

In the name of God Amen
 I George Haggner of the town of Orville in the County of Oswego and State of New York being of sound mind and memory and aware of the uncertainty of life and all human events do make public and solemn this my last will & testament in the manner following that is to say I give and bequeath to my son William Frederick Haggner all my real estate both personal & real that shall remain after meeting the payments hereinafter mentioned to wit to pay my personal debts and also the balance now standing against the real estate herein devised and to erect a suitable stone at the corner from said stone he is also to provide a home for my daughter Helen Martha Haggner to care for & clothe her in long as she may wish to stay with him or during her natural life & he is also to clothe and provide for the minor children (his brother's children) now in my family that are not able to board clothe and otherwise provide for themselves & the unmarried children until they have a home at my house to which they may resort but the said William Frederick is not to clothe or be obliged to otherwise support them my daughter Anne is to have the bed now in my house and is known as Anne Ed.
 & my other daughter Helen Martha Keeney & Melba or each to have one feather bed I would then upon my earnest desire to give to each and all of my children something more than a father's blessing but my limited estate & the many responsibilities devolving upon Frederick William in the maintenance of his young brother and sister compel me to be an individual story
