Last Will and Testament of

John Waller

DECLARED

Be it Remembered, That hereof, to wit: on the 7th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty two Samuel B. Van Buren the executor named in the Last Will and Testament of John Waller late of the Town of New Haven in the County of Oswego deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Oswego and made application to have the said Last Will and Testament, which relates to both Real and Personal Estate, proved: and on such application the said Surrogate did ascertain, by satisfactory evidence, who were the heirs at law and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences.

and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation, in due form of law, directed to the heirs at law and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence, and requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at his office in the Village of Lee House in said County, on the 17 day of February A. D. 1862, to attend the Probate of said Will.

And afterwards, to wit: on the 17 day of February A. D. 1862, satisfactory evidence by affidavit was produced and presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law, and on that day, no one appearing to oppose the Probate of such Will, such proceedings were thereupon had in said Court, afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the oath of said Will, having first sworn, upon this 17 day of Feb. A. D. 1862, and he thereupon adjudged the said Will to be a valid Will of Real and Personal Estate, and the proof thereof to be sufficient, which said Last Will and Testament, and proof, are as follows, to wit: say:

WILL.

In the name of God Amen: I John Waller of New Haven County of Oswego and State of New York being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this mortal life do hereby make public and declare this to be my last Will and Testament: That in my first, after all my lawful debts paid and discharged I give and bequeath
