

CUTLER-LIEBER

(Special to The Citizen.)

Morevia, July 7.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Kelloggsville on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Cutler when their only daughter, Marjorie R., became the wife of Kenneth A. Lieber of Spafford.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in decorations by Mrs. Henry Austin. Huge vases of maiden hair fern, pink and white mallows and pink and white roses being used.

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Helen Lohdell sang "O Perfect Love, after which Mrs. Carris Cutler, grandmother of the bride, played Lohengrin's Wedding March, as the couple, attended by Miss E. Elizabeth Elster and Carl W. Kent, marched down the stairs and into the parlor stopping under an arch of pale pink and white ribbons, roses and ferns, where they were united in marriage by the Rev. J. M. Lohdell, pastor of the Kelloggsville Church.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette and carried a bouquet of pale pink sweet peas and snapdragons tied with streamers of silk chiffon. She also carried a lace handkerchief which her mother carried at her own wedding 23 years before.

The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale pink georgette and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and snapdragons tied with streamers of silk chiffon.

After congratulations the host and hostess led the way to the dining room where the large table was decorated with pink and white roses and with favors of pink and white. A three course dinner was served by Mrs. Truman Bell and her assistants. The table was served by Miss Elsie Andrews, a neighbor and friend of the bride.

The bride was graduated from Morevia High School in 1927 and from the Teachers' Training Class the following year. She has been teaching in Kelloggsville. Mr. and Mrs. Lieber are enjoying a honeymoon in Northern New York.

TOOK ADVICE OF HER MOTHER

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

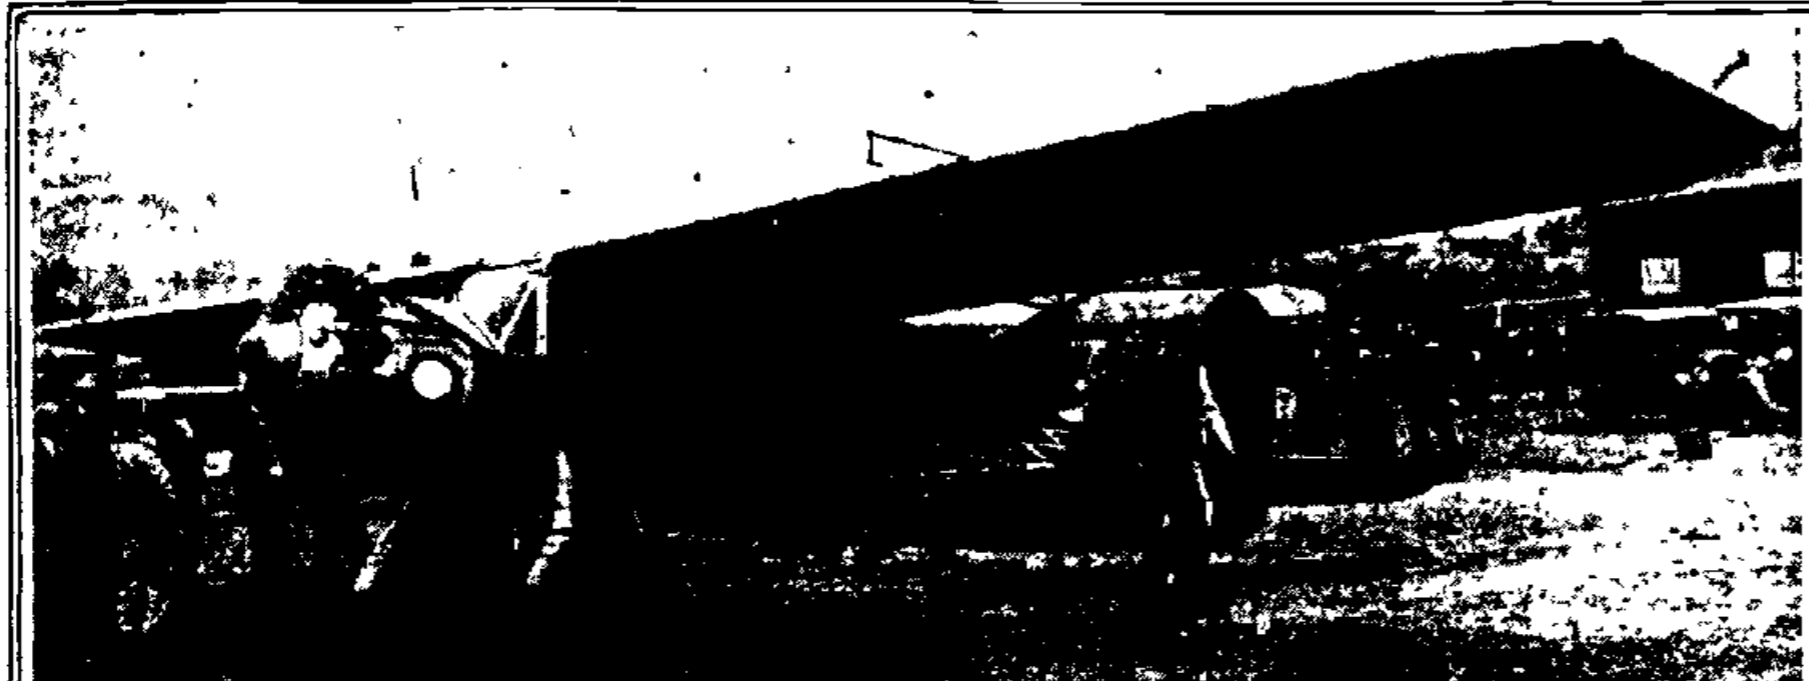

Wetmore, Colo.—"When I was married 14 years ago I was in bad health for a couple of years and when I tried to do anything I would get tired and worn-out. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound off and on all these years and have recommended it to hundreds of women. I have given birth to six children and have taken the Vegetable Compound as a tonic before child birth. It has done the world of good. My mother had taken it several times and she recommended it to me." Mrs. JOHN BARRERA, Wetmore, Colorado.

Advertisement for Clorox disinfectant. Text: "So easy—with Clorox! Cleanses, deodorizes, disinfects—all at once. Quick and sure. Follow directions on bottle. Just one of a hundred and more Clorox 'Easy Housekeeping' ways." Includes an image of a Clorox bottle and a person cleaning a toilet bowl.

After All These Years!

A multi-panel cartoon strip. Panel 1: Scientist invents mercy bullet which renders its victim unconscious but is not fatal. Panel 2: A man asks "SAY, DID I TELL YOU THE LATEST SCOTCH JOKE?" and another replies "NO, AND YOU'RE NOT GOING TO!". Panel 3: A man says "JUST WHAT I'VE BEEN PEEKING FOR!". Panel 4: A man says "I'LL JUST TAKE A MINUTE TO OUTLINE OUR MARVELOUS NEW BOOK OFFER." Panel 5: A man says "NEXT THE 'MERCY' ROLLING PIN." Panel 6: A man says "MERCY SPANKING".

AMERICAN FLIERS HOP OFF FROM OLD ORCHARD, MAINE FOR ROME, ITALY

Williams and Yancey Had Part in Long Distance and Trans-Ocean Flight Moves

New York, July 8.—(AP)—Roger Q. Williams and Lewis A. Yancey, who took off from Old Orchard for Rome today, have been identified with several long distance and trans-Atlantic flight projects.

In 1922 Yancey was co-pilot with Steven Lacey in one of the entries in the New York-to-Spokane national air derby. Shortly after their third attempt to start, Yancey piloted the plane back to Roosevelt Field, N. Y., clinging to a strut with Lacey unconscious in the cockpit from gasoline fumes.

Yancey was co-pilot with LeBoutillier in a projected non-stop flight from Roosevelt Field to France Field, Canal Zone, in December, 1928. They were forced back after the plane had been in the air three minutes.

Williams was associated with Clarence D. Chamberlin in 1927 in a series of attempts to set a new endurance flight record. Their efforts were abandoned after they were forced down by ice on their third attempt.

In March, 1928, Cesare Sabelli, Italian war ace, announced Williams had been chosen as co-pilot in the plane Roma on a flight to Rome. The American pilot withdrew from the project, then resumed relations with Sabelli.

After Sabelli's plans failed to materialize, Williams announced plans in October, 1928, for a flight to Rome in Charles A. Levine's monoplane Columbia with Pierre Bonelli, another member of the Sabelli crew.

The Columbia crashed on the old Westbury golf links when Williams and Bonelli attempted to take off October 11. The flight was later abandoned for the rest of the year because of weather.

Williams and Yancey joined forces early this Spring to renew the New York to Rome flight attempt.

Rome, July 8.—(AP)—News of the hop-off of the Pathfinder for Rome reached the Eternal City in the midst of the summertime lunch hour and found few officials at their offices to receive it.

Since it is the beginning of the Vatican season many prominent persons who would like to be on hand for the fliers' arrival are out of town. Ambassador Fletcher is taking the cure at Montecatini while air attaché Maj. George E. Lovell, Jr., and Commander Patrick N. L. Bellinger of the NC-4 crew are out of town. They will return this evening.

The administrator's principal secretary, who first learned of the take-off from The Associated Press, expressed delight that the American fliers had gotten away apparently to a good start. He said all government fields would be notified immediately to prepare a reception for the plane.

ROGER Q. WILLIAMS

LEWIS A. YANCEY

At The Jefferson.

BERT LYTELL, The Lone Wolf's Daughter

Notwithstanding the fact that the weather last night was about the hottest of the summer as crowded house was present at The Jefferson to see the opening of The Lone Wolf's Daughter, starring Bert Lytell and an excellent supporting cast. The picture lived up to all the glowing press notices it has received all over the country. It is a story of honor amongst thieves and is very cleverly acted by the entire company and well worth seeing. Two very good Vitaphone acts and a timely Fox Movietone News completes a very interesting program. It will be shown tonight and Tuesday, matinee and night, for the last times.

Detroit—Fire under semi-pro ball park grandstand causes panic, 103 hurt, mostly negroes.

ADVERTISE IN THE CITIZEN

By Haenigsen

West New York, N. J.—Thomas Kinsey, who said he was a survivor of the charge of the Light Brigade, is dead at 84. Redwood City, Cal.—Having proved that he was born 30 minutes before his brother Forest, Thomas L. Jones has come into the $175,000 estate of his father. The rule that the eldest son inherits prevailed.

ADVERTISE IN THE CITIZEN.

Advertisement for The Auburn Citizen. Text: "Planning Your Vacation? If so—before leaving kindly let The Citizen have your vacation address and your home-coming date. There's pleasure and value in having The Citizen greet you at your summer home, hotel, camp or farm. Others there besides yourself may enjoy its clean, refreshing news and features." Includes a form for providing address and a list of banks.

Large advertisement for Maytag Aluminum Washer. Text: "Welcome the MAYTAG man". Includes an image of the washer and a man in a suit. Text: "THE mission of the Maytag Man, the country over, is one of helpfulness to the housewife. He is responsible for upholding the Maytag reputation—a name that stands for world leadership in the washer industry. He possesses a fund of information about washing problems—information gained by personal experience and by cooperation with a Company that has built washers for a million and a half satisfied users." Includes contact information for P. M. Herron Hardware Co.