Auburn Evening News

Official Paper of the County.

FRIDAY, JAN. 21, 1876.

City and County.

☞ Read local on first page.

☞ The mercury hung at 28 nearly all of yesterday, and was at 30 at midnight.

☞ William Geer has sold a farm of ninety-two acres in Scipio, to William King, of Fleming, for about $6,000.

☞ EVE'S SOCIABLE.—Ross Hose Fire have finally arranged to hold their next sociable on Wednesday evening, 26th instead of the date given in our last issue

☞ Quite a number of Aurorians attended the grand military ball at Syracuse last night on the occasion of dedicating the new State Armory in that city.

☞ Dr. Meyer, who narrowly escaped suffocation by coal gas at the St. James, on Tuesday night, is rapidly recovering from the effects of his dangerous experience.

☞ The Board of Inspectors completed their work of receiving applications, at the prison yesterday, and some of the appointments will probably be made known to-day.

EXEMPT HOSE.—Five new members were received into the above company last evening, viz: H. W Bellman, H. A. Tallman, Julius Kraft, Will McCrea, H. D Clough.

☞ W. H. Bagart, Esq., of Aurora, is Corresponding Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, and D. M. Osborne, Esq., of this city, a member of the Executive Committee for Cayuga county.

☞ Mr. Arthur Sanders, son of the Sheriff, arrived safely at Jackson, Mich, with his escaped convict from the prison in that city, and received the offered reward of one hundred dollars for his return.

STATE CHARITIES' AID.—The regular monthly meeting of the Cayuga County Visiting Association will be deferred from Friday until Saturday, Dec. 22d.

The Executive Committee will meet at 2 1-2 P. M. Regular meeting at 3 o'clock. By Order,

MRS. A. H. GOSS, Rec. Sec'y.

PERSONAL.—W. C. Dryer, Esq., of Victor, one of the leading Democrats of that part of the State, is in town, stopping at the Osborne House.

—Willard N. Smith, Esq., of Geneva, the newly appointed Store Keeper of the prison, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Smith is a gentleman of excellent business capacity, and will fill the responsible position with credit.

THE FIREBUGS.—The Waterville firebugs had justice promptly meted out to them at Utica. When they were brought into the Court room and arraigned, Pierce was crying—not bitterly, but silently. When called upon, both pleaded guilty.—In answer to the usual questions, Pierce replied that he was born in the town of Paris, Oneida county, a jeweler by occupation, and twenty-four years of age. Woodruff said that he was born in the city of Auburn, was a laborer by occupation, and twenty-five years of age.

Judge Merwin in a feeling address then proceeded to pronounce the sentence of court upon the two young men. His address was not long, and at its conclusion he sentenced them to imprisonment at hard labor in the State's Prison at Auburn, for the term of their natural lives.

The two young men were then transferred to the Court House cells where they passed the noon. They will be brought to Auburn some day this week. They both took their sentences hardly, but agreed in saying that it was no more than they deserved.

For your Fancy Goods go to Cheap John's Bazar, 80 Genesee street. dec8antf

EARLY CLOTHING.

Our advice is, imitate Adam.

Klothe up. Klothe up early and often. Klerks like it. Klothe up the head at Knox's. Kustom requires it. Klothe up the feet at Knox's. Klothe up the body at Knox & Ko.'s, and keep klothing up at 40, 42, 44, and 48 State St.

jan18atf&20ntf

Cheap John has just opened a fine lot of Fancy Goods, which he is selling at astonishing low prices. It will do you good to examine his stock at 80 Genesee street, Bad-ey's old stand. dec8antf.

☞ The transportation of coal over the Auburn Road is enormous and many extra trains of empty cars are also run, to supply the several roads with the rolling stock, in order to transport this commodity from the coal districts.

Tilden Club Banquet

THE FIRST ANNUAL REUNION—LARGE ATTENDANCE AND AN ENJOYABLE TIME—THE SUPPER, TOASTS AND SPEECHES.

The first annual banquet of the Second Assembly Tilden Club called out a large gathering of the members and friends of this live political organization at the St. James hotel last evening. The banquet was spread in the large dining room of the hotel and presented a most inviting appearance Mine host Chapman as usual put everything on in the best style, and the guests were treated to the following

BILL OF FARE.

SOUPS.

Oysters. Mock Turtle.

COLD RELIEVES

Buffalo Tongue Ornamented. Boned Turkey, a la Delmonico.

Chicken Salad. Lobster Salad. Pressed Chicken. Pressed Corned Beef. Boiled Westphalia Ham, Trimmed.

RELISHES.

Chow Chow. Pickled Oysters. Tomato Catsup. Horse Radish.

Worcestershire Sauce. French Mustard. Cheese. Cucumber Pickles. Celery. Preserved Crawford Peaches.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Hot Potatoe Balls. Raised Biscuits Hot French Rolls. Cold French Rolls Bread.

CONFECTIONARY.

Gold Cake. Silver Cake. Sponge Cake. Pound Cake. Cocoanut Cake. Marble Cake.

VARIETIES.

Lemon Ice. French Meringue Wine Jelly. Vanilla Ice Cream. Cocoanut Macaroons. French Kisses.

FRUITS, NUTS ETC.

Catawba Grapes. Raisins. Apples. Pickerels. Almonds. English Walnuts. Pecans. Brazils Oranges.

TEA. COFFEE. CHOCOLATE.

After the wants of the inner man were satisfied, the tables were cleared, and cigars brought on. Then began the second portion of the programme, under the direction of Mr. Chas. Stow, Vice-President of the Club, who presided in the absence of Mr. Warren A. Worden, the President, who was unavoidably absent. A series of appropriate toasts had been prepared, to which eloquent responses were made. The following is a list of

THE TOASTS.

1. The Centennial Year of the Republic, HON. WM. A. BEACH, of Syracuse
2. The Empire State, CHARLES F. DURSTON.
3. Samuel J. Tilden, CHARLES E. COOTES.
4. The Executive Officers of the State, HON. CHARLES S. BEARDSLEY, Jr.
5. The Democratic Party. J. D TELLER
6. The Democratic Press, A. L. CHILDS
7. Amnesty. DR. ALANSON WHITE.
8. The Tilden Club. T. WM. MEACHAM

Some of the distinguished gentlemen from abroad failed to appear, but the deficiency was well supplied by a display of "home talent," which kept up the interest and enthusiasm of the gathering until the close.

The chairman announced the first toast, and read the following letters:

LETTER FROM HON. CHAS. N. ROSS.

AUBURN, Jan. 18, 1876.

President Tilden Club:

MY DEAR SIR.—Your kind invitation to be present Thursday evening at the reunion and supper of the Tilden Club is received. Regretting that my official duties compel my absence from Auburn at that time, I beg to assure you of my hearty sympathies with the objects of the reunion, as indicated in your invitation, viz. reform, and a closer fellowship of Democrats pledged for reform.

I am, with great respect,

Yours very truly,

CHARLES N. ROSS.

LETTER FROM HON. WM. A. BEACH.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 18, 1876.

President Tilden Club:

On arriving here I find your kind invitation to supper of "Tilden Club" for which receive thanks, but I regret to say that I also find engagements which render it impossible for me to accept.

Assure the boys of my heartiest sympathy and cooperation in the cause in which they are engaged. (I don't now refer to the eating and the drinking, but to the grander object of the "Club")

Yours very truly,

WM. A. BEACH.

In the absence of Mr. Beach, Jerome L. Fuller, Esq., was called upon to respond to the first toast, and spoke as follows.

ADDRESS BY MR. FULLER.

GENTLEMEN OF THE TILDEN CLUB.—I heartily wish, both for your sake and my own, that Mr. Beach was here to carry out his portion of the programme. I am called upon unexpectedly and am entirely unprepared, but the subject is one full of grand thoughts for every one present in this anniversary year of the Republic. We are no longer a youthful nation, but full grown and recognized as a power in the world. If time permitted, I could call attention to the early struggles which developed the scattered colonies and fitted them for the beginning of a powerful nation. The grand march of the past hundred years, the progress in all the arts and sciences and in material wealth and prosperity, is something that can not be told in the limits of a brief after-supper speech.

The Centennial year is upon us and in its course all should endeavor to make the best use of the lessons it teaches. Mistakes in government should be corrected, the wounds of the past healed, and all unite in the patriotic effort to make the second hundred years of the Republic more glorious than the first. (Applause).

Sheriff Andrew J. Sanders was then called upon to respond to the same toast.

ADDRESS BY SHERIFF SANDERS.

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN: I find myself almost too full for utterance, but the theme is one that ought to inspire eloquence in every one. It is a grand privilege to be permitted to live and enter upon the duties and responsibilities of this second hundred years of the nation. With the advantage of the experience of the past, a wise use should be made of the opportunities of the future. As we come together to-night, this gathering of the young men of the county, let us in the spirit of the call endeavor to heal the wounds of the past, until there shall indeed be no north, no south, no vast, no west, and the country the most united, happy and prosperous on the face of the earth. [Applause]

The next toast, "The Empire State," was then called by chairman Stowe and responded to by Chas. F. Durston, Esq.

ADDRESS BY MR. DURSTON.

MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE TILDEN CLUB: The State of New York has fulfilled the hopes and just expectations of the sponsers who gave it the name of the Empire State. It has continued to grow in greatness, until possessed of the largest population, wealth, cities and commerce in the Union. When these are considered and we remember that scarcely one hundred years ago the place where we now stand was an unbroken forest, how great is the contrast. It is now the great State through which the bulk of the commerce of the country must pass to the seaboard. Over this State we now have a great man after whom this Club is named, a man, fearless for the right, and we are proud of him and of the great work he is doing. [Applause] The State of New York is growing, and in spite of the marvelous development of the west will continue to be the Empire State to the days of our children and children's children. It is fitting that this great State should take the lead in administrative reform, and that the people of the whole country should look to Governor Tilden to carry on the great work in correcting abuses in the national government. [Applause.]

The reading of the third toast, "Samuel J. Tilden," was received with applause, and the response made by Charles E. Cootes, Esq.

ADDRESS BY MR. COOTES.

Samuel J. Tilden has done in the most thorough manner what he pledged himself to the people to accomplish in the way of reform The great work was commenced in New York city against the powerful rings which banded together and controlled the legislation and the judiciary for their own corrupt purposes. The people suffering under this tyrannical foe to prosperity rose and called for a deliverer. Who was the man that responded to that appeal? Our noble and incorruptible Governor, Samuel J. Tilden. To do this required a moral courage greater than that of a warrior on the field of battle.

That contest over and victory won he next turned his attention to the canal thieves of the State, who through both parties controlled legislation and courts of justice in their own interests. No man had dared cope with them before Samuel J. Tilden. [Applause.] Governor Dix knew their crimes but had not the courage to expose them. Governor Tilden has been upheld in this contest by the honest men of the State, and I hope that in this Centennial year he will be the standard bearer of the Democracy in the Presidential contest. [Applause.] The times demand such a leader honest and fearless, to wage the same war upon the thieves who control the national government, and thus free the country from the burdens they impose. [Applause]. He will find at Washington deeper corruption than even in New York or Albany, and the people will stand by him in that great work.

The conclusion of Mr. Cootes' remarks were received with long, continued applause, after which Dr. Alanson White rose and proposed the health of Governor Tilden in a glass of pure cold water, the only beverage imbibed on this first annual gathering of the Tilden Club. The toast was drank standing and with all the honors

"The Executive Officers of the State" were then toasted, and in the absence of Hon. Chas. S. Beardsley Mr. Wilder was called upon for a speech but returned thanks and declined on the ground that he was no speech-maker. Sheriff Sanders was then called upon and responded as follows:

ADDRESS BY SHERIFF SANDERS.

The people of Cayuga County can congratulate themselves in having a representative in the Executive department of the State of whom we all are proud, Hon. Chas. N. Ross. [Applause.] We are glad to see in him a man possessing the fitness, ability and integrity needed to co-opperate with Governor Tilden and the other State officers in the work of reform. He will take a leading position in this work, and notwithstanding the attempts of a corrupt legislature to embarrass and defeat reform, I believe that the executive officers of the State will be able to show that they mean to carry out the declaration of the man after whom you have named your Club. I would bid the Club God-speed in its good work, and though the limit of forty years forbids my giving you, my name you have my heartiest sympathies and good wishes.

"The Democratic Party" was the next toast and Mr. J. D. Teller responded.

ADDRESS BY MR. TELLER.

In speaking upon this toast under existing circumstances, and in the presence of this company, with cold water as the only beverage, I ought not to say anything of its being a party that "loves men and hates niggers." So I will not, [Laughter and applause]. Theologians in defending the Christian religion against Atheism, urge that the system they advocate has proved its truth by standing so many centuries, while others have passed out of existence. A similar argument would apply to the correctness of Democratic principles. [Applause].

I am happy to night in considering the subject of the Democratic party, to see so many faces of persons who have not always been connected with the Democratic party There are some present who drew their earlier political inspirations from the lips of Henry Clay. They are willing to be called Democrats to day, because the necessities of the hour demand a union of all honest men against the corruptions of the time and the assumption of unwarranted authority in high places. One reason of the long continued existence of the Democratic party was to be found in the fact that it had ever maintained he rights of the people against centralization and in favor of a limitation of power. The vital principle of the Democracy is to confine authority within constitutional limits. [Applause].

The prevalent political corruption, with the resulting hard times and high taxes, grow largely out of intrusting too much power in single hands. The people now had a leader whom they could trust in Governor Tilden, and they would celebrate the Centennial year by elevating him to the highest position in their gift. [Applause].

"The Democratic Press" was the next toast—a response to which was given by Will R. Cox, in absence of A. L. Childs, of Waterloo, who announced by telegraph his inability to be present. Mr. Cox considered that one element of failures in other Republics had been the lack of a free press. In the future of the United States he regarded an untrammelled press as the great safe guard of Republican institutions.

Mr. H. L. Storke, of the News was called upon on the same topic and responded briefly.

The important topic of "Amnesty" was responded to by Dr. Alanson White, of Montezuma, in his eloquent and pointed style.

ADDRESS BY DR WHITE.

GENTLEMEN OF THE TILDEN CLUB: It has been said that to err is human but to forgive is Divine. Amnesty is many hundred years old, It began in the voice that rang out the immortal words "Peace on earth and good will toward men." In that there was no Jeff Davis excepted, but whosoever yielded peacefully and quietly to His government was to receive a full and perfect pardon that placed him on a full and equal footing before the Divine Ruler. Now, after one hundred years of national progress, in the halls of Congress and from Democratic lips rings out the same clarion voice in favor of peace and forgiveness, to restore that harmony and mutual confidence which was the boast of the fathers and the fruit of the immortal Declaration.

Last but not least in the list of toasts was the "Tilden Club," response by T. Wm. Meacham.

ADDRESS BY MR. MEACHAM.

In accepting the privilege accorded me of responding to the health just pledged, my first duty and pleasure is to express the sincere gratitude of the Club for the words of wisdom and encouragement with which we have been so delightfully entertained this evening by the eloquent speakers who have preceded me, and to return our hearty thanks for the cheering presence of this goodly company of our friends on the occasion of this the first annual banquet of the Tilden Club. To you, gentleman, is due whatever of success may be accredited this evening's entertainment. The Tilden Club is as yet in its infancy, and our strength lies not so much in the number of our members, as in the honesty of our convictions, the sincerity of our purpose and the justice of our cause. Our organization dates from last fall's hard fought campaign, and the incentive to its formation was an instinct which has expression in the old maxim, "When rogues conspire honest men should unite." We have no selfish ambitions to promote, no personal pique to gratify. But our object is to lend our united aid in support of the reform measures inaugurated. We call our organization the Tilden Club, and not only within the limits of the Empire State, but throughout the length and breadth of the whole Union, the name of Tilden is a synonym for Reform. For the welfare of the republic, for the best interest of her citizens, for the glory of the Democratic party, I hope and trust that in the approaching Presidential campaign of '76 that name, with all it implies, shall lead our victory.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I again thank you for your kind presence, which, I trust, it will be our good fortune to enjoy on many a similar occasion. We anticipate a long life for the Tilden Club. The need of such an organization will not cease with one campaign, nor two, nor three. External vigilance is the price of honest government as of liberty. [Applause].

Mr. Meacham then proposed a toast "The Guests of the Evening," and called upon Mr. Dennis Carey to respond, and also upon Ald. Petty. Both declined, being better workers in the political field than talkers over the festal board.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Chapman, on motion of Mr. Durston, and the gathering broke up with three cheers for Governor Tilden, on the suggestion of Mr. U. S. Benton. The first annual banquet of the Tilden Club proved a success beyond all expectations, and the numerous guests of the club are indebted to the courtesy of its officers and members for a most enjoyable evening.

The rush still keeps up on all cotton goods at J. D. Smith's since the break in prices for his January Sale. A new Lot of Scotch finished, grass bleached Muslins just received, which have grown so in favor with all who have tested them. They are warranted to wear twice as long as any goods bleached with chemicals. jan18B.N&Dtf Lyon, Elliott & Bloom are selling the best quality of soft finish O. X. X. Wamsutta Bleached Muslin at 12½c. per yard, which is less than ante-war prices. Other brands of bleached and brown cottons proportionately cheap.

LYON, ELLIOTT & BLOOM.

jan13B.N&Dlw

Mrs. A. A. Whipley has enlarged our Dress making and cloak manufacturing department, and is prepared to make garments to order in good style on short notice. Parties living out of town can have cutting and fitting done without delay.

LYON, ELLIOTT & BLOOM.

jan13B.N&Dtf

DIED

ARMSTRONG—Jan. 20, 1876, Polly Armstrong in the 78th year of her age.

Funeral from the residence of her son-in-law, James K. Gillespie's, 27 Perry street, Friday, at 3 P. M.

MACBETH—Jan. 19, 1876, Louise, daughter of Daniel and Mary Macbeth, aged 4 months and 18 days.

Funeral, Friday, 1 P. M., at 37 Steele street

HALE—Sunday morning, Jan. 9th, 1876, at her late residence in Summer Hill, N. Y., Aurelia C., wife of Thomas Hale, aged 44 years, 9 months and 24 days.

FURS! FURS!!

FURS AT COST

AT THE

NEW HAT AND FUR STORE,

113 Genesee-st.

The entire stock of Ladies', Misses' and Infants' Furs is now offered at ACTUAL COST! to close the out.

A Splendid Opportunity.

Come and secure a bargain.

WM. H. CARPENTER,

The New Hatter,

jan7w&antf 113 Genesee Street.

BUSINESS RE-OPENED.

HAVING been somewhat interrupted on account of

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

in our store, we are now prepared to serve the Public, in every department relating to

Books,
Stationery,
Blank Books,
Etc., Etc.

SCHOOL BOOKS,

All the Kinds Used in the Public Schools, Private Schools, and Academy high school.

dec4antf. C. P. WILLIAMS

WE ARE HERE! WHERE!

AT THE

Old Prison Boot and Shoe Store!

95 Genesee street,

WHERE we will sell you goods, and no shoddy, at the following prices for cash:

Men's Rubber Boots at	$2 40
" Kip (not split) Boots,	2 25
" Calf Boot, double sole	2 75
" " tap sole	3 50
" French Calf, Hand Made, Congress	6 50
" Buckle Arctic (Wales' patent)	1 30
Ladies' French Kid Button	4 00
" Serge Button	1 50
" " Polish	90
" Polido "	1 40

and everything usually found in a first class boot and shoe store at very low prices.

dec2-4-6-8-tf LOUNSBURY & PIERCE

NEW MEAT MARKET.

D. ENO,

(Late with A. Jones,) has established a new

MEAT MARKET

At No. 40 North street,

SECOND door south of Market,—where he will keep a full supply of choice Meats, Roast Steaks, Choice cuts, &c., at Bottom Prices! Also the celebrated Bologna Sausages a specialty. He will sell cheaper than the cheapest! Call and give him a trial and he will convince you that his prices are lower than any other market in the city.

Auburn, July 10, 1875. tf D. ENO.

AT ACTUAL COST.

We Must Dispose

OF OUR ENTIR

STOCK OF CLOTHIN

Hats, Caps and Fu
nishing Goods,

BEFORE MAY 1st,

AT COST OR LESS.

PIMM BROS & CO

jan21s&antf 26 STATE-ST., Corner of

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Extension of Tim

FOR

THIRTY DAYS

To Close Out the Stoc

OF

Clothing and Gents' Furnishing G

$10 000 WORTH LEFT,

That Must be Sc

REGARDLESS OF COST.

FOR CASH!! FOR CASH!!

Everyone should avail themselves o opportunity, and secure the best Bargai

123 Genesee-st. Auburn, N.

(Formerly ROSEBOOM & DOW'

dec27s&antbtf

THE HOLIDAYS ARE OVE

BUT WE USHER IN THE NEW YEAR WI

A NEW title; and in order to make every one feel happy, at least for the present, we ha continue the

GREAT BANKRUPT SALE O

BOOTS, SHOES, RUBBERS, TURNKS SACHELS,

AT THE

Academy of Music Building, 18 North St., Au

We are bound to make you happy, and all we ask is to give us a call, examine our what

Bargains can be had

At 18 North Street Auburn. G. W. INGALL

jan21s&ntf

LOYAL SOCK COAL.

THE attention of consumers is called to these superior coals from the newly opened veins of the Sullivan Mines!

The several sizes are carefully prepared.

Free From Slate and Dirt.

They burn freely with slight draft, kindle quickly, hold fire longer, and give one more heat than any coals in the market. They make no clinkers or cinders, the whole body consuming as entirely as to leave no waste or anything to remove but a light ash. They are a pure anthracite and make no smoke or odor. For

Cook Stoves,
Base Burners,
Furnaces and
Open Parlor Grates

they are the

Most Economical and Cheerful Fuel

in the market. The mines being located much nearer the city than any other anthracite, I am able to offer them at the following very low prices:

	At yard	Del'd	½ ton	¼ ton
Grate,	$5 65	$6 00	$3 13	$1 75
Egg,	5 65	6 00	3 13	1 75
Stove,	5 90	6 25	3 25	1 75
Large Chestnut,	5 90	6 25	3 25	1 75
Small Chestnut,	4 50	4 85	2 55	1 37

Special attention is invited to the SMALL CHESTNUT, as being the cheapest and most desirable size for all stoves having fine grates, that can be procured

The subscriber having been appointed agent for the sale of the above coals, invites his friends and the public to give them a trial, believing that they will give entire satisfaction.

Orders received at office in JAS. A. SUYDAM'S Grain Store, No 86 Genesee St.

Also at D. M. OSBORNE & CO.S, corner Genesee and Mechanic Sts.

And AT THE YARD in the rear of the Southern Central R. R. Depot.

J. S. LANSHART, Agent.

Auburn, Dec. 1 1875. nov15tf

COAL.

WE ARE

PREPARED TO FURNISH

ON and after this date, coal at the following prices:

	Yard.	Del.	½T.	¼T.
Lump	$5 85	$7 25	$3 75	$1 95
Grate	5 60	6 00	3 05	1 90
Egg	5 60	7 00	3 05	1 90
Stove	5 85	7 25	3 75	1 95
Chestnut	5 85	7 00	3 65	1 90

We also have on hand and are constantly receiving the celebrated Red Ash Coal at the same prices.

FELLOWS & TIMPSON,

No 2 Clark street, Cor. State street

Auburn, June 5, 1875. tf

FOR SALE.

A COAL YARD

On the N. Y. Central in fee, and lease of one on Southern Central, with tools, fixtures, &c. Enquire of FELLOWS & TIMPSON, oct16tf No 2 Clark street

Have You Heard What We a

IF NOT

READ TH

We offer 22,000 yards Full Stan Prints, all Good Styles, at

Splendid Yard Wide Brown Mus

Extra Quality,

Atlantic A,

Good Yard Wide Bleached Musl

25,000 Yards Hill's 4-4 Sem Idem,

30,000 Yards Lonsdale.

20,000 " Fruit of the Loom

OVER 40 OTHER BI

OF

Bleached and Brown Equally Cheap

500 Doz. Ladies' Merino Vests at 50 cts.

400 Doz. Gents' Wrappers and Drawers,

Headquarters for HAYI MANROS

Yarns and Flan

In any quantity, quality, or price.

The best Black Cashm world, for the money.

Stark A. Grain Bags

LARGE STOCK OF

Colored and Black

in every quality. Plain and Fancy

DRESS GO

IN ALL THE NEW SHA

Blankets, Cloaks, Sha

All in want of Dry Goods, of any k will find it to their interest to call an Goods and Prices.

Van Vechten &

Oct. 19, '75. 91 Ges

BOARD & RO

MR. J. S. MATTHEWS has t Brown Stone Front ste Williams-st, built by Chas. P. prepared to furnish suitable rooms, unfurnished, with board for gentlemen and for single gentlemen. will also accommodate families accommodated.

PDF compression, OCR, web-optimization with CVISION's PdfCompressor