

SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of Proving the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Noyal

DECEASED.

Orange County, ss. Lewis M^r. Muller of Schrieffer and Licens^d M^r. Muller of the Grand Juror being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several corporal oaths, each for himself, doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Noyal late of the Town of Northway in the County of Orange and State of North Carolina deceased. And these deponents do further say, that the said Elizabeth Noyal deceased, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 14th day of March one thousand eight hundred and Fifty Seven

That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing her name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be her last Will and Testament; and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of the said deceased, and in her presence and in the presence of each other: That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing her name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that she appeared to be, and deponents believe she was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponents verily believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased.
