number of his name at the time he died in said Winton, on or about the 26th day of May 1873.

To the Third Interrogatory he says: -

I was present at the time of the execution of the instrument, now shown to me and signed to said interrogatory, bearing date the 26th May 1873, purporting to be the last will and testament of said Ensign D. Stevens; the same was executed at the Hotel known as the Dearborn House in Winton aforesaid; myself, Eli J. Camp, and Charles P. Holmes, and said Ensign D. Stevens were present at the time of the execution of said instrument; said instrument was presented to said Ensign D. Stevens, and he subscribed the same by writing and attaching his mark on Cross thereto, and at the same time he declared the instrument to be subscribed by him to be his last will and testament; and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of said instrument, at the request of said Ensign D. Stevens, and in his presence and said Eli J. Camp, and Charles P. Holmes, the other attesting witnesses, at the same time and place signed their names as witnesses, at the end of said will, and that each of them and myself did so at the request of said Ensign D. Stevens, and in his presence and in the presence of Richard L. Strickland, Comr

To the Fourth Interrogatory he says: -

At the time said will was made and published by said Stevens, he requested that I, Charles P. Holmes, and myself, to witness the same.
