

SUBROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of Proving the last Will and Testament

James Boston DECEASED.

Orange County, ss.

Mary L. Harmon, of the City of Orange, and being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon their solemn oaths, each for himself did depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the last will and Testament of James Boston deceased, that she of said deceased as a witness at the end of said will, in the County of said James and State of North Carolina his deceased. And these deponents do further say, that the said James at the end of the instrument in demand, did in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe his name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be writing now produced and shown that last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which have date on the 5th day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty seven purporting to be the last will and Testament of the said James Boston deceased, did at the time of subscribing his name to the said instrument or of said James Boston his last Will and Testament, and these deponents did themselves subscribe their own respective names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of the said deceased, and in his presence and in the presence of each other. That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing his name to said instrument as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States, that he appeared to be, and deponents believe he was of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, and the deponents each believe, in all respects competent to devise real estate, that each of these deponents saw the said James Boston at the time of making the said subscription, declared the said instrument to be his last will and Testament, and requested these deponents to sign their names at the
