

And it appearing to the said Surrogate that the personal estate belonging to the said estate had been exhausted and there still remained unpaid, of debts chargeable upon the said estate including the expenses of the execution of the said Will one hundred and thirty four dollars and seven cents.
And it appearing to the said Surrogate that it would be advantageous to the owners of the said real estate; the said Norman deceased that the same should be held for the payment of the said sum of money so due and chargeable on the said estate, and no cause being shown to the con-trary the said Surrogate did thereupon order and judge and decree that the said execution should be authorized to lease the said real estate whereof the said Norman dies seized situate in the town of Scriba in said county for such length of time as might be necessary for raising the said sum of one hundred and thirty four dollars and seven cents provided the said lease should not be for a longer time than until the youngest person interested in the said estate should become twenty one years of age.

In witness whereof the seal of office of the said Surrogate is hereunto affixed this seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one. Chester Hayden Surrogate
