

Surrogate's Court, County of Oswego, New York.

In the Matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament

George D. McManus deceased.

COUNTY OF OSWEGO, ss. Thomas H. King of the City of Oswego and Norman L. Bates of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, being duly sworn and examined, each for himself doth depose and say, that he was well acquainted with George D. McManus late of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, that deponent was present as a witness and did see the said George D. McManus subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing now produced and shown to the deponent purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, bearing date the 18th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, that the said testator did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament; that thereupon the persons whose names are thereto subscribed as witnesses, in the presence of each other, subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto, at the request of the testator, and in his presence, and that the said testator at the time of so executing and publishing the said last will and testament was of full age, of sound mind and memory, not under restraint, and was in all respects competent to devise real estate and to make a last will and testament, as deponents verily believe.

Sworn to before me this 14th day of February 1897. Thomas H. King Norman L. Bates Sheldon B. Mead Surrogate

COUNTY OF OSWEGO, ss. It appearing upon the proofs duly taken in respect to the last will and testament of George D. McManus of the City of Oswego in the County of Oswego, and the State of New York, deceased, that the said will was duly executed, and that the said George D. McManus at the time he executed the same, was in all respects competent to devise real estate, and not under restraint, the last will and testament and the proofs and examinations are hereby recorded, signed and certified by me, pursuant to the provision of the Revised Statutes, this 14th day of February, A. D. 1897.

S. B. Mead Surrogate

At a Surrogate's Court held in and for the County of Oswego, at the Surrogate's Office, in the City of Oswego, on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1897. PRESENT, SHELDON B. MEAD Surrogate

In the Matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament

George D. McManus deceased.

Application having been made on the 21st day of Jan 1897, by Charles H. O'Neil the Executor of George D. McManus late of the City of Oswego County of Oswego, New York, to have the last will and testament of the said George D. McManus proved; and a citation having been thereupon issued in due form of law directed to the heirs at law, next of kin, legatees and devisees, requiring them to appear before our Surrogate of the said County of Oswego at the Surrogate's Office in the City of Oswego, on the 5th day of July 1897, to attend the probate of said will.

And afterward, to-wit: On the 8th day of July 1897. Such proceedings were thereupon had that the proofs were duly taken, and the allegations of the parties appearing having been heard and the Surrogate having inquired particularly into all the facts and circumstances and being satisfied of the genuineness of said will and the validity of its execution, and it appearing upon the proofs taken, that the said will, bearing date the 18th day of November 1896, was duly executed, that the said testator when he executed the same was of full age for making a will, of sound and disposing mind and memory, and in all respects competent to make a last will and testament and devise real estate, and was not under restraint; and the probate of said will not having been contested.

It is Ordered, adjudged and decreed that the instrument offered for probate in this matter be the last will and testament of the said testator and properly executed, and is genuine and valid; and that the said instrument be admitted to probate and established as a will valid to pass real and personal property, and that the same, together with the proofs thereof, be recorded accordingly.
