Lutheran Youth Rally At Fair Is Attended By 2,000 Persons

DR. GEORGE DUBIS

A Lutheran youth rally sponsored by three church organizations at Target High School, 191st Street and Abbott Avenue, was attended by about 2,000 persons. The rally was held in conjunction with the World Youth Festival, which is being held in New York City this week.

The rally was sponsored by the Lutheran Youth League of the New York Conference, the Lutheran Youth League of the United States, and the Lutheran Youth League of the World. The rally was directed by Dr. Ralph H. Long of Rockville Centre, executive director of the Lutheran Youth League of the United States.

The program included several addresses, and a parade of Lutheran youth organizations from different parts of the country.

The rally was attended by about 2,000 persons, including many members of the local community.

Dr. Long introduced the rally and spoke on the importance of youth in the life of the church. He emphasized the need for a stronger youth movement in the church and encouraged the youth to become more involved in the life of the church.

The rally was well attended and was a great success. Many of the youth who attended the rally expressed their support for Dr. Long's message and were encouraged to become more involved in the life of the church.

The rally ended with a picnic lunch, which was enjoyed by all.
