SURROGATE'S COURT

In the matter of

To the fifth interrogatory he says:-

I should judge the age of said Eugene D. Stevens, at the time of executing said will, to be about fifty years; and that he was of sound mind, memory and understanding at the time he executed said will; and was not under any restraint, or in any way incompetent to devise real or personal estate.

To the sixth and last interrogatory he says:-

I do not know any other matter or thing referred to in said interrogatories, save that <sup>John B. D.</sup> ~~under the instructions of said Eugene D. Stevens~~ <sup>Eugene D. Stevens</sup> subscribed said will, and carefully read and explained to him its contents, before the execution thereof, as aforesaid.
