

and that it shall remain to her to do so.

I further request that if my wife shall not be obliged to sell my library before her decease, she will at her demise dispose of the same to some member of the family to remain reserved for the benefit of the whole family.

I also request my wife to give such of the household furniture as shall remain with her at her decease to my daughter, Ruth Amelia.

I further will that my debts be paid out of such notes as I may have at my decease till the same are exhausted before resorting to other property.

I hereby appoint my wife ^{sole} ~~joint~~ ^{executrix} ~~executors~~ ^{and} ~~and~~ ^{De Witt C. Littlejohn} ~~and~~ ^{Executor} of this my Will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day of September 1861.
