

Last Will and Testament of

Ernest Devereux Deceased

Be it Remembered, That hereafter, to wit: on the Twenty seventh day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Seven Ernest Devereux named in the Last Will and Testament of Ernest Devereux late of the Town of Pleasant in the County of Orange deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Orange and made application to have the said LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT which relates to both real and personal Estate proved; and on such application the said Surrogate did ascertain by satisfactory evidence who was the heir at law and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences, and all of the heirs at law and next of kin having severally appeared in open Court and prayed that the Surrogate would proceed to the examination of the witnesses of the said will, and to their hearing of the proof necessary to establish the same and having viewed the contents of a citation in writing and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation in the form of law directed to the heirs at law, and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at the village of Orange in said County, on the day of A. D. 1887, to attend the Probate of said Will

of Ernest Devereux

in the County of Orange on the day of A. D. 1887 to attend the Probate of said Will

deceased, was produced and presented to said Surrogate of the County of Orange in the mode prescribed by law, and on that day no one appearing to oppose the Probate of said Will such proceedings were thereupon had in said Court afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the proof of said Will on the 27th day of July A. D. 1887, and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be a valid Will of real and personal Estate, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said Last Will and Testament, and proofs are as follows, that is to say:
