The Golden Text is: "Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?" (Jeremiah 2:5).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, the kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field; but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. . . . The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather yet together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn" (Matthew 13:24,25,288-30).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following correlative selection from the textbook of Christian Science, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus' demonstrations sift the chaff from the wheat, and unfold the unity and the reality of good, the unreality, the nothingness, of evil" (page 269).

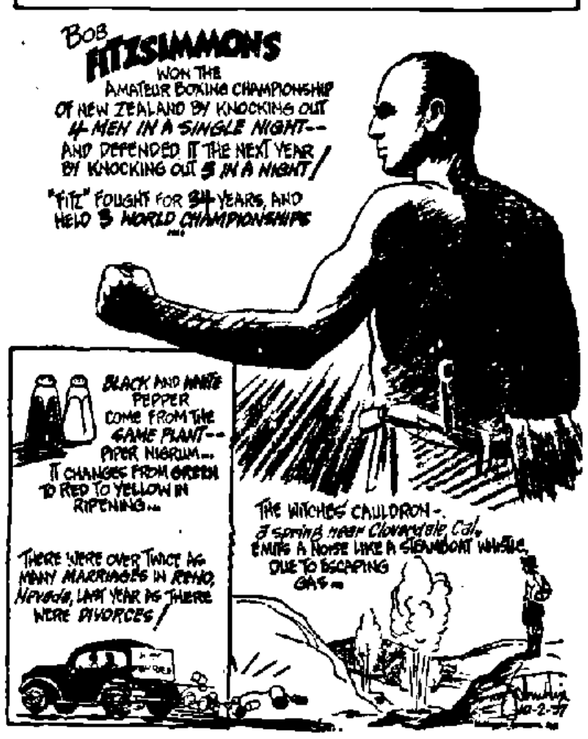
STRANGE AS IT SEEMS—By JOHN HIX



BOB FITZSIMMONS . . .

Still man enough at 52 to fight a six-round draw with K. O. Sweeney at Philadelphia in 1914, Robert L. Fitzsimmons lasted out a ring career of 34 years. English born, he started fighting as an amateur in New Zealand by stopping four men in a single night with knock-out blows. "Fitz" did even better than that in the following year when he knocked out five men in one night.

Spurred to turning professional by his phenomenal amateur showing, Fitzsimmons piled up a total of 14 more knock-out victories in New Zealand before he left for the United States. A 13th-round knock-out over Jack Dempsey, the "Nonpariel" in 1891, won him his first world's championship, the middleweight crown. Six years later, at 34, he won the world's heavyweight championship by dropping Corbett in 14 rounds, thus becoming the oldest man ever to win the title. Holding the championship for two years he lost it to Jeffries when he was knocked out in the 11th stanza.

But "Fighting Bob" still wasn't through with world honors. On November 4, 1903, he outpointed light heavyweight champion George Gardner for a 20-round decision and hung on to the title until 1905 when Philadelphia Jack O'Brien floored him in San Francisco. In 1918, four years after his last fight, Fitzsimmons died.

MARRIAGE VS. DIVORCE . . .

Strange as it seems, more marriages are performed in Reno, Nevada, the so-called "divorce city," than are dissolved. In 1935 Reno marriages totaled 6,054 as against 3,088 divorces. In 1936 the odds in favor of marriages were even greater. There were 7,602 marriages to 3,001 divorces.

PEPPER . . .

If allowed to ripen, the fruit of the pepper plant, piper nigrum, changes from green to red to yellow. To save its pungency, however, the fruit is usually harvested at the first signs of ripening and then dried. While pepper is prepared from dried black pepper by soaking the fruit in water and rubbing off the dried, fleshy covering.
