SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament OF

William Peck deceased

Oneida County, ss.

said Peck. Heil R. Powers, now of the Honorable Court being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon the personal and corporate oath for himself, doth depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the last Will and Testament of William Peck, late of the town of Granby, County of Oneida, State of N.Y. deceased. And he further deposes that the said William Peck deceased, did in the presence of each of the above named witnesses subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to the deponent, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 25th day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty three. That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be his last Will and Testament; and did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of said deceased, and in his presence and in the presence of each other; That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing his name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that he appeared to be, and deponent believe he was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponent verily believes in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of the above named witnesses saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased, and the said deponent further says, that he was well acquainted with said Peck, who is the other subscribing witness to said will.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 22nd day of January, A. D. 1884, at the County of Oneida, State of New York.
J. David, Surrogate.

It appearing upon the proofs duly taken in respect to the last Will and Testament of William Peck, late of the town of Granby, in the County of Oneida and the State of New York, deceased, that the said Will was duly executed, and that the said William Peck at the time he executed the same, was in all respects competent to devise real estate, and not under restraint, the last Will and Testament and the proofs and examinations are hereby recorded, signed and certified by me, pursuant to the provision of the Revised Statutes, this 20th day of February, A. D. 1884.
J. David, Surrogate.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

William Peck deceased.

BE IT REMEMBERED, That heretofore, to wit, on the 3th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three in the LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF William Peck in the town of Granby, in the County of Oneida, State of New York, deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Oneida, and made application to have the said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT which relates to both Real and Personal Estate proved; and on such application, the said Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who were the heirs at law, and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences.

and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law, and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at his office in the village of Mexico, in the said County, on the 31st day of December, A. D. 1884 to attend the Probate of said Will.

And afterwards to wit: on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1884, satisfactory evidence by affidavit, was produced and presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law; and on that day no one appearing to oppose the Probate of such Will such proceedings was thereupon had in said Court afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the proofs of said Will hereinafter set forth, upon this 20th day of February, A. D. 1884 and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be a valid Will of Real and Personal Estate, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and proofs are as follows, that is to say:
