In the matter of the Last Will and Testament of Ruth Barber deceased. Cordelia C. Dean being duly sworn in open Court, upon her solemn corporate oath, she is a subscribing witness to the Last Will and Testament of Ruth Barber late of the city of Oswego in the county of Oswego and State of New York deceased. AND THESE DEPENDENTS DO BELIEVE that the said Ruth Barber deceased, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe her name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the Last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 22nd day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty two. That the said deceased did, at the time of subscribing her name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be her Last Will and Testament; and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, such at the request of said deceased, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other. That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing her name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that she appeared to be, and deponents believe she was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and, as deponents verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.
