VET CEMETERY PLAN ASSAILED BY DR. MCRAE

Meadowbrook Hospital
Head Joins Protest Against
Army Proposal

NEW YORK—A national cemetery in Nassau, proposed by the Board of Supervisors, was opposed by Army doctors today.

One of the chief spokesmen for the court, Dr. James C. McRae, expressed his opposition to the establishment of the cemetery.

"I think the government has many places where they can build their own cemeteries," he said. "I do not think it is a wise thing to use the public funds for this purpose."

The proposal has been met with strong opposition from many of the residents in Nassau County.

FRANCE—It was announced today that the French government is to reinforce the government of 30 planes.

The move is aimed at supporting the beleaguered government against the rebels.

Spiteful, Lindy Go-Between, Is Arrested for Vagrancy

MARY, ANGRY, WON'T SETTLE

BLAST VICTIM, RIBS BROKEN, SAVES SELF

LINDY GO-BE-TWEN, a professional informer, was arrested today on a charge of vagrancy.

The police say she was found wandering the streets of the city, looking for work.

MADAM GRADY, the owner of the Lindy Go-Between Agency, said that the woman had been working for her for years.

LINDY said that she was caught "on the street" and was "not expected to find work in the city."
