

SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the Matter of Proving the Last Will and Testament of

Susan Barnes

DECEASED.

Orange County, ss.

Elizabeth Phillips of Hanby in said County being first duly sworn, in open Court, upon solemn oaths, and for herself doth depose and say, that she is subscribing witness to the last Will and Testament of Susan Barnes late of the Town of Hanby in the County of Orange and State of New York deceased. And these deponents do further say that the said deceased, did, in the presence of each of these deponents, subscribe her name at the end of the instrument in writing, which is now here shown to these deponents, and which purports to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and which bears date on the 19th day of Nov. one thousand eight hundred and Sixty one

That the said deceased did, at the time of subscribing her name to the said instrument, as aforesaid, declare the same to be her last Will and Testament, and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said instrument, as attesting witnesses to the execution thereof, each at the request of the said deceased, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other. That the said deceased, at the time of so subscribing her name to said instrument, as aforesaid, and publishing said instrument, as aforesaid, was upwards of twenty years of age, and a citizen of the United States; that she appeared to be, and deponents believe she was of sound mind, memory, and understanding, and not under any restraint, and as deponents verily believe in all respects completely to devise real estate; that each of these deponents saw the other sign his name to said instrument, in the presence of the said deceased. That the said S. D. Buffington the other

Subscribing Witness is now dead.
