

In the Name of God, Amen.

I, Francis Craver of the Town of Hastings County of Orange State of New York being currently eight years of age, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament - that is to say:

First After all my lawful debts are paid and discharged I give and bequeath for the use of my wife, Theodora Craver the use of all my real estate and personal property during her life then except one bed and bedding.

That I give and bequeath to my daughter, Elizabeth one bed and bedding to be given to her right away after my death, that I give and bequeath the balance of my property after my wife's death should she be long left to my children, John Craver, Nicholas Craver, Anthony Craver and Lecky in share and share alike.

And I like and bind to be my executor full power to rent or sell and wish full power to deed my real estate in case he may deem it best and for the support of my wife in case the use of the property is not sufficient to support her. And I do further empower my executor to sell and deed my real estate.

Likewise I make constitute and appoint Alexander Grant of the Town of Hastings County of Orange State of New York to be my sole executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal the 18th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two.

Francis Craver (P.S)
(In person)

The above written instrument was subscribed by the said Francis Craver in our presence, and acknowledged by him to each of us, and he at the same time declared the above instrument to be subscribed to be his last Will and Testament, and we at his request, have signed our names as witnesses here to in his presence and in the presence of each other and written opposite our names our respective places of residence.
