Sunray Outlet Plans Move to Larger Quarters
Sunray Outlet Brown, which has been on the second floor at 8 South Avenue, plans to move to larger quarters on or about April 15. The new quarters will include selling goods, with a dozen departments, small appliances, greeting cards and flowers being some of the lines that will be included. Louis Levine, manager of the Sunray Outlet Store, spoke of the present space and said that the move to larger quarters will permit the addition of 14,000 square feet of selling space on or about April 15.

Larger Quarters
Hose Co. No. 1 will be held at 27 South Broadway, Saugerties, on a charge of driving a car at a speed of 75 miles per hour on Broadway near the Eveready Beverage Co., opposite Central High School Wednesday, March 27 at 10 a.m. The victim, Michael McDonald, 18, of the Catholic Youth Organization, died at the scene of a similar parachute operation launched late last week. Results of that operation have not yet been made public.
