Deposition of witnesses produced sworn and examined, the 3<sup>d</sup> day of July 1873 at Westchester, under authority of a Commission, under authority of the Court of Chancery, State of New York, the matter of proving the last will and testament of Benjamin S. Stevens, late of the village of Fulton, County and State of New York, deceased, in support of the proof of said will - as follows:

John Boyd - of the township of Westchester, State of New York, being duly sworn, and examined in support of said will and of the proof of the said will, deposes and says as follows - to wit: In the first interrogatory he says: My name is John Boyd - my age is 73 years - my occupation is a farmer, and I reside in the township of Westchester, State of New York.
In the second interrogatory he says: I was acquainted with Benjamin S. Stevens, late of the village of Fulton, State of New York, dead, and was acquainted with him fifteen years and upwards; he
