MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 1878.

City and County.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON—1 A. M.—Jan. 7, 1878.—For the middle states, clear. For the lower lake region, clear or partly cloudy.

☞ The extreme cold weather is doing good work for the ice dealers and consumers.

☞ Cayuga Lake is rapidly closing up with ice, from the effects of the freezing temperature.

☞ The trial of Edmond Hoppins is set down for the second week of Court which convenes to-day.

☞ Walter H. Smith, an old resident of the county, died suddenly at Red Creek a few days since, from dropsy of the heart.

☞ The Union Normal class will meet this evening at the First Presbyterian church. Subject: Bible Chronology.

☞ Court opens to-day. The term promises to be a long and busy one, with a number of important civil and criminal cases.

☞ The Service of Song at the Opera House yesterday was conducted by Rev. S. W. Duffield of Central Church, and was largely attended

☞ The jingle of sleigh bells tells of fine sleighing, which is reported as quite general throughout the county. It is good for trade and for the liverymen.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The week of prayer opens this morning at 9 o'clock, with a union meeting at Central Church, conducted by Rev. J. Alabaster of Exchange street M. E. Church.

☞ Brotherton's time is shortening rapidly. His execution occurs a week from Thursday next, unless the Executive grants a repreive or commutation to imprisonment for life.

☞ The Sunday School Concert at the First Presbyterian Church last evening, under directions of Supt. R. S. Holmes, was of a most interesting character, the singing being very fine.

☞ The man who neglects to clean his walk from snow, and obliges his more industrious neighbors and their families to wade or slip on his uncleaned premises, is a nuisance to his neighborhood. And all the other people will say amen.

☞ John Mahoney, who escaped from Syracuse penitentiary last summer, was arrested in this city on Saturday and held to await the arrival of an officer who took him back on the same evening, by the 11:50 train. He had only twenty-four days to serve at the time of escape.

☞ It is said that the Base Ball Association are consideration a proposition to take their games to the Fair Grounds. The Association would most certainly lose money by such a change from the already established grounds on Seward avenue, on the line of street cars. People do not wish to pay hack hire nor ride in all sorts of clumsy carryalls when they can go in easy riding street cars for five cents. If the street railways are worth anything as a public benefit, let us support them.

PERSONAL.—

—Ald. Dan Shapcott is occupying the residence vacated by Sheriff Reed, No. 105 North street.

—Rev. Dr. J. S. Backus, of Brooklyn, formerly of this city, is confined with paralysis at Groton, where he is visiting.

—Mr. Benjamin Ashby, well known as the oldest hotel proprietor now living in this city, is seriously and it is thought hopelessly ill.

—Clough, the artist, having contributed to some of the homes of Auburn a number of his masterly works of art, returns to New York this evening.

—Rev Dr. Boardman assisted Rev. Dr. Johnson at Communion yesterday, in the Second Presbyterian church. Dr. Boardman returns to Boston this week, where he expects to preach for the two following Sabbaths.

—C. Eugene Barber, Esq., is in town, having arrived home from a 6 years residence in Germany, where he is engaged in business for the agricultural manufactory. Gene looking finely, the fatherland agreeing with Art Under the Hammer.

CLOUGH'S AUCTION SALE OF PAINTINGS.

On Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock Clough's fine collection, of oil paintings were offered to the highest bidder, at No. 7 Boyre block, on Exchange street, where they had been on exhibition for a few days past. The room was filled by as many purchasers and spectators as could be accommodated, including many of our most "solid" citizens and connoisseurs.

The sale commenced promptly on time, with Fred M. Smith, the popular auctioneer, as salesman, who made rapid progress and conducted the sales agreeably to purchaser and proprietor.

We give below the prices realized with names of purchasers. The list will prove a remarkably fair indication of the state of "the times" when the prices are compared with the real value of the respective works, many of which are declared by the best judges to be among the masterpieces of the great artist:

1. Storm in the Adirondacks, C. A. Smith, $80.
2. The Circus. There was a standing offer of $200 for this picture, and it was withdrawn.
3. The Itinerant Musician, Josiah Letchworth, $70.
4. A Glimpse of the Hudson, C. S. Burtis, $65.
5. Scene in the Lackawanna Valley, L. E. Lyon, $65.
6. Scene on Long Island, C. S. Burtis, $55.
7. View of Owasco Lake, Richard Kirby, $30.
8. Shore of Owasco Lake, Josiah Letchworth, $47.50.
9. Scene in Pennsylvania, E. P. Senter, $25.
10. Scene in Glen Cove, L. I., Josiah Letchworth, $55.
11. Garvies' Point, L. I., Chas. N. Ross, $55.
12. The Fisher Boy, Chas. L. Sheldon, $20.
13. The Anglers, $35, no name.
14. The Young Botanist, $15, Jas. G. Knapp.
15. Scene on the Bronx, $70, Robert Peat.
16. The Sportsman, $65, Robert Peat.
17. The Camp in the Mountains, $55, C. A. Smith.
18. Walk in the Park, $26, E. H. Townsend.
19. Scene in Magnolia Park, Charleston, S. C., $26. E. H. Townsend.
20. Scene in Florida, $23. Lucius Moses.
21. View in Wyoming Valley, Pa., $45, C. S. Burtis.
22. Old Farm Bridge, $26, E. H. Townsend.
23. Old Mill, $45, Josiah Letchworth.
24. Brook Scene, $55, Chas. A. Smith.

That some of the most exquisite of these paintings should go for such low prices was not the fault of their purchasers, who expected in many instances to be obliged to pay more—and would willingly have done so if necessary—but the money was scarce and the bidders cautious, so that the best pictures sold actually at cheaper rates than those not so elaborate. The prices given do not, of course, include the frames. Several of the purchasers, however, bought the frames of their pictures after the sale closed, thereby securing the best of bargains, as Mr. Clough has facilities for supplying the richest of these goods at wholesale rates, through his dealings with New York manufacturers.

Notable as among the best of the collection were the scene at "Garvie's Point," the "Camp in the Mountains," "Scene in Glen Cove," "Glimpse of the Hudson," "Storm in the Adirondacks," "The Sportsman," "Scene in the Lackawanna Valley." The purchasers of these may well congratulate themselves upon having secured the best fruits of the artist's rare genius. We trust that at his next sale in Auburn, if he makes another here, Mr. Clough may realize figures more akin to the high merits of his art.

☞ A cutter in the shoe department, Sing Sing prison, has been held to bail in $500, on a charge of attempting to carry a letter written by a convict out of prison for the purpose of mailing it. He was immediately forbidden by the prison officials to again come upon the prison grounds.

☞ A young man who was among the applicants for relief at the Poor Master's office on Saturday fainted while awaiting his turn for an interview. He was worn down with hunger and illness. There are more horrors connected with the sufferings of the poor in Auburn, than are dreamed of by those who are far above want.

HOW TO GET RICH.—A number of Port Byron people are reported as intending to leave that village this week for the purpose of taking up a residence in Texas. This movement toward settling the unoccupied territory of the country, involving a hegira from the overcrowded towns and villages, is one of the things needful toward restoring a better state of affairs throughout the Union. There are abundant opportunities, South and elsewhere, for the making of prosperous homes and prospective fortunes, where business of all kinds is not overdone, and fortune awaits the patient, industrious citizen who is struggling elsewhere for a bare subsistence.

Lester Brotherton.

Editor Morning News:

As the 17th of January—the time appointed for the execution of Lester Brotherton—approaches, we hear many inquiries as to whether anything is being done by counsel to save the old man's life. The general sentiment expressed to us by our best citizens, and confined to no particular class, is that his execution would be a severer punishment than the circumstances of the case demand, and that in view of the disposition made of others recently tried upon similar indictments, it would work serious injustice.

Although the jury decided insanity in this case to be no defense, the decision was made in the face of a large amount of evidence showing an epileptic hereditary and history, backed up by a great deal of very singular conduct, which had frequently led to the belief that the man was insane. The peculiar ideas and actions of Brotherton since he has been in jail, both before and since the trial; his open, frank and harmless manner, his indifference to his condition and continuous grief over his pecuniary troubles, all of which have been the subjects of numerous newspaper articles heretofore, have made many, if not all who have known about them, think the gallows should not find in this man a victim, and if the sentence which has been passed shall not be stayed, many will shudder at something more than the fact of capital punishment, when the rope is cut that drops Lester Brotherton into eternity.

We understand something has been attempted by counsel to change this sentence and we hope the endeavor may be successful. If Brotherton is a dangerous man and there is doubt about his mental condition, society will be fully protected by his confinement in prison and no one need fear he will escape. From there, if his mind is diseased, he will soon find his way into the Asylum, where proper and humane treatment will be furnished and the public may then rest satisfied that no mistake has been made. **

DR. VINCENT ON "THAT BOY."—The Des Moines, Iowa, State Register says of this lecturer and lecture:

"Very seldom does it happen that a Des Moines audience are so well entertained as they were last evening by the lecture of Rev. Dr Vincent on that novel subject, 'That Boy.' The Exposition Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Never was an audience better entertained; never an audience more enthusiastic. Bob Ingersoll's bewitching eloquence failed to excite greater applause. From the first sentence to the last the speaker was listened to with the most fixed attention, and was greeted with thunders of applause."

The Rochester Express says:

"Dr. Vincent is one of the most attractive speakers that has ever charmed a Rochester audience. His ease of manner and utterance, his ready and irresistable humor, his logical thought and true eloquence, all combine to give him easy entrance to the hearts of his listners, and it was with real regret last night the audience heard his early conclusion.".

Tickets for Dr. Vincent's lecture at the Opera House Wednesday evening, can be obtained at Williams' Music Store, for fifty cents each—no extra charge for reserved seats.

Appeal.

The ladies of the Martha Washington Society thanking those who have thus far contributed so generously in aid of their work, are obliged to ask still further help from the friends of the poor. The demands upon the society for the relief of those, who, owing to the continued depression of business, are without employment, cannot be met nor the work undertaken by the Employment Department be carried on without an increase of funds. As it is a principle of the society never to incur debt, their work must cease, unless this needed help is given.

The society therefore, earnestly request their friends to remember them as formerly, by donations of money, provisions, fuel and clothing of every kind.

"Be that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he."

Money should be sent to the Treasurer, Miss Frances S. Hughitt; other donations to the City Hall, on Tuesdays, from 2 to 4 P. M.

By order,

MARY R. HALL, Secretary.

PARIS GREEN CABBAGE.—At Union Springs, last week, Joseph Bishop and wife were taken simultaneously with violent symptoms of arsenic poisoning, the direct cause of which is assigned to cabbage, eaten the day before, raised by the father of Mrs. Bishop, who used Paris green to destroy the worms. Nothing serious resulted, however.

TELEGRAPHIC REPORT.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 6.—Samuel Bowles had a recurrence of the serious effusion at the base of his brain, Saturday night and now lies in a very sunken and prostrate condition.

BUFFALO, Jan 6.—The Morning Express first appears under the new proprietor, James M. Mathews, formerly editor of the Commercial Advertiser, to-morrow. Its politics remain Republican.

HALIFAX, Jan. 6.—A cab broke through the ice in the outskirts of the city last night. Two young women, Flora McDonald and Ida Boutilier and John Wilson, the driver, were drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—The grand jury have found indictments against Kearney, Wellock, and Dennei, incendiary agitators, for conspiring to incite a riot. All furnished bail and were released.

DOVER, N. H., Jan. 6.—The Republicans of this city elected delegates to the state convention last night. All are prominent Hayes men. In some wards resolutions were adopted strongly endorsing the president's policy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Ex-special Treasury Agent W. B. Moore, has succeeded in obtaining the influence of several prominent representatives who stand well with the administration, and is endeavoring to have his case re-opened and investigated, and is to be restored to his former position.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Jan. 6.—The bodies of Matthew Caton, captain of the schooner "Powow" and John Antoine, seaman, has been recovered, also the body of a seaman, supposed to be one of the crew of the schooner "Addie P. Avery," a body is also reported washed ashore near Chatham.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Advice from the Cariboo mining district, British Columbia, continues most favorable. New quartz lodes are being daily struck and the rock is of a singularly uniform character. A building in Victoria is projected and is already commenced on an unusually large scale. A number of mining companies have been incorporated here to operate in Cariboo.

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The Middlesex club, at whose dining table Gen. Butler made his first speech, after a long silence, entertained, yesterday, Congressman Loring, who gave them a speech strongly in support of the president and his policy against the Bland silver bill and in favor of a gold standard. Dr. Loring was hardly expected to come out so strongly and so pronounced for the president and in such a direct opposition to Blaine, Conkling and Butler's lead and his speech therefore created something of a sensation.

ACROSS THE OCEAN.

Egypt.

STANLY DEPARTS—GRANT ARRIVES.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 6.—General Grant has arrived. Stanly starts on Sunday for France via Brindisi.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Gen. Grant has left Alexandria for Cairo.

TROOPS FOR TURKEY.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 6—Five thousand more troops sailed from Egypt for Turkey. Further reinforcements are preparing. The Turkish governor and admiral in command of the fleet paid a visit to Gen. Grant and the latter returned the visit. During the visit the Khedive's barge and other vessels manned their yards, displayed the American flags and saluted with great enthusiasm. The Khedive offered the use of his palace in Cairo to Gen. Grant during his stay there and a steamer to navigate the Nile would be placed at his service. The general will leave for Cairo on Monday

England.

THE AMERICAN SILVER QUESTION.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Economist says some disposition was noticed at the close of the week to make less of the pending contest in congress over the silver question. It is, for instance, conceived that the payment of bonds in silver, even if passed by the legislature over the head of the executive, would, in practice, show its inefficiency so plainly as to cause the immediate abandonment of so dishonest a proceeding.

LORD ROSEBERG TO MARRY A ROTHSCHILD

A London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian telegraphs that Lord Rosebery will marry Hannah, the only daughter of the Baron de Rothschild.

FRANCE DEMANDS AN EXPLANATION.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Observer publishes the following in official form:

We have reason to believe that France, within the last few days, has requested information from the British foreign office as to whether England contemplated any action with respect to Egypt and that assurances have been given in reply that none is contemplated.

Another cabinet council has been summoned for Monday.

ITALY'S KING ALARMINGLY ILL.

The king of Italy is very ill. The first dispatch represented the illness as not serious but prevented the king's going to Turin. A later telegram says it has now transpired that the king on Saturday was attacked with a violent fever which produced pleurisy in the right lung. The symptoms cause apprehension and it may prove to be a complicated case of miasmatic fever. The king slept several hours on Saturday night perspiring freely. The fever, however, again increased towards morning.

Siam.

PREPARING FOR WAR—THE RICE CROP.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—A letter from Colonel T. W. Knox, dated Singapore, December 6, says the Siamese are putting their forts, ships and army in fighting condition, in anticipation of trouble with China. A large force is working on the forts at the mouth of the Meinam river.

The embargo upon the exportation of rice will probably cease on the 31st of December, as the harvest is much better than was expected. Several ships are in port awaiting the raising of the embargo to load with rice.

The number of American ships that arrived in Bankok harbor for the first eleven months of 1877, is double the whole amount for 1876, and there are prospects of an increase in 1878. The Siamese authorities are desirous of increasing trade with the United States, and offer to do everything in their power to accomplish that result.

There has been a severe drouth in Java, especially around Batavia. The rainy season is much later than usual.

The Turco-Russian War.

THE RUSSIANS CAPTURE SOFIA—THE ICE IN THE DANUBE.

BUCHAREST, Jan. 5.—The Russians have taken Sofia. Details are wanting. Troops are constantly passing through Galatz. This signifies serious operations against the quadrilateral.

VIENNA, Jan. 5.—The Political Correspondence says the ice in the Danube at Galatz will probably be strong enough in two days to permit the crossing of troops. The Russians intend to occupy Sulina.

REPORTED SERVIAN REVERSES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 5.—Mahmoud Damad, who has hitherto exercised a paramount influence at the palace, has been relieved of the functions of grand master of artillery.

Various small Servian and insurgent reverses are announced.

☞ Osborne's alarm bell sounded this morning ten minutes before two. The watchman saw the fire—which was a very peculiar one—off to the east and struck the alarm from box twenty-five which led the firemen, our reporter and others about as near the fire as they were before starting. The fire was somewhere near Sennett—perhaps Syracuse, very bright at first, lighting the heavens miles high and resembling to a certain extent, a handsome display of northern lights. The watchman should take warning.
