Notice of Hearing on Proposed Building Code Ordinance for the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County, New York.

NOTICE is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County, New York, at the Town Hall in the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County and State of New York on the 17th day of January, 1949, at 8 o'clock P. M. of said day in the matter of the adoption of a proposed Building Code Ordinance of the said Town of Aurelius, as recommended to its Town Board by the Zoning Commission of and for said Town entitled "Building Code Ordinance" which Ordinance specifically is as follows:

"BE IT ORDAINED by the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius as follows:

Section 1. This ordinance shall be known as the Building Code and is intended to regulate the construction, alteration and location of all dwellings in Residence District Number One, as defined in the Zoning Ordinance.

Section 2. The Town Board may appoint a Building Inspector. He shall be an architect, engineer or a person with practical experience as a builder.

Section 3. The Building Inspector shall under the rules and directions of the Town Board of the town enforce the provisions of the Building Code, building restrictions and zoning ordinances. He shall hold office during the pleasure of the Town Board.

Section 4. He shall receive all applications required by this ordinance and shall issue the permits prescribed by this ordinance and may revoke such permits for cause.

Section 5. Any property owner or applicant for a permit shall have the right to appeal from any decision or order of the Building Inspector to the Town Board and the Town Board may affirm, reverse or modify the ruling of the Building Inspector. Appeals from the decision of the inspector must be filed with the Town Clerk for presentation to the Town Board within ten days from the entry of the decision upon the records of the inspector.

Section 6. The Building Inspector shall make or cause to be made the necessary inspections to see that the provisions of this ordinance are complied with.

Section 7. He shall keep careful records of applications, permits and certificates issued, inspections made, reports rendered and of notices or orders issued.

Section 8. The Building Inspector, constables and all other officers of the Town shall co-operate in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance and in promoting the convenience of the public in complying with such provisions.

Section 9. In the absence of the Building Inspector, such person as the Town Board may designate may exercise such powers of the Building Inspector as the Town Board may authorize.

Section 10. Nothing in this ordinance shall require the removal, alteration or abandonment of, nor prevent the continuance of the use and occupancy of a lawfully existing building.

Section 11. Applications for Permits.

(a) No person shall hereafter construct, remodel or alter any building without first obtaining a formal permit therefor from the Building Inspector.

(b) Application for such permit shall be made by the owner or his authorized agent, on forms furnished by the Building Inspector.

(c) Applications for permits shall be accompanied by such drawings and specifications as the Building Inspector may require, or sufficient data or information to satisfy the Building Inspector that said building is to conform to rules and regulations of the building code.

(d) Any permit issued under the provisions of this ordinance, but under which no work is commenced within six months from the time of issuance, shall expire by limitation.

(e) Ordinary repairs to buildings or structures may be made without notice or application, but such repairs shall not be constructed to include any interior or exterior additions or alterations.

(f) At the time of issuance of permit the applicant shall pay to the Building Inspector for building permits the following fees: For constructing new dwellings, additions or alterations of other construction permitted by the Town Board $2.00; Separate Garage, $1.00.

(g) No member of the Town Board, the Building Inspector or other official, acting in good faith, and without malice, shall be liable for damages by reason of anything done in any action or proceedings instituted under any provisions of this Ordinance, or by reason of any act or omission in the performance of their official duties.

Section 12. Building Restrictions.

(a) In residence District Number One. No dwelling including porches, or other building shall hereafter be located nearer than forty feet to any highway or street line, and no building shall be located nearer than three feet to the adjoining lot line.

(b) No one story building in such District constructed hereafter and used as a dwelling shall contain a first floor area, excluding porch areas, less than seven hundred and fifty square feet.

(c) No two story building in such District constructed hereafter and used as a dwelling shall contain a first floor area, excluding porch areas, less than five hundred and seventy-six square feet.

Section 13. No person shall hereafter erect or build any tight board fence as a partition or boundary fence between parcels of property in Residence District Number 1, and no person shall build or construct any boundary fence of any kind between parcels of property which shall exceed four feet in height, without first obtaining consent of the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius. Nothing, however, herein contained shall apply to or effect the boundary fence of a parcel of land used exclusively for the pasture of cattle and other animals and made exclusively of wire or other metallic substance.

Section 14. Billboards and Signs.

(a) Hereafter no sign, billboard, advertising device or structure, shall be erected upon any lot or building or any words, letters, symbols, devices or other advertising media be placed, painted or printed upon any building or structure in Residence District Number 1, or anywhere in any street or highway in front of any residence or building in said district, nor shall any one hereafter rent, lease or renew leases of property or space within District Number 1 for such purposes, without the express permission and consent of the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius, evidenced by resolution duly adopted.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to small announcements, professional or display signs not over two (2) square feet in area.

Section 15. Violations and Penalties.

(a) Any person violating any provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the County Jail of Cayuga County for not more than 60 days, or be both fined and imprisoned.

Section 16. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 17. If any section or part of section or paragraph of this ordinance be declared invalid or unconstitutional it shall not be held to invalidate or impair the validity, force or effect of any other section or sections or part of a section or paragraph of this ordinance.

Section 18. This ordinance shall take effect immediately after the same shall have been published in accordance with Article 9 of the Town Law and the amendments thereto.

Dated Aurelius, New York, December 30, 1948.

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Zoning Ordinance for the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County, New York.

NOTICE is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County, New York, at the Town Hall in the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County and State of New York on the 17th day of January, 1949, at 8 o'clock P. M. of said day in the matter of the adoption of a proposed Zoning Ordinance of the said Town of Aurelius, as recommended to its Town Board by the Zoning Commission of and for said Town entitled "A Zoning Ordinance" which Ordinance specifically is as follows:

"The Town Board of the Town of Aurelius, County of Cayuga and State of New York, having complied with all of the provisions of Article 16 of the Town Law as enacted by Chapter 634 of the Laws of 1932 and amendments thereof, for the purposes set forth therein and in accordance therewith, do enact and ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Title. This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the "Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Aurelius, County of Cayuga and State of New York."

SECTION 2. Definitions. "Residence District" shall be a district devoted primarily to residential purposes, in which no building shall hereafter, as a part of or in connection with any business, be constructed or used for manufacturing, trade, storage, or industrial purposes, or as a public garage or repair shop, or for selling, either at wholesale or retail, any goods, wares, or merchandise, or for other commercial purpose, including all kinds of selling either at wholesale or retail in connection with any business exclusive of farm products. "Industrial Use" shall include all manufacturing as a business or for profit, storage, warehouse, public garage and repair shop. "Commercial Use" shall mean uses as a store or place of business for sale of goods, wares, merchandise and other commodities at wholesale or retail, including the storage of lumber, coal, gasoline and other petroleum products in connection with any business. "Person" shall include any person, firm or corporation.

SECTION 3. The provision of this ordinance shall not apply to structures legally existing at the time of the adoption of this ordinance unless stated to so apply.

SECTION 4. Districts. The following shall be Residence District No. 1: All that tract or parcel of land situated in the Town of Aurelius, Cayuga County, State of New York, bounded and described as follows: On the south by the Town line of Fleming; on the west by a line running through the Town of Aurelius in a general northerly and southerly direction, parallel with and 1000 feet west of the center of the highway known as the Half Acre Road; on the north by the Town Line of Throop; on the east by the City Line of the City of Auburn and by the Town of Fleming.

SECTION 5. No person shall hereafter construct, alter, change, or use any building, in such residence district for an industrial or commercial use or business, or as, and for an apartment house, hotel, lodging house, tourist camps, cabins, trailers, or rooming house, except by and with the express consent of the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius evidenced by resolution duly adopted. However, this shall not apply or extend to buildings used at the time of the adoption of this section for either a commercial or industrial purpose; but if any present use of a building in violation of these ordinances is changed, altered or discontinued, then such use may not be again continued, or revived, without the consent of the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius. Any construction, alteration or change allowed by the Town Board of the Town of Aurelius, under the provisions of this section, shall conform to the provisions of the Building Code, as to obtaining a building permit from the building inspector and inspection thereof.

SECTION 6. No person shall hereafter move any building on to property in such residence district for the purpose of using it as a dwelling without first complying with the building Code of the Town of Aurelius.

SECTION 7. No person shall hereafter keep or maintain upon any premises, within District No. 1, any outside water closet or privey, unless the same is connected with septic tank, or other similar contrivance, that meets the approval of the Building Inspector of the Town of Aurelius.

SECTION 8. The Town Board of the Town of Aurelius may by resolution at any time upon special application to it permit special construction and use within the residence district although such construction or use may be prohibited by the express terms of construction of this or any other ordinance. The Board of Appeals acting pursuant to Section 267 of the Town Law, and amendments thereof, shall be a board of special appeal to which any dispute arising over the interpretation, construction or application of this ordinance may be referred for determination and decision.

SECTION 9. Violations and penalties. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail of Cayuga County for not more than 60 days, or be both fined and imprisoned.

SECTION 10. All ordinances and parts of ordinances, if any, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 11. If any section or part of section or paragraph of this ordinance be declared invalid or unconstitutional it shall not be held to invalidate or impair the validity, force or effect of any other section or paragraph of this ordinance.

SECTION 12. This ordinance shall take effect immediately after the same shall have been published in accordance with Article 9 of the Town Law, and the amendments thereto.

Dated, Aurelius, New York, December 30, 1948.

BLANCHE ROBERTS, Town Clerk"

All parties in interest and citizens will be heard by the Town Board at the public hearing to be held, as aforesaid.

Dated, January 5th, 1949.

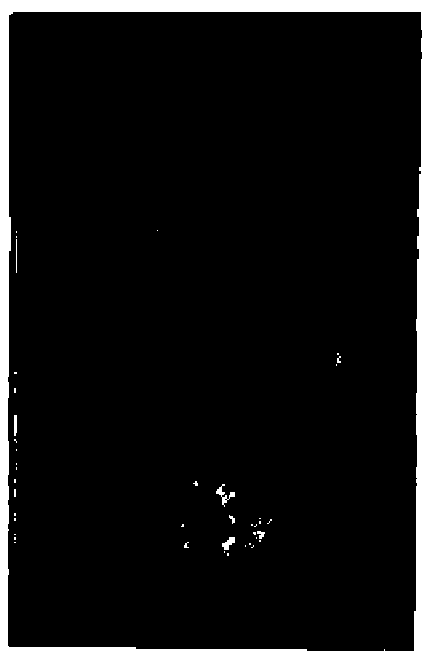
Sheffield Farm Families to Meet



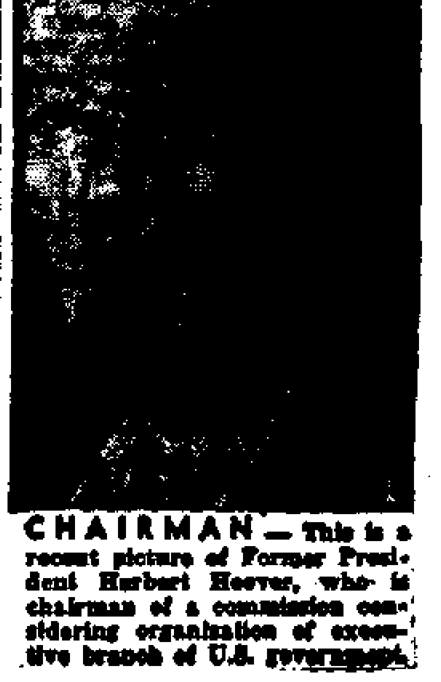
S. J. Brownell

Dairymen delivering milk to the Sheffield Farms Company receiving stations at Locke and Moravia will be guests of company officials at an evening meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 13, in the Genoa Central School.

Featured speaker at the meeting will be Stanley J. Brownell, Professor of Animal Husbandry, Cornell University, and leader of extension work in that field. Mr. Brownell has been instrumental in bringing New York State up to a high position of national and international leadership in breeding extension work. Among his most important work has been the development of the artificial breeding program. For one year, in 1946, he became chief of livestock and meats for the Office of Military Government in Germany. There he represented the United States on the four powers committee for dairy, livestock and meats in the government of occupied Germany. Mr. Brownell will speak on his experiences in Germany at this meeting.

New Cure

Livingston, Mont.— (AP) —Mrs. O. T. Osen of Big Timber and her brother, Pete Egeland, were hustling her son, Albert, to a hospital for treatment of an appendicitis attack. Their automobile struck a cow and overturned. Mrs. Osen suffered head injuries and Egeland's back was hurt so they required treatment at the hospital. Albert not only escaped injury in the wreck but all signs of the appendicitis had vanished by the time they reached the hospital.



CHAIRMAN — This is a recent picture of Former President Herbert Hoover, who is chairman of a commission considering organization of executive branch of U.S. government.
