and presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law; and on that day the said Surrogate did take the proofs of said Will, and such proceedings were thereupon had in said Court afterwards, as are hereinafter set forth, upon this 10th day of July A. D. 1890 and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and proofs are as follows, that is to say:
