SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament

Maria T. Joice Deceased.

Cook's County, ss.

George H. Severance and Samuel H. Johnson being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several oaths each for himself, doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of the late of Maria T. Joice late of the town of New Haven in the County of Cook's and State of New York deceased. And these deponents do further say, that the said Maria T. Joice deceased, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to three deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 7 day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy three. That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be his last Will and Testament; and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of the said deceased, and in his presence and in the presence of each other: That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing his name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that he appeared to be, and deponent believes he was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponents verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 11 day of June A. D. 1873
