

Surrogate's Court, County of Oswego, New York.

In the Matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament

George H. Vickery deceased.

COUNTY OF OSWEGO, ss. Adelaide Dalrymple of the City of Oswego and Wm. H. Green of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, being duly sworn and examined, each for himself doth depose and say, that he was well acquainted with George H. Vickery late of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, that deponent was present as a witness and did see the said George H. Vickery subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing now produced and shown to the deponent purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, bearing date the 31st day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Ninety five, that the said testator did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament; that thereupon the persons whose names are thereto subscribed as witnesses, in the presence of each other, subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto, at the request of the testator, and in his presence, and that the said testator, at the time of so executing and publishing the said last will and testament, as aforesaid, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, not under restraint, and was in all respects competent to devise real estate and to make a last will and testament, as deponents verily believe.

Sworn to before me this 27th day of January 1896. S. B. Mead Surrogate. Adelaide Dalrymple William H. Green

COUNTY OF OSWEGO, ss. It appearing upon the proofs duly taken in respect to the last will and testament of George H. Vickery late of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, and the State of New York, deceased, that the said will was duly executed, and that the said George H. Vickery at the time he executed the same, was in all respects competent to devise real estate, and not under restraint, the last will and testament and the proofs and examinations are hereby recorded, signed and certified by me pursuant to the provision of the Revised Statutes, this 27th day of January A. D. 1896.

S. B. Mead Surrogate.

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's Office, in the City of Oswego, on the 27th day of January A. D. 1896. PRESENT, SHELDON B. MEAD, Surrogate.

In the Matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament

George H. Vickery deceased.

Application having been made on the 18th day of January 1896 by Simon B. & Florence F. Wiley the executors of George H. Vickery late of the City of Oswego County of Oswego, New York, to have the last will and testament of the said George H. Vickery proved; and a citation having been thereupon issued in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law, next of kin, legatees and devisees, requiring them to appear before our Surrogate of the said County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's Office in the City of Oswego, on the 27th day of January 1896, to attend the probate of said will.

And afterward, to-wit: On the 27th day of January 1896. Such proceedings were thereupon had that the proofs were duly taken; and the allegations of the parties appearing having been heard and the Surrogate having inquired particularly into all the facts and circumstances and being satisfied of the genuineness of said will and the validity of its execution, and it appearing upon the proofs taken, that the said will, bearing date the 31st day of December 1895, was duly executed, that the said testator when he executed the same was of full age for making a will, of sound and disposing mind and memory, and in all respects competent to make a last will and testament and devise real estate, and was not under restraint; and the probate of said will not having been contested. It is Ordered, adjudged and decreed that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said testator and is properly executed, and is genuine and valid; and that the said instrument be and the same hereby admitted to probate and established as a will valid to pass real and personal property, and that the same, together with the proofs thereof, be recorded accordingly.
