$500,000 FIRE AT ROCKAWAY; 1 DEAD, 3 MISSING

LEADER SMEDLEY EXTENDS THE OLIVE BRANCH TO ALL PRIMARY OPPONENTS

Says Democrats Should Get Together New Hope for Election

With the appearances of the way in which the Democratic party is composed of the primary campaign, which was the result of the primary elections, it is clear that the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance. The Democrats are no doubt now the primary opponents of the Republican party, and the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance. The Democrats are now the primary opponents of the Republican party, and the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance.

JAMAICA FREEPORT AUTO BUS SERVICE STARTED TODAY

New Line Established as a Result of Fight Won by Freeport Woman at Long Island Daily Press

The Citizens' Association of Queens and Nassau has announced the establishment of a new line of auto buses, starting today, to be known as the Freeport Auto Bus. The line has been started at the request of a group of residents who have been demanding public transportation for the area. The buses will operate from the Freeport station to various points in the town.

WOMAN WHO WON OVER COP. MACHINE

Mrs. Window of L. I. won New Ballot Box in Monthly Meeting of Queens Committee

Mrs. Window, a member of the Queens Committee, has won a new ballot box in the monthly meeting of the committee. The ballot box was won by Mrs. Window in a contest with other members of the committee. The new box will be used for the upcoming election.

2000 QUEENS ELKS MAKE MERRY AT BIG CLAMBAKE

2000 Queensmen Held at Secret Park Athletic Club, Take Part in Annual Peace Celebration

The annual Clam Bake, held by the Queens Elks, was enjoyed by 2000 members of the organization. The event was held at the Secret Park Athletic Club, where the members gathered to enjoy a day of fun and fellowship. The Clam Bake is an annual event that celebrates the camaraderie of the Elks.

AMUSEMENT PARKS BURN, SUMMER HOTELS IN RUINS IN ROCKAWAY BEACH FIRE

Summer Dwellers Flee in Night Clothes, 200 Roused from Beds in Children's Home. One Body Found, Three Missing

The blaze started at a house on the beach, sending up a plume of smoke that was visible for miles. The fire spread rapidly, engulfing several summer homes and buildings. The blaze was fought by local firefighters and police officers, but the damage was extensive. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

THE WEATHER—Cloudy with showers.

VOL. XXII. (Copyright 1921.)

JAMAICA, NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1921.

10 PAGES. TWO CENTS.

THE OLIVE BRANCH TO

THE WEATHER—Cloudy with showers.

VOL. XXII. (Copyright 1921.)

JAMAICA, NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1921.

10 PAGES. TWO CENTS.

$500,000 FIRE AT ROCKAWAY; 1 DEAD, 3 MISSING

LEADER SMEDLEY EXTENDS THE OLIVE BRANCH TO ALL PRIMARY OPPONENTS

Says Democrats Should Get Together New Hope for Election

With the appearances of the way in which the Democratic party is composed of the primary campaign, which was the result of the primary elections, it is clear that the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance. The Democrats are now the primary opponents of the Republican party, and the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance.

JAMAICA FREEPORT AUTO BUS SERVICE STARTED TODAY

New Line Established as a Result of Fight Won by Freeport Woman at Long Island Daily Press

The Citizens' Association of Queens and Nassau has announced the establishment of a new line of auto buses, starting today, to be known as the Freeport Auto Bus. The line has been started at the request of a group of residents who have been demanding public transportation for the area. The buses will operate from the Freeport station to various points in the town.

WOMAN WHO WON OVER COP. MACHINE

Mrs. Window of L. I. won New Ballot Box in Monthly Meeting of Queens Committee

Mrs. Window, a member of the Queens Committee, has won a new ballot box in the monthly meeting of the committee. The ballot box was won by Mrs. Window in a contest with other members of the committee. The new box will be used for the upcoming election.

2000 QUEENS ELKS MAKE MERRY AT BIG CLAMBAKE

2000 Queensmen Held at Secret Park Athletic Club, Take Part in Annual Peace Celebration

The annual Clam Bake, held by the Queens Elks, was enjoyed by 2000 members of the organization. The event was held at the Secret Park Athletic Club, where the members gathered to enjoy a day of fun and fellowship. The Clam Bake is an annual event that celebrates the camaraderie of the Elks.

AMUSEMENT PARKS BURN, SUMMER HOTELS IN RUINS IN ROCKAWAY BEACH FIRE

Summer Dwellers Flee in Night Clothes, 200 Roused from Beds in Children's Home. One Body Found, Three Missing

The blaze started at a house on the beach, sending up a plume of smoke that was visible for miles. The fire spread rapidly, engulfing several summer homes and buildings. The blaze was fought by local firefighters and police officers, but the damage was extensive. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

THE WEATHER—Cloudy with showers.

VOL. XXII. (Copyright 1921.)

JAMAICA, NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1921.

10 PAGES. TWO CENTS.

$500,000 FIRE AT ROCKAWAY; 1 DEAD, 3 MISSING

LEADER SMEDLEY EXTENDS THE OLIVE BRANCH TO ALL PRIMARY OPPONENTS

Says Democrats Should Get Together New Hope for Election

With the appearances of the way in which the Democratic party is composed of the primary campaign, which was the result of the primary elections, it is clear that the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance. The Democrats are now the primary opponents of the Republican party, and the change in the party line is now a matter of the most importance.

JAMAICA FREEPORT AUTO BUS SERVICE STARTED TODAY

New Line Established as a Result of Fight Won by Freeport Woman at Long Island Daily Press

The Citizens' Association of Queens and Nassau has announced the establishment of a new line of auto buses, starting today, to be known as the Freeport Auto Bus. The line has been started at the request of a group of residents who have been demanding public transportation for the area. The buses will operate from the Freeport station to various points in the town.

WOMAN WHO WON OVER COP. MACHINE

Mrs. Window of L. I. won New Ballot Box in Monthly Meeting of Queens Committee

Mrs. Window, a member of the Queens Committee, has won a new ballot box in the monthly meeting of the committee. The ballot box was won by Mrs. Window in a contest with other members of the committee. The new box will be used for the upcoming election.

2000 QUEENS ELKS MAKE MERRY AT BIG CLAMBAKE

2000 Queensmen Held at Secret Park Athletic Club, Take Part in Annual Peace Celebration

The annual Clam Bake, held by the Queens Elks, was enjoyed by 2000 members of the organization. The event was held at the Secret Park Athletic Club, where the members gathered to enjoy a day of fun and fellowship. The Clam Bake is an annual event that celebrates the camaraderie of the Elks.

AMUSEMENT PARKS BURN, SUMMER HOTELS IN RUINS IN ROCKAWAY BEACH FIRE

Summer Dwellers Flee in Night Clothes, 200 Roused from Beds in Children's Home. One Body Found, Three Missing

The blaze started at a house on the beach, sending up a plume of smoke that was visible for miles. The fire spread rapidly, engulfing several summer homes and buildings. The blaze was fought by local firefighters and police officers, but the damage was extensive. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

THE WEATHER—Cloudy with showers.

VOL. XXII. (Copyright 1921.)

JAMAICA, NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1921.

10 PAGES. TWO CENTS.