

Last Will and Testament of

William H. Harkness Deceased

Be it Remembered, That hereafter, to wit: on the 11th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty seven William Harkness one of the

Executors named in the Last Will and Testament of William Harkness late of the County of Albany in the County of Albany deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Albany and made application to have the said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT which relates to both real and personal Estate proved; and on such application the said Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who were the heirs at law and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences, and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law, and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at Fulton in the village of Fulton in said County, on the First day of June A. D. 1857, to attend the Probate of said Will.

And afterwards to wit: on the First day of June A. D. 1857, satisfactory evidence by affidavits, and process had presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law; and on that day no one appearing to oppose the Probate of such Will such proceedings were thereupon had in said Court afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the proof of said Will hereinafter set forth, upon this First day of June A. D. 1857, and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be a valid Will of real and personal Estate, and the proof thereof to be sufficient, which said Last Will and Testament, and proof, are as follows, that is to say:
