

KEYES' COLUMN!

Moral and Miscellaneous.

Need Foreman of the House Co. and David McCroarty 1st Ass.

The CARRIERS of this paper are not permitted to take any other paper... We are compelled to give this notice because...

A disappointed lover down east, lately hung himself with a string of unions. Syracuse Courier.—H. S. McCollum has taken charge of the editorial columns of the Syracuse Courier.

A letter was received and read from the Committee of the Universalist Sabbath School as follows: To the members of Engine Co. No. 4.

Mr. Thomas Connolly has engaged to deliver his lecture upon the "Ups and Downs of Life" before the Young Men's Lyceum of Skaneateles, next Saturday evening.

Mr. Semi Babbitt, of Fleming, will accept one-thanks for those delicious apples left on our table by him, this morning.

At a meeting of Cayuga Engine Co. No. 4, held at their engine house last evening, the following officers were unanimously elected to serve for the ensuing year:

First Young Gent.—Why, Augustus Adolphus, I've swared and showed tobacco these two years, and I'll be transported, if I can cut as big a swell as you do.

Slightly Suggestive.—The editor of the Troy Budget, after publishing a new mode for fattening hogs, says: "There can be no mistake about its being superior to all others, as we know it from experience."

Young Gent No. 2.—I patronize J. A. Keyes, 111 Genesee-street. Do you understand? A word to the wise is sufficient.

Quita percha stereotype plates are among the latest inventions. We yet expect to see India rubber stove pipes—a style of pipe that you can run anywhere without swearing at "those deuced elbows."

To the Citizens of Auburn and vicinity, do you wish to purchase any articles of CLOTHING or FURNISHING GOODS?

There is said to be no sleighing at all in the country, and that "institution" is pretty much whipped in the city. Three or four inches would make it excellent.

IF SO, READ THE FOLLOWING: J. A. KEYES, 111 West Genesee Street.

CHRISTIAN UNION.—This is the title of a new paper, the first number of which has just come to hand. It is published at Union Springs, in this county, and appears to be the organ of no denomination, nor to have any responsible names as publishers.

STYLE, WORKMANSHIP, AND LOWNESS OF PRICE CANNOT BE SURPASSED

FELLOWS CASE.—We understand that the motion to quash the three indictments found, last summer, against Jerome B. Fellows, a New York chap, who has created some distinction (not very enviable, however), in our community for the past few months, was argued yesterday, before a full bench of the Court, now in session at the Court House, in this city.

ALARM OF FIRE.—An alarm of fire occurred last evening, about 11 o'clock. It was caused by the prevalence of a dense smoke, which seemed to come from burning straw, in the neighborhood of the foot of Mechanic street.

ECONOMY, and buy

SILVER COIN.—The market is somewhat overburdened with the depreciated Silver Coins of the United States. The proposition of the Director of the Mint, that these Coins should be made legal tender to the amount of fifty or one hundred dollars in one lot, would give them additional currency.

LAKE HOUSE, SKANEATELES.—During a recent visit to the pleasant little village of Skaneateles, we had occasion to enjoy the hospitalities of mine host WELCH, of the Lake House. This hotel, if not the largest, is certainly one of the most commodiously arranged and best conducted of any in the State.
