SURROGATE'S COURT—OSWEGO COUNTY.

In the matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament of Charles B Coon deceased.

OSWEGO COUNTY, ss.

Harriet A. Whitlock and Samuel Wiles being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several corporal oaths, each for himself, doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Charles B. Coon late of the town of New Haven in the County of Oswego, and State of New York, deceased. And these deponents do further say, that the said Charles B Coon deceased, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 27th day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety. That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be his last Will and Testament; and those deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of said deceased, and in his presence and in the presence of each other; That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing his name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that he appeared to be, and deponent believe he was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponents verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of those deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.
