GREAT INDIAN REMEDY.

BRANT'S Indian Pulmonary Balsam and Purifying Extract, for sale by FINCH & STOWELL

Rejoice at the good News,
THAT I. P. ELDRED

HAS received his Fall stock of Goods and is prepared to furnish the citizens of Tompkins County and the neighboring states, with almost every necessary article to feed the hungry and clothe the needy, and among his stock can be found a very fine assortment of DRESS GOODS, and it give him great pleasure to exhibit the same to his customers and the people in general. It is not necessary to a full list of articles, as it would take a long time to write them, and very expensive to pay the printer for so long a list.

WILL

GIVE

TEA

can be had on better terms than any other store in town, put up in handsome style, and the consumer can save at least twenty-five per cent. The price is marked on each package. Consumer, dont throw your money by giving the enormous prices you have for your Tea, but buy the Pekin Company's Tea, warranted to suit, or return it and get your money, which cannot be found in any other place in Ithaca.

AWAY

Sept. 23, 1847. I. P. ELDRED.
