COURIER & REPUBLIC.

Saturday Evening, July 20, 1872.

SYNOPSIS FOR THE PAST 24 HOURS.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, July 20—10 A. M.

PROBABILITIES.

Dry and pleasant weather with increasing temperature will probably prevail Saturday and Sunday from Maryland to Maine. Increasing southwesterly winds and partly cloudy weather will prevail from Tennessee to the upper and lower lakes. An area of low barometer will develop in Missouri valley. Cloudy weather with possibly light local rains will prevail south of Virginia and Missouri.

LATEST LOCAL.

TREMENDOUS CONFLAGRATION.

Acres of Property Destroyed by Fire—Evans & Co.'s Planing Mill, Several Dwellings, and Immense Quantities of Lumber Burned—Estimated Loss Over $100,000, with Scant Insurance.

This morning our city was visited with one of the most sweeping and disastrous conflagrations we have known for years, involving the destruction of a number of buildings and a vast amount of other property. The fire occurred in a portion of the city where combustibles abound, and, although there was little wind, swept over acres of territory, consuming all before it. In the event of anything like a gale the consequences would certainly have been disastrous to an awful degree. As it was the aggregate of losses swells to an immense figure, with comparatively very light insurances, the property burned being of descriptions which the companies will insure only at very high rates.

The fire was first discovered about 4 o'clock in the morning, in the engine room of the establishment, by the night watchman of situated on Mechanic street, between Terrace street and the canal. The flames spread with astonishing rapidity, so that although the alarm was immediately given from signal box No. 51, and was promptly responded to, the firemen found the entire mill enveloped in flames upon their arrival, burning with appalling fierceness, and illuminating the city with a great light. A portion of the mill buildings were of stone, and the remainder of wood, the establishment being of very large dimensions. From these buildings the fire communicated to the grounds at the rear upon which were stored great quantities of lumber. The mill buildings were completely destroyed, with everything which they contained—machinery, materials, finished stock, workmen's tools, etc. Near the mill, on Mechanic street, was a large two and a half story

FRAME TENEMENT HOUSE

occupied by Owen Hines and two other families. This building was likewise destroyed, as was nearly all the furniture belonging to the inmates. Sweeping along over and through the lumber piles, the flames attacked a row of buildings on Church street, in the one direction, and made their way across the grounds in another direction, until they were stayed by the heroic efforts of the firemen. The tract burned over was of a triangular shape, the fire being stopped at a point directly in the midst of one of the lumber yards. Two frame buildings on

CHURCH STREET,

Nos. 128 and 138, were entirely destroyed; No. 128 was owned and occupied by Jesse Webb, who rented the upper story to another family; No. 134 was owned by Hamilton & Co., and occupied by Robert T. Felthousen; No. 126, owned by Jesse Webb, and occupied by George Parr, was partially burned.

The kitchen part of No. 124, owned and occupied by Patrick Woods, was burned, as was also his barn at the rear, with its contents of feed, harness, etc. Mr. Woods' horses were saved.

Nearly all the furniture belonging to the occupants of these houses was destroyed or damaged.

The two story frame building, No. 120, was owned by Conrad Kempel, and occupied by him as a saloon and residence. This building was somewhat burned and thoroughly drenched with water. The furniture and fixtures were nearly all ruined.

The firms of Hammond & Co., and of Clark, Holland & Co., were the owners of

of which $40,000 dollars worth belonged to the first mentioned firm, and about $10,000 dollars worth to the latter, Hammond & Co., had about 500,000 feet stored on the grounds, of which probably one half was burned.

The aggregate amount of losses by the fire will exceed $100,000. The amounts of individual so far as we have yet been able to ascertain them, indicate that the total will be in excess of those figures, and that but a fraction is covered by insurance.

Messrs. William A. Evans and C. A. Brace, estimate their entire loss at $50,000, to meet which they hold insurance for but $15,000.

Messrs. Clark, Holland & Co., hold insurance to the amount of $15,000, the amount of their loss on lumber being, as before stated, about $40,000.

Messrs. Hamilton & Co.'s loss on lumber was about $6,000, for which they are insured $3,000. Their loss on the dwelling No. 134 Church street is $1,000; insured for $500.

The loss on the buildings 126 and 128 Church street, owned by Jesse Webb, is estimated at $3,000; insured for $2,200.

John C. Avery, wood turner, occupied a portion of the upper story of the stone mill building. His loss upon tools, etc., amounts to about $2,000, for which he has no insurance.

Conrad Kempel, owner and occupant of No. 120 Church street, hold insurance for $1,500 on the building, and $1,000 on furniture and fixtures.

The view of the conflagration was awfully grand, and thousands of people gathered to witness it. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon our for the splendid work they performed in staying the conflagration and finally subduing it, a task which engaged them several hours. An evidence of their efficiency is clearly shown by the fact that the fire was stopped and overcome in the midst of the lumber piles where great quantities of highly combustible material yet lay directly in its track.

Another Fire.

The alarm sounded from box No. 45 at half past nine o'clock this forenoon, was given on account of the burning of a storehouse connected with the oil refinery of Andrew Grass, located near the Central Railroad track and between William and Clinton streets. The building was destroyed and about 200 barrels of oil which it contained. The roof of the refinery was somewhat burned.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services as usual. Preaching in the morning by Rev. R. J. Jones, of Albany; in the evening by Rev. D. M. Ure, formerly of Argyle, N. Y.

Nineteen the the prisoners were charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct, eleven with assault and battery, one with larceny, one with vagrancy, one with embezzlement and one with false pretences. Sixteen cases were within the jurisdiction of the police court. The watch house justices imposed fines to the total amount of one hundred and fifty-five dollars. Six applicants were provided with lodgings at the station houses Friday night.

POLICE COURT.—Michael Bauer was convicted, at the police court to-day, of an assault and battery on George Clark, for which offense he was fined five dollars.

Conrad Poh, a vagrant, was committed to the work house for a term of thirty days.

TIDE WATER RECEIPTS.—The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tide-water during the 2d week in July in the years 1871 and 1872, was as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1871	9,800	474,100	857,400	800
1872	800	13,400	71,800	....
	Dec. 9,200	Dec. 460,700	Dec. 785,600	Dec. 800

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tide-water from the commencement of navigation to the 14th of July, inclusive, during the years 1871 and 1872, was as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1871	99,000	5,418,100	5,977,200	40,400
1872	29,500	1,962,000	9,454,900	401,500
	Dec. 69,500	Dec. 3,456,100	Inc. 3,477,600	Inc. 361,100

By reducing the wheat to flour the quantity of the latter left at tide-water this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease equal to 700,700 bbls flour.

The following comparative table shows the quantity of some of the principal articles of produce left at tide-water from the commencement of navigation to and including the 14th of July in the years indicated;

SUNK IN LAKE SUPERIOR.—The steamer Manitoba, running between Duluth and Canada, struck a rock near Michipecoten Island, Lake Superior, Wednesday forenoon. She was pulled off by the steamer Cumberland. Her passengers, crew and cargo were all saved. She sank in twelve feet of water.

THREE-MASTED VESSELS.—The first three masted vessel ever commissioned on the lakes and which served the purposes for which she was designed, was the schooner Luther Wright, built at Huron, Ohio, by Capt. Wm. Dana, who is yet living and a resident, we believe, of Algonac, Michigan, and at present owner of the steam barge Edith. A vessel called the Owasungah, also a three-master, came out a short time previous to the Wright, and about the year 1838, but the rig was subsequently changed, not being adapted to such a fit-out. In this connection we may observe that chain bobstays were first introduced by Capt. R. C. Bristol, for several years a prominent commander of one of Reed's line of steamers on the lakes, and not long since deceased at Chicago. Upper cabins on steamers were first introduced in 1837 by Capt. Augustus Walker, on board the steamer Great Western. Capt. Walker died at Buffalo in 1865, aged 65.—Det. Free Press.

LAKE FREIGHTS.

BUFFALO, July 19—Rates are firm and vessels scarce. Schooner Carlingford and bark Vanderbilt were chartered for coal to Chicago at $1.

CHICAGO, July 17.—There was an active demand for grain vessels, and nearly all the vessels that were ready to load were taken, a total of 17 charters being reported. These vessels will carry out 40,000 bu wheat, 303,000 bu corn, and 82,000 bu oats. Rates were unchanged and firm, engagements being made on the basis of 7c for corn, and 7½c for wheat to Buffalo. The charters were: To Buffalo—Schrs Charger, F. Perew, Minnie Slauson, Geo. W. Wand, Midnight, Flying Mist, Stafford, VanValkenburg, J. G. Masten and Lafrinier, corn at 7c; prop Alaska, oats at 5c; schrs M. Fillmore, and Skylark, wheat at 7½c.

MILWAUKEE, July 17.—Grain freights are dull and entirely nominal at 7c for wheat to Buffalo, 12c to Oswego, and 12½c to Kingston. Shippers are out of the market, and we hear of no engagements.

DETROIT, July 17.—Freights are substantially unchanged. In grain there is about as much doing as usual at this time of the year, which is next to nothing. The schooner J. B. Penfield was engaged for wheat to Oswego at 9c. Another standard vessel offered to load at the same rate but could not be accommodated. For vessels for coarse freights there is a continued active demand, but very few to be had.

TOLEDO, July 18.—There is no quotable change to note in rates of freight. The fleet has nearly all departed and to-day freights are firm at the figures quoted yesterday—4@4½c by sail to Buffalo, and 8@8½c by sail to Kingston and Oswego.

OSWEGO, July 18.—Rates unchanged. Charters: To Milwaukee—from Sodus, schooner Simms, coal, 75c, free in and out. To Toledo—Schr H. W. Hoag, r r iron, $1 25 f. o. b.

Havana News.

NEW YORK, July 10.

Private Havana advices say that the revolution is beginning to show fresh indications of strength. In his farewell proclamation Count Valmaseda says he hoped to have seen the revolution completely suppressed before his departure. He does not think, however, that it can by any possibility last more than four or five months longer. It is alleged from Havana that his administration has been far more corrupt than any of his predecessors; that he takes with him to Spain three millions of dollars as his share of booty; that all his favorites have acquired fortunes, particularly his private secretary; that speculation and fraud have been practiced in every debt; that negroes reported dead have been sold, and that large revenues from the sale of produce, have not been accounted for to the government.

The Republican Woman's Suffrage Out-cry.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 19.

The Democrat and Chronicle contains an appeal of which the following is a synopsis:

"Women of the United States, the hour for political action has come. For the first time in the history of the country woman is recognized in the platform of a large and dominant party. Philadelphia has spoken and woman is no longer ignored. This is the thin edge of the entering wedge which shall break woman's slavery into pieces and make us at last a nation in which the caste of sex shall fall down by the caste of color, and humanity alone shall be the criterion of human rights.

The women of the country have long looked to the republican party in hope and not in vain, for to-day we are launched by it into the political arena and it must hereafter fight our battles.

This great party, this progressive party, having taken the initiative step, will never go back on its record. Many republican leaders and republican candidates extend their sympathy while the other party gives no promise, either in its platform or the letters of its nominee. Horace Greeley has for years been our most bitter opponent, both by tongue and pen. He has heaped abuse, ridicule and misrepresentation on our leading women, while the whole power of the Tribune has been used to crush out our great reform, and now he continues his hostile course. He presses the iron heel of his despotism upon their liberties and says he neither desires our help nor believes us capable of giving any. Women and women speakers are earnestly needed to co-operate therefore with the republican party.

The appeal is signed on behalf of the National Woman's Suffrage Association.

The king and queen are receiving con[gratu]latory addresses from all portions of the [coun]try expressing joy at their escape fro[m the] bullets of their assassins, and declaring [loyal]ty and attachment of the people to dy[nasty]. Yesterday afternoon their majesties [drove] through the city in an open carriage [and their] progress was immense ovation. The[y were] greeted at every point by enthusiastic [cheers] and plaudits of entire populace. Thous[ands of] citizens accompanied the carriage on its [way] to the palace. The examination of t[he] assassins who were captured, develop[s the] fact that the attack was on the part of [an or]ganized conspiracy extensive in its ra[mifica]tions, and provided with ample funds.

Court of Impeachment.

SYRACUSE, Jul

The court met at 10 a. m., 32 member[s] present. A discussion on the plea was [raised] into yesterday by Mr. Beach, that the [court] has no jurisdiction over acts committed [by the] defendant during a previous term o[f office] resumed. The president of the court [ruled] that only one of the counsel on each sid[e could] be heard according to the rule of the [court.] Senator Lewis moved that two be allo[wed to] speak on each side.

The president hoped the decision w[ould be] sustained. The president then put th[e ques]tion with the following result: Y[eas,] Nays, 23. Beach resumed his ar[gument] on the question, and contended that [an] officer could not be subject to the ac[tion of] criminal law. The president put the q[uestion] whether the plea should be sustained, [and it] was decided in the negative as follows:

Yeas—Chief Judge Church, Judges [Grover] and Rapallo, and Senators Foster, Har[rower,] Lewis, Lord, Murphy, O'Brien—9.

Nays—President Beach, Judges Alle[n, Fol]ger, Peckham, Andrews, and Senators [Adams,] Allen, Baker, Benedict, Bowen, Cl[aflin,] Cock, Lowery, McGowan, Madden, [Palmer,] Perry, Robertson, Tieman, Weisman, W[...] D. P. Wood and Woodin—23.

Mr. Beach moved to strike out the [article 19,] article 19, which charges Barnard wi[th con]spiring with Fisk and others to depriv[e the direc]tors of the possession of the Albany a[nd Sus]quehanna railroad. He moved agai[nst this] article because it did not charge the de[fendant] with any unlawful action. [It was] denied. He also moved to strik[e out] article 20 which charges that judge [Barnard] received presents of $1,500 and upwa[rds from] Fick & Gould while actions in which th[ey were] interested were pending before him[. The] council maintained that the article did [not spe]cifically charge that Barnard decided [in favor] of Fisk, because of presents received. [It was] denied.

Mr. Beach then moved to strike out [articles] 3, 7 and 38, which charges defendant [with sup]porting himself in an unbecoming ma[nner.]

Chief Judge Church suggested that [more] er time to make this motion was w[anted, as] proof was in.

Mr. Beach accepted the suggestio[n and ad]journed till Monday.
