H. P. Van Ness, chairman, will be discussed next Monday at 4 p.m. in the auditorium of the Yonkers Y.W.C.A. Among the fifty doctors slated to speak are those who are members of the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Many Groups Help

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Willkie Says British

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Liberal To Speak

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.

Pension Funds

The meeting is sponsored by the Neighborhood Council of School Officials for the State Department of Education, Dr. Albert H. Horowitz, chairman, and Dr. Charles B. Newlin, director of the New York State Department of Education. It is suggested that representatives of other groups who are interested in the problems of cooperation in education be present at the meeting to participate in the discussion.