They Didn't "Let George Do It"

The "Let-George-Do-It" spirit was a flop as far back as 1776. In fact, our elders refused to let George of England do it. They got together and established this Republic.

Now, you citizens of Queens must get together in aid of your less fortunate, jobless neighbors and put over Queens' great open air opera "For their sakes, as well as your own—"George" can't and won't do it—but every "Tom, Dick, Harry and Harriet" of you CAN and MUST!

"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci"
