THE CITY AND VICINITY.

LATEST LOCAL NEWS.

The Festival To-Day!

To-day's Festival is of no common kind. It is not the jubilation of any guild or society, nor of any one class of community. It is a holiday for the city at large. Already the flags are flying from every roof and staff; "red, white and blue" flaunts in the store windows, and the tide of humanity begins to set Grove-ward.

It is not a merry-making either, this Festival, but rather an acknowledgement on the part of the whole community of the duty we owe to our country. Everybody will go out to the Grove, not because he or she is bent on amusement, but to show with what cheerfulness the city contributes its mite to the great cause. There will be no lack of entertainment and excitement out there, but if there were nothing of the sort we believe the multitude would still gather simply to show its eagerness to do something for the sake of the country.

Go to the grove, then, rich men, prepared to bleed freely. Go to the grove, poor men, and drop your mite into the Union treasury. Go, young; go, old. Let everybody take his wife and all his children, from stately miss to sprawling "Bobby." Let the swain take his sweetheart; let the sweetheart coax her beau to take all her sisters and the balance of the family. Let those who have no sweethearts go out, and contemplate enlistment, under the green umbrage of the sylvan Moffat. Citizens of Buffalo, for one day, unloose your purse-strings; go on a regular bender; take out all the change you can scrape up and turn your pockets inside out before you return. Go TO THE GROVE EVERYBODY; AND LET US HAVE A $10,000 FESTIVAL.

The festivities this afternoon, are so manifold that we cannot pretend to give an idea of their extent or character, and no ordinary sized programme could embrace a tithe of the fun, the music, the jollity, which will signalize the afternoon. Among the first of the formal entertainments will be that of the Bryant's Minstrels which is to come off a little after 2 o'clock Those who will get within hearing distance of the Bryants, will certainly be treated to fun and music enough for one day. About three o'clock will commence a miscellaneous entertainment, to consist of speeches, music &c. Those who have no desire to participate in these amusements, may make themselves useful at the tables, by gratifying their appetites, and contributing to the Festival Fund at the board prepared by Bloomer.

The grand concert in the evening at half-past seven will be a fine affair. The programme is complete, the selections are the best, and the singers the finest in our city. Among those engaged for this occasion, we may mention the names of Mrs T. D. Dole, Mrs. T. D. Patchin, Mrs. Shipman, Miss Smith, Miss Anna Dobbins, Mr. J. R. Drake, assisted by the Continental Glee Club.

Still later in the evening will be given a grand series of tableaux on the hill side, in which one hundred ladies will participate. A display of pyrotechnics will give additional splendor to the affair, and the Liedertafel, with their usual courtesy and enterprise, will fill the page of the night with vocal interlineations. We do not attempt to give the programme, but only to indicate in general terms the character of the entertainments prepared for the afternoon.

☞ NEW STORE ON MAIN STREET.—Mr. A. J. Hamlin is about to put up a magnificent store on the site occupied by the old stone front building, on the Clarcy property, Main street, between Swan and Seneca. The store will be four stories high, thirty feet front, and will run through to Pearl street. About eighty feet from the front there will be an increase in the width of ten feet through to the rear. The front will be of mastic work, and the building when completed will be one of the very finest in the city. We understand that Messrs. Altman & Co., of this city, have opened negotiations for the renting of the store, to be used as a wholesale cloth and clothing house. A firm from Boston, engaged in the same business, have also been taking a look at the prospect, with reference to future negotiations.

☞ PERSONAL.—Capt. Charles H. Henshaw, of the 100th Regiment arrived in the city night before last, and will remain here several days for the benefit of his health. The Captain does not look quite as well as when he left us. He managed to get away from the Hospital where he had been laid up with fever, in time to participate in the seven days fighting. Charley has lost none of old cheery look, and we hope that under the sunny welcome of his numerous friends, the traces of the Peninsular fever will be dispelled.

☞ BURGLARIES.—The saloon of John Jamison, in the Revere House, was broken into last evening by a burglar, who secured $5 from the money drawer, and $5 more from the pockets of the sleeping bar-keeper. The bar-keeper woke up in time to recognize the burglar, but not in time to capture him.

The office of the Niagara Street Railroad Company was also broken into by two men, who made their entrance through a window. They made a severe attack upon the safe, which resisted their efforts, until they were discovered, when the burglars took to their heels and escaped.

☞ EXCURSION.—The Washington Street Baptist Church and Congregation join with their Sabbath School in an excursion to Falconwood on Monday next.

Commutation tickets can be procured at the church from 7 to 10 o'clock Monday morning.

☞ CANAL BOAT SUNK.—The canal boat Marion, loaded with lumber, sunk in the canal this forenoon near the Canal street bridge.

☞ CHARACTERISTIC.—Casper Lord with characteristic generosity, has tendered the use of four carriages and eight horses, with drivers, to the Union Festival to day.

☞ RETURNED.—Dr. S. B. Hunt, of the Express, arrived home from Harrison's Landing last night. He was serenaded at his residence by the Liedertafel and, on all hands, is warmly welcomed back to Buffalo.

CANAL BOARD.—At the meeting of the Canal Board, held on the 22d inst., Mr. Dickinson presented a petition of the inhabitants of Buffalo, asking that the canal boat John F. Hosch be discharged from seizure. Read and referred to the Attorney General and Auditor.

☞ CATTARAUGUS CO. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Hon. Geo. W. Clinton, of Buffalo, has accepted the invitation of the County Agricultural Society, to deliver the Annual Address. The address will be delivered on the 25th, the last day of the Fair.

☞ IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Col. Lum Smith informed us last evening at a late hour that himself and his associate artist would suspend business promptly at 12 o'clock, and proceed to the Grove. The announcement came too late for insertion, but we are in receipt of a special dispatch from him that he had suspended at noon precisely.

☞ NOT KILLED.—Mr. Weil, of this city, received a dispatch to-day stating that his brother-in-law Chas. Preussner was not killed at Seven Pines as had been reported, but is now a prisoner at Richmond and recovering from his wounds. He belongs to the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment. This will be good news to his many friends here.

☞ OVERHAULED.—The Syracuse Standard of Wednesday says: "Inspector T. Kelley overhauled at this port, yesterday, the boat Acme of Buffalo, loaded with grain and drawing six feet of water all around. The skipper was fined $25 and compelled to disgorge 250 bushels of grain."

☞ AT THE FORT.—Capt. Atkins with his company, take their first meal, this afternoon, at Fort Porter.

☞ INDIAN COMPANY.—The Indian company, under Capt. Jemison, arrived in this city last evening from Elmira.

The Reading Matter following is taken from the Courier of this Morning:

☞ A PRISONER.—Sergeant A. H. Hoyt, of Company I, 100th Regiment, is, according to report, a prisoner at Richmond, with four of his companions. He was formerly a compositor in this office.

☞ IN MEMORIAM.—On Wednesday evening Company D, 74th Regiment, had a meeting, at which a preamble and resolutions were adopted expressive of the sentiments of the members in view of the death of Capt. Edward Drew.

☞ A BOY INJURED.—A boy named Amos Zimmerman, employed as a bell boy, was terribly burned on Wednesday forenoon, by an explosion of a fluid lamp, which he was handling carelessly. Dr. Burwell is in attendance upon the boy, and it is hoped that his injuries are not serious.

☞ PERSONAL.—Wm. E. McMaster, of New York, for a long time connected with the press of that city, passed through this city yesterday on his way to the Prairies, where he proposes to indulge in chicken shooting in company with a party from Chicago. We have the promise of letters describing the sport.

☞ ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, shortly after the meeting of the Board of Trade, a man named Nixon, who was engaged painting somewhere near the roof, on the inside of the building, lost his footing, and fell down through an opening in the ceiling of the room, striking on a desk which stood below. He was picked up and found to be quite seriously hurt, his wrist, and, it is thought, his shoulder being dislocated.

☞ THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE BATTERY.—The Board of Trade in this city has followed hard upon that of Chicago in its munificent and patriotic action of yesterday. The organization of the latter place has now subscribed $12,000 for the Battery it proposes to send out, and sixty-three recruits, "every one of them," says the Tribune, "representing the South Water street commission houses, and young men of standing in the community," had enrolled their names on Tuesday evening. In this latter particular Chicago is still ahead of us. Buffalo boys, are you to be beat?

☞ RECRUITING IN THE COUNTRY.—F. J. Fithian and Chas. S. Macomber on Wednesday evening addressed a large and enthusiastic war meeting at Akron, town of Newstead, in this county. Seven men enrolled themselves as volunteers, and it is thought that the town will be able to make up its quota in a day or two. Twenty-five dollars extra bounty is offered to persons volunteering from that town.

—A. P. Laning spoke the same evening at a Middleport, Niagara county, when ten men stepped forward to join the army of the Union.

☞ BENEFIT OF J. E. MCDONOUGH.—Mr. J. E. McDonough, of the Olympic Theatre, Philadelphia, to whose enterprise we are indebted for the presentation of the "Seven Sisters" at the Metropolitan, takes a benefit this evening, and he is one of those gentlemen for whom we should like to record a substantial appreciation of his merits. There are many reasons why he should receive a splendid benefit, and among the principal ones, we might note the fact that McDonough is worth cultivating. Although a very funny man, a very enterprising man, and withal a most agreeable gentleman, we see no reason why he may not be enticed away from his Olympus at Philadelphia, to give us the benefit of his genius in this city occasionally. He is one of the most successful managers in the country, and we hope he will have the opportunity of making an eloquent speech this evening in response to the appeal of a large audience.

☞ AN INCIDENT AT THE THEATRE.—Wednesday evening, an incident occurred at the Theatre, which illustrates the tone of popular feeling on the war. In the course of the play, Sidney Smith sang a song, each verse of which closes with the lines—

> "Three cheers for the Flag of Our Union,
> And three for the brave McClellan."

At these words some one in the Parquette indulged in a solitary hiss, whether at the "Flag of Our Union" or at "the brave McClellan," we are unable to say. The illustrious Sidney, stopped short at this demonstration of disapproval; whereupon cries of "put him out" arose from the Dress Circle and the Galleries.—When order was restored, Mr. Smith sang the verse again, and when he came to the closing lines, the audience joined in a deafening sound of applause, which made the Theatre ring. The occupants of the Dress Circle rose to their feet to give greater emphasis to their enthusiasm.

☞ BRYANT'S MINSTRELS.—The great metropolis has astonished our citizens more than once, but never more agreeably than when she permitted her favorite band of Minstrels, the Bryants, to favor us with a series of entertainments. Last evening the Opera House was crowded on the occasion of the second concert, and it is simply impossible for us to indicate the general satisfaction manifested. The great favorite—Campbell, in the beautiful song "Rock me to sleep, Mother," and the "Tyrolean warblings" was absolutely immense; and he sustained his reputation with a vigor that would have added lustre to his best fame Dan Bryant, in his comic songs, and as "Old Daddy Hemp" in ye ancient conductor, brought down the house at every turn. His humorous impersonations are simply irresistible. His speech on the times, or "Dat's What's de Matter," threw the audience into an uproar from which they will not recover in weeks. Dan Emmett, Frank Leslie, G. W Charles, C. H. Winchell, N. W. Gould, T. J. Peel, Gettings, and little Mac, are so thorough in their parts that we need not mention the names in connection with their special business. We have not forgotten Niel Bryant. As a son, and a favorite of New York City, none better could be sent to represent it in his line. A good musician, an accomplished gentleman, he will always be welcome to Buffalo, whether he visits us on a tour of profit or pleasure.

The Bryants give their next entertainment at Moffat's Grove this afternoon, for the benefit of the Union Festival, and the following one, at the Opera House, in the evening, for the benefit of themselves. They will be received by crowds on both occasions.

☞ POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Tanner, July 24th.

Elizabeth Devine, John Devine and Sarah L. Smith was arraigned for assault and battery on Stephen Barrett. The female defendants were discharged, and John Devine was fined $5.

Mary Atkins, assault and battery on William Atkins, her husband. Case held open.

Adam Kechner, for assault and battery on Barbara Kechner, his wife, was fined $3.

George Weisgerber, charged with petit larceny, was acquitted.

John Conner, assault and battery on Elizabeth Devine. Discharged, and complainant ordered to pay costs.

Stephen Barrett, was convicted of assault and battery on John Devine, and fined $7.

Catharine Miller, assault and battery on Mary Brinkmeyer, fined $2.

Michael White, assault and battery on Daniel Kelly. Acquitted.

John Shea and John McCormick, charged with assault and battery on John Preston, was discharged, the complainant not appearing.

James Jackson, a colored man, assault and battery on Maria Jackson, his wife, Settled on payment of costs.

Mary Ann Toney, assault and battery on Mary Gardner. Case held upon.

Catharine Donohue for assault and battery on Mary Shea, was fined $3 and costs.

Mary Shea, for a reciprocal assault on Catharine Donohue, was mulct in a similar sum.

Charles Townsend, plead guilty to intoxication and sentence was suspended on payment of costs.

William Moore, plead guilty to intoxication, and sentence was suspended.

☞ AN EXCELLENT MOVEMENT.—The New York Sanitary Society is about initiating a movement that will make havoc among the Patent Medicines. Under the advisement of some of the medical faculty, the Society is putting up a preparation of its own, to popularize a very valuable medicine, which from the cost and skill required in its preparation has never been taken up by any of the medicine makers. The object is, by preparing something which physicians will use and recommend, to run the nostrums off the track. The Society's medicine is called the "People's Cure," and is for the relief of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all that class of diseases, and is now, we understand, for sale in this city. my20sly

Jim Lane Goes to Kansas to Recruit Blacks.

Special to the Herald.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

I learn from pretty accurate private sources that Ewell's, Hill's, Longstreet's, and Jackson's divisions, rebels, have left Richmond gradually during the past fortnight, mostly going over the Virginia Central R. R., and are now concentrating near Gordonsville, constituting an army 60,000 strong.

Undoubtedly an attempt is making on Maryland or Washington. Our people are still uncertain whether it will be made up the Valley or this way.

Counter raids and attacks are to be constituted by us. A force may push for Richmond from Fredericksburg with the purpose of either frightening them back, or of gaining more than they can.

Special to the Times

WASHINGTON, July 24.

Gen. Halleck and Staff, accompanied by Gen. Burnside, left this evening for Fortress Monroe. Gen. Halleck will return on Saturday. He has been busily engaged all day. It is understood that the President gives him entire control of all military affairs.

There is no doubt that the war will be prosecuted, hereafter with, vigor and determination. Let the men be forthcoming without delay, and all will be well.

Gen. Halleck will have a personal consultation with Gen. McClellan.

The important question brought up by the proclamation of Gov. Curtin calling for troops for nine and twelve months, was adjusted to-day satisfactorily to the State authorities, and mustering officers are ordered to muster in for the period specified by the Government. Under this arrangement, it is believed, Pennsylvania will recruit her quota without difficulty.

The enthusiasm, in most parts of the State, is great, and citizens, companies and corporations subscribe the funds necessary to pay a bounty of $50 to each recruit.

Col. Scott, the confidential agent of the Post Office Department, sent to New Orleans in May, returned here last evening via Fortress Monroe. He states that Gen. Butler is just the man for the place, and that but for the stringent measures adopted by Butler, New Orleans could not have been held.

Reverdy Johnson will not return, probably, for some weeks yet.

It is needless to say that the story of Secretary Seward's resignation is without foundation.

The President proposes to make no change in the Cabinet, and it is very certain he does not propose to dispense, at this juncture, with a Cabinet Minister so distinguished as Mr. Seward, and so competent to grapple successfully with foreign diplomatists.

Special to the World.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

Senator Lane, of Kansas, has received a most important commission, viz: To go to Kansas and recruit troops under the law just past. He leaves on Saturday for that purpose. His instructions from the President and Secretary of War enable him to receive all men into the service who are loyal without reference to color, and he will widely proclaim that fact in his order.

He anticipates raising one or two regiments of blacks, and one of white men in two weeks after reaching home.

Special authority has been given him to draw on the Quartermasters and Commissaries for arms, clothing and subsistence, and while he will not accept a generalship from the President because of its interference with his Senatorial seat, he may accept a commission from the Governor of Kansas, and promptly enter the field at the head of his brigade.

The orders of the President and Secretary of War are explicit as to the facts I have stated, and for the latter there is no question of authority.

Special to the Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

Col. Norton, of the 21st Ohio, whose accusations against Gen. Mitchell have been published far and wide, is not to be found.

An order for his arrest was issued to day from the War Department, but the Military Governor returned non est inventus. The telegraph is in pursuit of him.

Capt. Mansfield, lately Provost Marshal of Fredericksburg, is here under arrest. His proceedings will undergo investigation.

Geo. King has been ordered to detail another officer in his place.

It has been arranged that the Postmaster General shall issue stamps on and after the 1st of August, to be used as currency until the Secretary of the Treasury can perfect his arrangements, when he will buy them at the cost value of manufacture from the Post Office Department, and will redeem as provided by the law.

The stamps issued by the Postmaster General will probably differ in no respect from those received for postage, except that they will be without gluten.

NEW YORK, July 25.

Resolutions adopted by Committees, representing the Chamber of Commerce, the Union Defence Committee and the Common Council resolve that every person and community of doubtful loyalty shall be considered as disloyal and non trusted who is not willing to sacrifice property, life and opinion for the common good; that the time is here when we must strike for national life with every weapon God has given us; that delay strengthens the rebels and wastes us; that it is better that every rebel shall perish, than that one more soldier should die, and therefore they earnestly urge immediately to issue the order which will take from the rebels their great source of strength, while it will diminish their army by calling to the defence of their homes large numbers of rebel officers and men.

KINDERHOOK, July 25.

The funeral of Ex President Van Buren will take place on Monday, July 28, at 1 p. m., from the Reformed Dutch Church of Kinderhook.

BOSTON, July 25.

The steamer Rhode Island, from New Orleans on the 10th, and Key West on the 18th, has arrived at this port. She brings no news.

OSWEGO, July 25.

A tremendous war meeting was held in this city last evening.

Charles DeWolf presided and all the supervisors of the county acted as Vice-presidents.

Speeches were made by Hon. D. C. Littlejohn, who accepted the nomination of the War Committee for Colonel of the Third Oswego regiment, also by Hon. Cheney Ames, Hon. J. C. Churchill, Hon. Henry Fitzhugh, D. Farling, E. B. Talcott, J. H. Mann, A. N. Ludington and Ira D. Brown.

The resolutions unanimously adopted favor a more vigorous prosecution of the war, confiscation of rebel property, the employment of the slaves of fugitives and rebel masters by our military and naval forces, and pledge united and determined resistance against foreign intervention in our affairs.

A number of recruits were obtained on the spot.

The Board of Supervisors has added $50 bounty to each recruit in addition to the National and State bounty.

MEMPHIS, July 22.

Major General Sherman has assumed command of the city. He will enforce all orders issued by his predecessors. 400 persons took the oath of allegiance yesterday; 180 received passes to go south.

Many expected that upon Sherman's arrival the order requiring them to take the oath or to leave would be modified, and have delayed taking action until to-day. Consequently the Provost Marshal's office was thronged with applicants for passes and those desiring to take the required oath.

Vicksburg advices to Sunday night say that the mortars have been shelling the batteries several hours, but failed to elicit any reply.

Farraguts fleet silenced all their guns while running down last Friday night.

The canal has been completed, but the water will not be let in until the river rises.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.

Up to this time the private subscriptions to the bounty fund, independent of the railroads, amount to $75,000.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad to-day subscribed $25,000.
