THE LEGISLATURE starts off as lamely as usual, with an unnecessary adjournment.

If DEAD Indians are good Indians, 1891 promises a large crop of good Indians in the bad lands.

Gov. HILL'S annual message, which the BULLETIN printed nearly in full last evening, is generally admitted by the press to be his ablest and most dignified state paper.

THUS far the seats of seven Republican Assemblymen are contested. This is a greater number of contests than has been known in the Assembly for many a year. What was the matter with the new ballot law?

SOMEHOW the Advertiser's argument that it ought to be paid more than the market price for doing printing for the county on the ground that it is apparently a Republican paper does not convince the tax-payers any more than it convinced the supervisors.

SENATOR SAKTON yesterday introduced no fewer than five bills to amend the election laws. But the Senator will never be able to induce the Governor to affix his signature to the bill doing away with registration in the rural districts. Rural registration has come to stay.

O'BRIEN and Parnell are still talking away at a great rate—but they do not accomplish anything so far as the best reporters can discover. They, however, profess themselves hopeful. In the meantime, all Ireland, all England and all America too for that matter, stands and waits.

A DUKE died in Europe, yesterday. He never will be missed. The world has more Wukes than it can find use for. They are chiefly available as husbands for American heiresses and for that dead dukes don't count. Even when alive this particular duke was of no account even for that purpose.

BRITAIN may be pretty mad over the Behring sea question but America isn't. We are ready to arbitrate but demand that the arbitration shall cover the essential points. This is what Secretary Blaine is standing out for. And he is right. If we are to have a settlement, it must be conclusive and final.

TO-DAY'S news from Chicago regarding the meeting of the directors of the American Harvester company is important not because it is decisive but because it indicates that before the week is out it will be definitely decided what works are to be continued in operation and what closed. And that is just what all Auburnians most desire to know.

It is true that the game laws of the State are in the hands of a special commission for revision and codification but as the results of their labors must be reviewed and confirmed by the Legislature, they may also be amended. The advocates of net fishing for bull-heads, suckers and eels should remember this. As the BULLETIN said last Spring, the war for cheap fish for the people has only just begun. The enemy is in the bad lands but he may be dislodged.

THE COMMERCE of the Hudson river is nearly three times as great as that of the Mississippi. Federal appropriations for the improvement of navigation are nearly 100 times greater for the Mississippi than for the Hudson. The injustice is apparent at a glance. The Hudson needs deepening to Troy. Congress should cut some of the trout streams out of the River and Harbor bill and be generous towards New York's great water way. The Legislature has taken the right track in asking just that from the general government.

SENATOR Hoar thinks the Republican party is dead because the Force bill has been shelved. He will find out his mistake later. If the Force bill had been enacted, then indeed might Mr. Hoar fear for the life of the party which has given him so much and to which he has given, if naught else, so many years. No partisan measure ever permanently benefited the party which enacted it. Few partisan measures have ever failed to work eventual harm to the party enacting them. Party spirit may prevail for a time but there is a sense of justice in the people which in the end rights all wrongs. Senator Hoar is old enough to know this.

PRETTY MUCH EVERYTHING.

LIST'S BOY. A funny wrinkle across the toe. A shabby rub on the heel below. And four little buttons all in a row. One of them set with a silver stitch. Nickel and spun, where the heel-skin which is rubbed off the old and a hick. Now is the record of how the game was played. While up to your lip her foot she throws. Bubbling over with rapturous crows. Look at this tiny brown and blue. And see how the ankle was pinned and torn. It's her very first shoe since she was born. All her walking in done on the air. It's the same old story, the same old air. No wonder the sole is smooth and fair. From the father's knee to the mother's breast. From the earliest ride to the blizzard's rest. Then tucked away in her baby's nest.

PEOPLE AND POLITICS.

—Dr. McGlynn received a $1,600 Christmas check from his friends.

—Lucy Larcum has nearly completed an Easter gift book called "As It is in Heaven."

—Alexander Calhoun, one of the guards of Napoleon at St. Helena, died in Rochester the other day, aged ninety-three years.

—With Justices Bradley, Blatchford, Brewer and Brown all on the Bench what a lot of busy bees the overworked Supreme Court of the United States will have.—World.

—"It is stated on the highest authority," says the London Free Press, "that Mrs. Birchall is engaged to be married to Arthur Leatham, of Montreal, her late husband's college chum. It is added that the marriage will occur soon and be made as private as possible."

—Ellsworth Loggins, the eldest son of the Kansas Senator, is a lawyer, who has built up a lucrative practice in his native town. The Senator's second son, Ralph, is a student at the Columbia College Law school. He will take his degree in the Spring.

THE AUBURN ASYLUM ORPHANS.

Santa Claus Did Not Forget Them by a Great Deal.

The Christmas tree and entertainment of the Auburn Orphan asylum came around in its own time and season last evening, and brought joy to the hearts of over 125 children who are inmates of that institution. It was indeed a happy occasion for the children and the good sisters of the asylum, who equally enjoyed the occasion with the little ones in knowing they were happy. All the afternoon ladies from the Holy Family and St. Mary's churches were present and assisted in arranging the supper for the little ones. Prominent among the workers were Mrs. Captain Boye and daughters, Misses Nellie and Annie; Misses Nellie Wall, Lizzie O'Neil, Mate Began, Etie Murphy, Nellie Sullivan, Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mrs. Thomas Burke, Mrs. M. F. Keeler, Mrs. William O'Neil and others. An abundant supply of good things was furnished the children by the ladies of the three parishes and the merchants of the city. The tables were spread in the early evening and it was a pleasant sight to see the little ones file into the dining hall, take their seats at the table and enjoy themselves. After supper all repaired to the hall in the rear part of the building, where the following programme was rendered:

- Welcomes speech. One of the children of the primary class recited. The children of the asylum Drama, Dottie New Year's Party, in four acts. By 8 little girls of the school Act I. Baking for the Party. Sing, "Let Me Kiss the Baby." Recitation, "Keeping his Word." One of the little boys Song, "Where do the old Years Go." By 20 little girls Recitation, "A Boy's Grievance." By one of the boys Recitation, Dolly, Listen to Me. A little girl Song, with march and camp scene, "Feeling to-night." 25 boys of the school. One of the little boys. An impromptu musical programme followed in which the following vocalists took part: Misses Hanlon and Boyle acting as accompanists: Vocal solo, "My love is Fair Columbia." Miss Etie Murphy. Comic song selected, "His funeral is to-morrow." Mr. Hanlon. Vocal solo selected, "Miss Alice Purdy."

The children greeted their audience from a stage prettily trimmed with ever greens and bunting and national flags, and acquitted themselves in a manner that did credit to the sisters in charge. A number followed that was not on the programme, but was nevertheless looked forward to by the children. It was the appearance of Santa Claus. Miss Nellie Wall had skillfully arranged two large evergreen trees in the rear of the room and loaded them down with presents, toys and confections for the little ones. Two large piles of gifts rested on the floor at the foot of the tree for which there was no other room. The occasion will long be remembered by the little ones.

A Little Fire.

The grocery store of George Kirkpatrick in Burt avenue, a small frame structure, was partially burned this morning. An alarm sent from box 42, corner Elizabeth and South streets, brought the department to the scene, but the fire was extinguished by Mr. Kirkpatrick and some of the neighbors before any serious damage was done. The fire caught while Mr. Kirkpatrick was outside shoveling snow and it is thought originated from some matches which were stored under the counter.

The Gas Club Election.

The annual election of the Auburn Gas club was held last night, and the following officers were elected by a vote of 26 to 18:

- President, W. A. White. Vice president, George W. Nellis; secretary, Charles W. Briester; treasurer, Irving W. Bridgen; trustees, Charles G. Curtis, G. P. Peck, T. H. Garrett, D. A. Embold, T. K. Smith. Attorney, George W. Wells.

The members smoked "Old Times" on C. R. Egbert, whose marriage has just been announced.

Knights of St. James Officers.

The annual election of officers of the Knights of St. James was held at their rooms in the Seward block in Genesee street last evening, and resulted in their choice of the following:

Spiritual advisor, Rev. Father McGrath. President, J. J. Cunningham; vice president, John H. Farrell; recording secretary, Martin Crehan; financial secretary, John Burns; corresponding secretary, James D. Boyle; treasurer, John Wall; trustees, Thomas W. Downs and J. Lettmore.

CROCKER POST INSTALLATION.

A Public Service Attended With Much Interest.

The annual installation of officers of Crocker post was held last evening in their new quarters at 57 Genesee street, over Mills & Lathrop's shoe store, and was of unusual interest to the members and friends of the post, who had met together to dedicate the hall and initiate the officers of the post for the coming year. The hall, by the way, is a spacious and commodious room, neatly furnished with new furniture and the walls adorned with a set of Frank's battle pictures of the late war, in which the comrades of the post figured conspicuously. Flags and National emblems adorn the walls and everything is in keeping with a post room. Last evening the room was tested to its utmost seating capacity and all seemed to enjoy the treat prepared for them. The programme rendered was as follows:

- Opening remarks by Commander William Ramago. Prayer. Selection, "Softly the breeze" by Quartette First St. Church with Prof. Will H. Adams as leader and pianist. Installation ceremony conducted by Commander Ramago. Harion's solo, selected. Recitation, "The Old Sergeant's Story." Miss Emma Hall. Recitation, Logan. Miss Clara Remley. Harion's solo, "We Shall All Grow Old." Mr. Saylor. Recitation, "The Empty Sleeve." Miss Stella Davis. Address, R. L. Drummond. Selection, quartette. Remarks, Rev. F. H. Hinman. Col. Anson S. Wood of Wolcott, Wayne Co.

The following were the officers installed:

- Commander, T. J. Bell. Senior vice commander, H. Rhodes; junior vice commander, Dr. J. W. Whitebeck; chaplain, B. H. Benham; surgeon, Dr. E. S. Forman; quartermaster, L. J. Remley; adjutant, Orin McCarthy; officer of the guard, Harvey Follett; officer of the stock, J. Palmer; sergeant major, George W. Cooper; quartermaster sergeant, J. McKisack.

The opening remarks by Commander Ramago were brief and to the point, and his welcome to the friends present in behalf of the past was most cordial. Mr. Adams' solo was received in most enthusiastic manner. Miss Hall's recitation "The Old Sergeant's story," and Miss Stella Davis' selection "The Empty sleeve," were both received in a most enthusiastic manner and reflected credit on the young ladies who rendered them. The programme closed by all uniting in singing the Doxology, after which bountiful refreshments were served all present. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner.

NO PUBLIC KINDERGARTEN.

The Board of Education Shuns the Project—Changes Among the Teachers.

The Board of Education met in regular session last night. President Storke was absent and on the motion of Commissioner Osborne, Commissioner Moses presided.

The Finance committee reported the following bills, for which checks were ordered:

- Auburn Water Co. $61.68. Auburn Gas Light Co. 45.94. W. H. Seward. 31.25. Chedell & Co. 4.85. Mrs. E. Gilbert. 1.00. W. C. West. 118.57. West Auburn Grocery Co. 65.00. G. W. Richardson & Son. 3.60. J. C. Johnson. 2.00. J. S. Cowan & Son. 2.00. W. A. Merritt. 3.00. H. B. Lewis. 2.00. Messrs. Peck & Thomson. 17.40. Auburn Bricklayers. 718.00. Laphart & Garrett. 1.00. W. Roseboom. 18.44. J. J. Gardner. 18.44. Manning, Rowland & Clark. 49.21. Jacob Richardson. 3.50. Henry Gannon. 8.05.

Commissioner White from the committee on schools, reported on the petition of the ladies for the establishment of a Kindergarten. He said he had visited two or three of the petitioners and they didn't have a very clear idea of what was needed, and he advised that they investigate further. On this matter was tabled indefinitely.

Commissioner Osborne from the committee on teachers, reported the resignation of Miss Jessie Swift of the Franklin street school, the appointment of Miss Minnie Denman of Fulton street school. She succeeded Miss Swift, and of Miss Anna M. Myers succeeded Miss Denman. Mr. Osborne also reported the successful starting of the Teachers' class.

Commissioner Hosmer from the special committee on the O'Mara bill, asked for further time, which was given.

Secretary Snow reported balances in favor of the Board at the depositories as follows: Cayuga County National bank $9,776.41; W. H. Seward & Co., $11,568.44.

Commissioner White's amendment to the rules providing for the holding of meetings at 8 p. m. instead of 7:30, was taken up and adopted by a vote of 4 to 2. Commissioner Osborne was of the opinion that it would result in more delay in calling the meeting to order.

Commissioner McCarty called up the resolution offered by Commissioner Parker at the November meetings, authorizing the committee on buildings to sell old personal property, and it was adopted.

Amusements.

The comedy, Two Old Cronies, will be given at the Curtis, Friday night. An Exchange says:

Frank M. Willis as the Professor and Charles F. Jerome as O'Donovan Duff were highly amusing, and convulsed the spectators with the comical complications with which the two friends are mixed up. Among the ladies Miss Ada Deaves showed herself one of the cleverest soubrettes now before the public, and Miss Norma Willis and Miss Julie Mackay were both received with great favor by the audience. The musical portion of the performance, consisting of solos both comic and serious, duets and choruses, caught the audience and many of the numbers were enthusiastically re-demanded. The play has been considerably altered and improved since it was seen here last, and many new features have been introduced.

Myers Camp.

The installation of officers of R. J. Myers' Camp, will be held in the Seward Post rooms to-morrow evening. An interesting musical and literary programme will be given. Rev. F. H. Hinman and others will speak during the evening. Refreshments will be served and the A. G. O. will be assisted by Barn...

THE HARVESTER COMBINE.

A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS NOW IN SESSION IN CHICAGO.

Dakota Farmers Will Contest the Payment of Notes Amounting to $3,000,000 Mailed by the Company.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Nearly all the directors of the newly incorporated American Harvester Co. were at the monthly meeting held here, yesterday. The object of the meeting was to arrange the details of the enormous combine, which embraces eighteen to twenty of the largest harvesting manufactories in the United States. One of the most important matters considered yesterday was the reduction in the present running expenses of the various concerns belonging to the combine, the intention being to reduce the cost of manufacture as much as possible. This means the discharge of many employes, not only among the workmen, but also in the clerical force. The directors will be in session several days.

FARGO, N. D., Jan. 7.—Arrangements are being made to fight the collection of all notes held by the Harvester companies in this State, amounting to $3,000,000. The ground of the contest is that the notes were given for binders with the contract that repairs should be furnished free, and the recently organized American Harvester company has decided that all repairs must hereafter be paid for in cash. Another ground will be that the new company is a trust, and therefore contrary to the laws of the United States and North Dakota.

Assignee's Sale.

The assignees of G. W. Ingalls & Co. are bound to turn the stock of Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Trunks and Satchels into money. For the last three weeks they have been selling Boots, shoes, etc., at cost and some at less than cost. Commencing Monday, January 5, they will offer greater bargains than ever. Having closed the store at Rome, the greater part of the stock was shipped to the Auburn store and will be sold at a ridiculous low price. Do not miss this chance of buying shoes at almost your own price. "A dollar saved is a dollar earned." Remember the place, 18 North street.

Progressive Euchre.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cowan gave a progressive euchre party to about thirty friends, at their residence No. 50 Pulsifer street, last night. Peter Hahn won the first prize and Charles J. Young the booby. A palatable lunch was served at 11:30, after which the party ended their way homeward well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

Westfall Hose's Election.

At the regular meeting of Westfall Hose Company, last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Foreman, R. L. Warner, jr. First assistant, Adelbert C. Whiting; second assistant, R. G. Collier; president, John Scott; vice president, Charles Blakeley; recording secretary, William Warner; financial secretary, John Seath; treasurer, Charles Hunter; steward, W. Scott; chaplain, Rev. F. H. Hinman. The company, Westfall Hose, wishes to extend sincere thanks to all who donated articles or money for its fair, to all who helped make it a success, and to the ladies.

Westminster Church Officers.

Westminster church received four new members on Sunday. The new church officers elected are:

Elders, James McCullough for three years and Wm. Cox for one year; deacons, Joseph Berry for three years, Martin Field and S. C. Halkstead, each for one year.

These officers will be ordained and installed next Sunday morning. The Sunday school has elected the following officers:

Superintendent, F. A. Carr. Assistant Superintendent, M. Field. Secretary and treasurer, A. R. Burgess; assistant secretary and treasurer, Smith Kimball; librarian, Geo. Yoder; assistant librarian, John Burgess.

Branch 49, G. M. B. A.

Thomas McConnell, district deputy, assisted by Chanceller Thomas O'Neill, installed the following officers of Branch 49 in their rooms last evening, for the year 1891:

Chancellor, Cornelius Quigley. President, John Gerin; first vice president, Patrick Cashen; second vice president, Timothy Flynn; recording secretary, Thomas R. Nugent; assistant secretary, James F. Gaylor; financial secretary, James Doyle; treasurer, L. W. Dempsey; marshal, James W. Donworth; guard, David Fearney; trustees, Thomas B. Foley and Harry Welch.

Seward Post Installation.

The regular installation of officers of Seward Post was held in the post rooms last evening. It was open to none but members of the post. Post Commander Frederick Cosum installed the officers as follows:

Commander, W. E. Webster. S. V. C., George Swan; J. V. C., Fred W. Battis; Q. M., Fred Cosum; Surg., I. M. Gillett; Chap., William C. Craw; O. D., William W. Bush; O. G., Ed Brennan; Tellers, Barney and Downer.

The Tonsorial firm of Gove & Roehner having dissolved, F. C. Gove will continue the business.

A Small Boy's Trouble.

A boy named King, who lives on State street, was hit in the head by a bucket which fastened the lines by a farmer on whose sleigh he was "catching a ride," this afternoon, and cut quite severely. Blood poured from the wound and the boy and his mother created considerable excitement, but the farmer drove away and escaped the angry mother's wrath.

AUBURN LODGE INSTALLS.

It Also Entertains Its Friends With Music and Feasting.

The annual banquet and installation ceremonies of Auburn Lodge, 431. F. & A. M., were held in Masonic hall last evening. The spacious hall, side-rooms and entrance were thronged with the friends of the lodge, who were treated to one of the best arranged and most entertaining musicals held in this city in a long time. Each selection on the programme was well received and those who took part did themselves credit. George F. Willis presided during the evening as master of ceremonies. The instrumental music was furnished by the West Side orchestra and the members of the Ideal Banjo club. The programme was as follows:

- Grand Overture, Led by Fay Stevens. West Side Orchestra. Prayer, Rev. Dr. Murray. Psalm, Selected, A. L. Henningway. March, Banjo Club. Solo, Serevalde, By Greg. Installation of Officers, Miss Gertrude A. Burlingame. Deputy Grand Master Stockwell of Oswego, Visiting Grand Master of Westborough, Misses Caroline A. Koster, and Gertrude A. Burlingame. Banjo Solo, Selected, (George Billings) Song, "The Ferry to Shadowtown," Miss Koster. Frank Heubner Solo, Selected, Banjo Club. Solo, Selected, A. L. Henningway. Solo, by request, Dreaming, West Side Orchestra. Pinauti, Miss Burlingame.

Miss Burlingame was given an encore to her well rendered Serevalde and responded by singing "Three Wise Old Women." The event of the evening was the vocal duet by Misses Koster and Burlingame. They were unable to respond to an encore, as the applause given them took them by surprise. Both singers appeared separately on the programme later in the evening. Miss Florence Mead acted as the companion of the evening, and performed her task in a most acceptable manner. The lodge rooms never presented a more inviting appearance and the rich draperies on the doors and windows, the floral decorations of potted plants and trailing vines about the chairs of the higher officials, added materially to the appearance of the room.

At the conclusion of the programme, by request, Rev. Dr. Murray, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, made a few remarks regarding masonry, its aims and objects. His remarks were followed by music by Miss Mead and the Banjo club. Supper was served in the banquet hall in fine style by the members of the lodge, and all that could be desired was spread before the guests. The supper was in keeping with the high order of the musical programme, and all left the banquet hall well satisfied with the spread. A number of guests from the surrounding towns and villages were present.

Seneca County.

Seneca Falls, Jan. 7.—A small and cold audience greeted the Runaway Wife at the Johnson. The troupe was an excellent one, however.

Democratic caucuses will be held to-night.

The death of John Proudfoot, of whom the BULLETIN spoke yesterday, occurred last night, about 9 o'clock. He had been ill but ten days and it was just eight weeks last night since his marriage. Typhoid pneumonia is said to have been the cause of his death.

Neil Doyle is home, for a day, or two, at Syracuse, with his parents.

Frank Walters is absent at Boston for the Silby Manufacturing company.

Why should eggs sell here for 90c. per dozen when they are quoted in Rochester papers at 24 cents?

Mrs. Comber served supper to participants in the Odd Fellows' ball last evening.

Sweet cider is worth the small sum of 40 cents per gallon here.

Another operation was performed upon Alonzo Forbes at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester Sunday last. Mr. Forbes and his family are deserving of sympathy. C. C. Topping, chaplain of Red Jacket lodge A. O. U. will occur Friday evening, having been postponed from last Friday night.

WATERLOO, Jan. 7.—Hon. W. H. Dunham has taken rooms at the Towley house for his family this winter.

C. C. Sweet has returned to New York city.

The Misses Bacon will entertain the Onevah Tennis club, Wednesday evening of next week, at their home north of the village.

Mrs. R. M. Swift will form a new class in dancing.

The Royal Templars of Temperance have elected the following officers: S. C. Morris, Syracuse; toll-set, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hoskins; push tdy, Mrs. Buckingham. The guests separated at midnight in excellent humor and with hearty wishes for the future prosperity and happiness of the newly wedded pair.

SPRINGPORT.

UNION SPRINGS, Jan. 6.—Mrs. James Carroll has returned home from Cleveland, where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. O'Neal, for the last five or six weeks.

Miss "Gerdie" Lyden is the new organist in the Catholic church. She seems to give entire satisfaction.

William Cooper took possession of his new meat market, Jan 1.

IN COURT TO-DAY.

The Rainow-Peacock Case Still on—Other Cases Advanced.

In the Circuit court this morning, the case of Frances M. Rainow vs. William Peacock Jr., was continued from yesterday. It will probably occupy the attention of court the entire day. The complainant is the notorious Frank Rainow, who was the proprietress of the well known dive Hotel Rainow in State street. The case is to recover damages for false imprisonment. An eager crowd of men are listening to the case and the history of the Rainow woman during her stay in Auburn and in Syracuse is being reviewed. City Judge Frank E. Cady appears for Mrs. Rainow, and Hon. H. V. Howland for Mr. Peacock.

The following orders were granted: In the case of Sarah A. Sheridan against Andrew Sheridan, interlocutory judgment in partition granted and order entered in Seneca county.

In the case of Cornelius A. Hood against Chester B. Borden, an order confirming referee's report of sale in mortgage foreclosure granted and certified to Yates county.

In the case of the Market and Fulton National Bank of New York against Thomas Jones and others, an order was granted appointing Thomas Jones receiver of the defendant, the Rheubottom & Teal Manufacturing Co., on motion of E. C. Aiken.

In the case of Amos Mack against Mary Conran, an order was granted appointing Frank S. Wright guardian for defendant, on motion of Thomas M. Hunt, defendant's attorney.

The case of John Dunn, Jr., against Harry Kidney, was referred to Fred E. Storke to hear and determine.

The Martha Washingtons.

At the regular meeting of the Martha Washington society on Tuesday, formal reference was made to the loss sustained by this society in the deaths of Mrs. Terrell, one of its vice presidents, and of Mrs. Bradley, one of its managers. Thus the generous and faithful are missed, and there is urgent need that others come promptly forward to carry on the work. With the crowds of applicants this hard winter, supplies are lacking, while an efficient committee is needed at once to visit every home where want is reported. Any who will volunteer to help, will please report to Mrs. S. C. Crossman, No. 18 Seminary avenue.

Croakers.

Fresh lot from one of the best known manufacturers in Western New York. All kinds: 7c. a pound, 4 lbs. for a quarter. They're good ones, too. MORSE'S.

THE COUNTY.

FLEMING.

FLEMING, Jan. 6.—New Year's eve a small circle of relatives assembled at the residence of John Padbury in Fleming, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Satie, to Fred E. Hoskins of Aurelius. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlors, with Miss Lucy Perrott of Illinois, as bridesmaid, and Frank M. Hoskins, brother of the groom, as best man. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. F. D. Penney of the Second Baptist church of Auburn. After congratulations were received, all partook of a bountiful repast, which was heartily enjoyed. The bride wore a heliotrope silk and a corsage bouquet of white roses.

The following is a partial list of presents: Gold watch, groom's present to bride; crayon portrait, bride's present to groom; silver dinner castor, antique oak table and chairs, bride's parents; doz. silver knives, groom's parents; china tea set, Mr. and Mrs. A.
