

SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of Proving the last Will and Testament

Isaac Weiss DECEASED.

Orange County, ss. Dox C. Wilcox of the County of Orange Jefferson C. Mills of the County of Richmond and Theodore P. Daubigny of Ellensburg of the County of Orange being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their several corporal oaths, each for himself, doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Isaac Weiss late of the Town of Sandy Hook in the County of Orange and State of New York deceased. And these deponents do further say, that the said Isaac Weiss deceased, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of Isaac Weiss of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 11th day of February one thousand eight hundred and Fifty Three

That the said deceased did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument as aforesaid, declare the same to be his last Will and Testament: and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of the said deceased, and in his presence and in the presence of each other: That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing his name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that he appeared to be, and deponents believe to be of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponents truly believe, in all respects competent to dispose of his real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument in the presence of the said deceased
