

In the Name of God, Amen. I, Mary D. Tyler of the village of Fulton, County of Oswego, & State of New York, aged 57 years, & being of sound mind & memory, blessed be the Almighty God for the same, do make, publish & declare this my last will & testament in manner following:

First. I give, devise, & bequeath to Rufus B. Tyler of Flint, Michigan, son of my late husband, his heirs, & assigns forever my brick house & lot, situated in the corner of Broadway & Third streets, in the village of Fulton, New York.

Second. I give, devise, & bequeath, to Mr. & Mrs. J. Dyer of Fulton, New York, each half of my lot in Mt. Eden Cemetery.

Third. I give & bequeath the policy of insurance I hold upon my life for the sum of $300. & the money secured to be paid whenever upon my decease to my executors hereinafter named if such to be paid first, for the maintenance & support of my brother Charles D. Douglas & to be used as the same shall be necessary for that purpose during the life of my said brother, & on his death if any remains, I give, & bequeath the same to certain charities & objects mentioned in the seventh clause of this will.

Fourth. I give, devise, & bequeath to my brother Charles D. Douglas, for his use & benefit during his natural life, the following property to wit; My brick house & lot on the corner of Buffalo & Fourth streets in the village of Fulton, New York, also my frame house on Rochester St. in the same village, together with all my stocks, & bonds, & money in hand, including money deposited to my credit in any bank in Fulton or elsewhere. All of said property is bequeathed to be held in trust by my executors hereinafter named & to be disposed of & expended as they may think best for the generous support & maintenance of said brother Charles D. Douglas, & to be used as the same shall be necessary for that purpose, during his life time. I give him one chamber set, one & a half, single bedstead, two Brussels carpets, two hair mattresses, one single feather bed, several easy chairs, the larger part of my bedding, blankets, comfortables, sheets, towels &c. & other things which my executors think best to keep for his comfort,

In the matter of Ruth A. Barber deceased

Craweys County, ss. Lorina Quakerbush and her self being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several oaths, both depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Ruth A. Barber late of the city of Craweys in the County of Craweys and State of New York deceased. And they depone that the said Ruth A. Barber deceased, did in the presence of them subscribe her name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 22nd day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty two (1882). That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing her name to the said instrument, declare the same to be her last Will and Testament; and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of said deceased, and in her presence and in the presence of each other: That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing her name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that she appeared to be, and deponent believe she was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponent verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign her name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.

Barber at the time she executed the same, was in all respects competent to devise real estate, and not under restraint, the last Will and Testament and the proofs and examinations are hereby recorded, signed and certified by me, pursuant to the provision of the Revised Statutes, this 17th day of July A. D. 1884 P. David Surrogate.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF Ruth A. Barber deceased. }
BE IT REMEMBERED, That heretofore, to wit, on the 7th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, Lydia B. Deaton named in the LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of Ruth A. Barber late of the city of Craweys in the County of Craweys deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Craweys and made application to have the said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT which relates to Real and Personal Estate proved; and on such application, the said Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who were the heirs at law, and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences, and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law, and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at Court House in the city of Craweys in the said County, on the 5th day of June A. D. 1884 to attend the Probate of said Will,

And afterwards to wit: on the 5th day of June A. D. 1884 satisfactory evidence by affidavit, was produced and presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law; and on that day no one appearing to oppose the Probate of such Will such proceedings was thereupon had in said Court afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the proofs of said Will hereinafter set forth, upon this 16th day of July A. D. 1884 and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be a valid Will of Real and Personal Estate, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and proofs are as follows, that is to say:
