

THE EVENING AUBURNIAN.

Vol. VIII, No. 8. AUBURN, N. Y., MONDAY JANUARY 10 1881. TEN CENTS PER WEEK

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

John S. Lanehart—Loyal Sock Coal. 3 Court Street—Gill Wanted. Van Vorst & Lyon—The Last Call. Bishop & Waldron—Foreign and American Maps. Mills & Rice—Hand Made Shoes.

BRIEF MENTION.

The date of Prof. O. Von Lingkie's lecture has been changed to Tuesday evening, February 1st.
Generally cloudy, drizzle of rain and snow. During the night, a heavy weather, is the weather prospect for today.
Crockett Post, 55 A. R. All told another fair series of enjoyable socials, to-morrow evening at Smith's hall over 100 Genesee street.
Rev. C. A. Johnson will deliver his lecture "Caleb J. Whitaker or West Point's Mystery" in Zion church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.
Owing to the scarcity of fodder, it is stated that farmers in the vicinity of Sumnerhill are drawing straw from the town of Genoa for feeding their stock.
Several Foresters residing in Auburn have been in communication with the Grand Lodge lately, with a view to organizing a county lodge at Syracuse.

EPISTLE FROM NEW YORK.

WHAT JOHN KELLY THINKS OF THE PART AND THE FUTURE.

A Day of Vengeance and Retribution. Theron—Minister Christianity and His Wife—Gossip Tinged with Nihilism.
New York, Jan. 7.—May be you have seen some statements lately made by one Michael Tuomey, who was at one time an alderman of this city, relative to John Kelly and his alleged non-support of General Hancock. Tuomey says, in a letter to the Herald, that he had a talk with John Kelly at Saratoga last summer and that Kelly was exceeding wroth on receipt of that time of the news that Hancock had been to Greystone to visit Samuel J. Tilden. Tuomey says Kelly bolted then and there and that his jealousy of his enemy Tilden so mastered him that he refused to longer support Hancock. So much for what Tuomey said.
I met John Kelly this afternoon and I asked him about this matter.
"Well," said he, "you know as well as I just who and what Tuomey is—one of these creatures that drift about the earth, no one knows how. I met this man on the piazza of the Grand Union, at Saratoga, one day last summer, and I had a talk with him, but what he says about my disavowal of Hancock's visit to Tilden is a lie. He lies when he says I know that Tuomey was in the habit of going to see Hancock and that he knew he was a hanger on at Governor's Island. My talk with him was previous to Hancock's visit to Tilden, and I talked to Tuomey like this: I told him I did not think the national or state committees were being properly managed, that they seem to be doing nothing, especially the state committee, that they were doing nothing with the men who had been against us, and I told this man, knowing at the time of his visits to Gen. Hancock, that I thought the General ought to make no enemies and that he should see Tilden and gain all the strength possible from all possible sources. And Hancock did just as I hoped, and had suggested that he should. The man lies when he says I was averse to this visit."
In the course of our talk, Mr. Kelly said: "They say so much about Tammany not having given money to the state committee. Why did we were spending our money on the other side? The fact is, that we were doing nothing with the men who had been against us, and I told this man, knowing at the time of his visits to Gen. Hancock, that I thought the General ought to make no enemies and that he should see Tilden and gain all the strength possible from all possible sources. And Hancock did just as I hoped, and had suggested that he should. The man lies when he says I was averse to this visit."
In the course of our talk, Mr. Kelly said: "They say so much about Tammany not having given money to the state committee. Why did we were spending our money on the other side? The fact is, that we were doing nothing with the men who had been against us, and I told this man, knowing at the time of his visits to Gen. Hancock, that I thought the General ought to make no enemies and that he should see Tilden and gain all the strength possible from all possible sources. And Hancock did just as I hoped, and had suggested that he should. The man lies when he says I was averse to this visit."
In the course of our talk, Mr. Kelly said: "They say so much about Tammany not having given money to the state committee. Why did we were spending our money on the other side? The fact is, that we were doing nothing with the men who had been against us, and I told this man, knowing at the time of his visits to Gen. Hancock, that I thought the General ought to make no enemies and that he should see Tilden and gain all the strength possible from all possible sources. And Hancock did just as I hoped, and had suggested that he should. The man lies when he says I was averse to this visit."

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

THE NEW NAVAL SECRETARY AND A TALK WITH HIM.

In the House of Representatives, the new Naval Secretary, Mr. Mahone, is reported to have had a long and interesting talk with the President. The President is reported to have been very much pleased with the Secretary's views on the subject of naval reform. The Secretary is reported to have been very much pleased with the President's views on the subject of naval reform. The President is reported to have been very much pleased with the Secretary's views on the subject of naval reform. The Secretary is reported to have been very much pleased with the President's views on the subject of naval reform.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

Last Honors to the Memory of the Late William Allen.

The funeral services of the late William Allen took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the residence, at James and Orchard streets, and were quite largely attended by friends of the deceased and fellow members of the bar. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Brainard, and were very brief, consisting chiefly of the Episcopal burial service. The interment took place at Fort Hill cemetery, where the remains were deposited by the following bearers: David M. Osborne, William H. Seward, Theodore M. Pomeroy, Charles C. Dwight, Alfonso G. Beardsley, Edward H. Avery. The following members of the county bar met at the court house at quarter before two and proceeded in a body to attend the services: Messrs. Drummond, Lyon, Pierce, Parsons, Baker, Davis, Cox, Pierce, Sizer, Maynard, Wood, Taber, Baader, Dwight, Teller, Howland, Wheeler, Priddy, Emerson, Steele, Cushing, Worden, Hall.

THE PERILS OF THE RAIL.

THIS MORNING'S SOUTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Blasted Engine and a Mangled Passenger Train. One of those unforeseen railroad accidents occurred to Southern Central Railroad passenger train No. 9 this morning at a point about a mile south of Moravia. The train was running along at its accustomed rate of speed, when the locomotive "Tioga," suddenly left the track and overturned on its side in the ditch, the balance of the train comprising a baggage car and coach did not leave the rails. The concussion was so great that the stove in the mail department of the baggage car was upset, and the live coals communicating with the wood work set it on fire and the car was entirely consumed. The flames communicated to the coach and this was soon on fire. The passengers and train hands turned in, and by throwing snow upon the flames succeeded in saving the coach, but not until after it had been badly damaged. All kinds of rumors were afloat concerning the casualty, one was that five passengers had been severely injured and one passenger Dell French killed outright. From company sources it was learned that Mr. French was bruised about the body and escaped with no broken bones. As soon as the intelligence of the accident reached this city a wrecking train under charge of Superintendent Knapp left for the scene. The railroad authorities were in possession of meagre facts and did not know whether the contents of the baggage car were consumed or not. The cause of the accident, so the Auburnian reporter was told is attributable to a broken rail. It is said that a coal train ran off the track last week at the same spot where this morning's accident occurred.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Brief Local Happenings Chronicled for Auburn Readers.

It will be remembered that employees of the wood shop at D. M. Osborne & Co's factory No. 1, presented their foramen Client Koters about Christmas with a watch and chain. Saturday evening Mr. Koters showed his gratitude by sending the men under him to the number of 85 to take a sleigh ride. They filled three large sleighs and started from the company's office at 7 p. m. and rode through the following streets: Genesee to South to Elizabeth to Mechanic, across Lisette street bridge to Oswego to John to Holly to Lansing to North to Genesee to the starting point where more cheers were given, after which the company dispersed.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frankie Johnson has returned from Watertown, where she has been visiting, accompanied by her friend Miss Lizzie Upham of that city.
Special Conductor William Drumm is running Conductor Chapin's train on the Auburn Central. Conductor Chapin has been sick for some weeks past, but is now said to be recovering rapidly.
Miss Sarah Oliphant, a well known Auburn lady, died at Saratoga N. Y. January 2nd inst. Mrs. Oliphant was a sister of Henry Oliphant at one time a prominent journalist of this city and of Roland L. Oliphant of Oswego.