

The above instrument consisting of one sheet was at the date thereof signed, sealed, published and acknowledged by the said William Kingsbury as and for his last will and testament, in presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

John B. Higgins being of the County of Albany Elihu E. Hunter being of the County of New York.

Albany Surrogate Court In the matter of proving the last will and testament of William Kingsbury deceased. Albany County ss. John B. Higgins of the town of Napies in the County of Albany, being duly sworn and examined before Orla H. Whiting, County Judge of Albany County, doth depose and say that he this deponent was well acquainted with William Kingsbury late of the town of Napies in the County of Albany, now deceased.

That this deponent was present at a witness, and did see the said William Kingsbury subscribe at the end thereof, the instrument now produced and shown to this deponent, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, bearing date the twenty second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine. That the said testator at the same time declared the instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament.

That thereupon this deponent and Elihu E. Hunter subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto at the request of the testator in his presence, and that the said testator at the time of executing and publishing the said last will and testament was a citizen of the United States, of full age and of sound mind and memory, not under restraint, and was in all respects competent to make a last will and testament.

Sworn this 25th day of July 1850 before me }
