

RECORDINGS

And now beside the swimming pool
The July sunshine glows,
And lilacs shed their fragrance, while
The small boy sheds his clothes.

Circus at Lyons to day.

Reneux VanTassell was in Geneva Tuesday.

Carl Webster has returned from Rochester.

Republican caucus to-morrow afternoon.

Races at Newark on August 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th.

Fifteen Newarkites went to the front Monday.

Supervisor's clerk W. J. Toor was in Lyons Monday.

William Stansfield returned to Auburn Saturday.

Bert Babio of Wolcott was in town Sunday and Monday.

Bernard Shoecraft will lead the Junior League Sunday.

Stephen Hollister of Rochester is in Sodus for a few days.

George Maynard of Syracuse is visiting at S. B. Teall's.

Miss Malda Snyder of Victor is visiting Mrs. Adam Brier.

Henry Pettit has moved into the Tryon house on Mill street.

Four extra pages for the next month. Look out for them.

Frank Poucher is taking a vacation from W. H. Richardson's.

Mrs. Congdon of Palmyra has been visiting Mrs. George Yeomans.

Mrs. O. E. Danford and Miss M. McIntire are visiting in Charlotte.

B. R. Pinter and John Vanluyck were down from Ontario yesterday.

Miss Nellie Shaw of Sodus is Mrs. J. D. Bashford's guest in Lyons Friday.

The union services Sunday night will be held in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Nancy Howard of Minstead died Monday. She was 78 years of age.

Wilson Dobson has been suffering with an attack of the quincy this week.

Miss Mabel Murray of Oswego has been in Sodus with old friends this week.

Mrs. Marvin of Rochester has been visiting Miss Jennie A. Steegar this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugsley of Rochester visited at William Messenger's this week.

Miss Mary Leroy is at James Hanby's at the Centenary for a few weeks.

The leader of the Epworth League Sunday night will be Miss Harriette Boyd.

Mrs. B. Poucher returned from a week's visit at Oswego Monday night.

John Aumann spent the fore part of the week in camp at Nine Mile Point.

The steamer Oclema will run on Sodus Bay during the reunion in August.

Mrs. P. I. Johnson and daughter are at Marion for a short stay with relatives.

Mrs. Cooper and Miss Cooper of Sag Harbor, L. I., are visiting Mrs. E. Rogers.

Dogs have been playing havoc with sheep in different towns throughout the county.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson of Rose were with Sodus friends Saturday and Sunday.

The water at Sodus Bay has lowered considerably during the recent dry weather.

Mrs. L. B. VanDyke and Mrs. L. Spencer of Newark have been visiting at Sodus.

An attempt was made to burglarize the West Walworth post office Sunday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Smith Ordway have been assisting Rev. Geil at Williamson this week.

C. D. Gaylord and family are now located at Sprong's Bluff for their annual outing.

A number of our young people attended the hop at Sodus Point Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edward Tebeau was called to Oswego Sunday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Twenty of the young people of the village held a picnic at Sprong's Bluff Saturday.

Miss Versa Espeneheid and Mr. Burlee of Alton were guests at C. L. Brown's Sunday.

Baptismal services and reception of members at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Miss Inez Pulver of this village has been engaged as assistant at the North Rose school.

It is said that on account of the war no more peppermint oil will be purchased until fall.

Messrs. Kelly and Case and the Misses Wride and Shaw passed Sunday at Pultneyville.

J. J. and W. McInerney of Rochester were the guests of friends in this village over Sunday.

Mrs. D. P. Chamberlin of Lyons recently visited Mrs. Grace Williams Sutton in this village.

Mrs. Henry Belter of Rochester is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Austin.

One week from next Tuesday night is school meeting. Get ready to make or break a slate.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Anderson of Palmyra have been in Sodus this week visiting relatives.

Jacob Strauss, the Clyde merchant, was found dead in his room Monday. He was 75 years of age.

Miss Nellie Congdon and Charles Congdon of Palmyra are spending a few weeks at John Horn's.

Peter Langwill is entertaining his sisters, the Misses Anna and Jesse Langwill, of Rockford, Ill.

Abram Bean had a very sick horse Saturday. Dr. Johnson was called and saved the animal's life.

Miss Florence Douglas of Detroit is expected to reach Sodus to-day to visit Miss Jessie Williams.

Miss Jennie A. Steegar and Mrs. Marvin of Rochester passed Wednesday with Sodus Point friends.

Miss Carrie Ransom and Miss Katherine Bryant of Rochester are visiting Miss Ella Hathaway.

Deputy sheriff Collins went to Lyons from Sodus Monday night and closed the Baltzel House.

On the first page will be found a poem written by J. J. McInerney of Rochester, who visits in Sodus.

Robert Barclay will leave for Lyons Monday, where he has accepted a position for the summer.

L. V. Pulver expects to start to-morrow for Glenwood, Iowa, where he will remain for several weeks.

The Ontario Democratic county convention endorsed Hon. E. B. Norris of Sodus for comptroller.

George Alling and friend, John Dawson, of Hastings Mich., have been visitors at Dr. E. D. Alling's.

Mrs. Ann B. Mulkins of Silver Creek, Chautauque county, has been a recent guest at Rev. E. C. Bennett's.

Dr. John VanHoe of Detroit reached Sodus Sunday and has been assisting our friends this week.

One of the Newark bands will play at the annual reunion at Bountycastle, which begins on August 22d.

Remember that the date for the first excursion of the season to Niagara Falls has been set for August 6th.

Hiram Clark, Benjamin Button and Edward Button of Sodus Point are erecting the pier at Sprong's Bluff.

It is said that pickpockets have been operating in this county. Two robberies have recently been reported.

Dr. L. Grove Tuttle of Troy is passing a vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tuttle, in this village.

Mrs. Harriette McCarty has returned from Moravia, where she has been in a millinery store for three months.

Mrs. O. Smith returned to her Brockport home Monday, after spending a few days at W. H. Richardson's.

Dr. P. I. Johnson was in Rochester yesterday to attend the session of the Genesee Veterinary Medical Association.

Miss Harriette E. Cartiss has been selected to lead the Christian Endeavor devotional meeting next Sunday night.

Mrs. F. P. Rogers and son Gardner of Aurora, Ill., reached Sodus Saturday night for a visit with relatives here.

The Altar boys of St. Michael's church at Lyons will have a week's outing at Sodus Point, beginning July 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Rogers have been spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fish at their cottage at Sprong's Bluff.

There is a strong possibility that the Sodus Cornet Band will accompany the excursion to Niagara Falls on August 6th.

Miss Mary Young returned to her home at Trumansburgh Monday, after spending several days with old friends in town.

Mrs. Barber, who has been visiting relatives in town for about three weeks, returned to her home at Phelps Monday.

A New York divine started his congregation Sunday by announcing as the subject for his sermon—"To Hell With Spain."

The train annunciators have been at the station for a number of weeks and yet the company fails to put them in operation.

Our Resort correspondent tells of a narrow escape experienced by our friend T. B. Jones near that place Monday afternoon.

Miss Fannie Shiplay, Miss Jennie Bennett and Leonard Bennett of Chicago are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Raymond.

William C. Labadie, a former foreman of this office, who resides at Syracuse, has been in town this week calling on old friends.

Harris A. Walters, the congressional clerk, who has been visiting C. M. Cottrell, expects to leave for Omaha, Neb., Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Joyce of Waterloo are visiting at Mrs. Mary Tuttle's. Mrs. Joyce was formerly Miss Clara Tuttle of this village.

The Misses Ella Hilton and Edith Myers of Orwell and Ward Hammond of Scriba are spending a few weeks at S. H. Ware's.

Willie Curtiss, Verne Whitbeck, John Rivers and A. Harris expect to begin a week's outing at Sprong's Bluff next Wednesday.

The W. T. Gaylord inventory was finished Wednesday night and a Friday morning deputy sheriff has returned to Lyons.

John Schulyer brought to this office Saturday a sugar beet that measured 7 1/4 inches in circumference and 9 1/2 inches in length.

Fire destroyed the large evaporator of Robert Gregg at Wolcott Saturday evening. A large amount of dried berries were burned.

The steamer Sunbeam of Sodus Point made excursion trips at Nine Mile Point yesterday. The Webster Masons held a picnic there.

Miss Elizabeth Kier, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Barclay, in Sodus, returns this week.—Newark Gazette.

Myron H. Shirts of Newark, who frequently visits friends in Sodus, has passed the physical examination and is now a full-fledged soldier.

Arthur Selby, a colored lad living at Savannah, was held up near his home Saturday night and now the authorities are after the assailants.

The Rose Astonisher will be continued, E. S. Boyce acting as editor in place of G. A. Sherman, deceased. Mrs. G. A. Sherman will act as manager.

The funeral of little Ouida Bertha Austin was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Yates officiating. Burial was made at the Rural cemetery.

Jesse Green, Mrs. G. H. Rogers and Mrs. Bours have been at the Rogers' cottage at Sodus Point part of the week. Mr. Rogers has also passed a few hours there.

We are informed that Hon. E. H. Sentell of Sodus Point expects to locate near Batavia. If the report is true our town will lose a man who will be difficult to replace.

Sodus defeated Sodus Point at base ball yesterday at Sodus Point by a score of 21 to 11. The game lasted until after seven o'clock and was an uninteresting one.

Samuel Reardon left yesterday for Rochester, where he expects to accept a position. John Schulyer succeeds him as proprietor of the milk route at Sodus Point.

O. F. Thomas of Lyons has purchased a large steam yacht for ocean purposes. It is understood that Mr. Thomas expects to cross the Atlantic with the boat.

Rain has fallen south, east and west of us, but we have received only a few drops. It looked like a decent shower Tuesday, but it lasted only a few minutes. Wells and cisterns are becoming dry and the fruit is in very poor shape.

Two young Sodus fellows planned Sunday that on the following day they would leave for Syracuse to enlist. When Monday morning came one of them backed down, and they are still enjoying the quietude of our lovely village.

State excise agent F. S. Parsons of this village reached home Wednesday. His stay is indefinite. Mr. Parsons has been in New York city for about three months. His thorough work has received many compliments.

A rumor is being circulated to the effect that the first week in September has been settled upon as the date for the wedding of a prominent young man of Sodus, and one of our village's most charming daughters.—Williamson Cor. Newark Union.

The death of Mrs. Catherine Buckler, widow of the late John Buckler, and mother of A. E. Buckler of this village, occurred at Williamson Tuesday and interment was made Wednesday. Dropsy caused death. The deceased was about 55 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justin Morrill returned to Fulton Tuesday, after passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark at Alton. Mr. Morrill will be in Sodus for a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Buckler, widow of the late John Buckler, and mother of A. E. Buckler of this village, occurred at Williamson Tuesday and interment was made Wednesday. Dropsy caused death. The deceased was about 55 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justin Morrill returned to Fulton Tuesday, after passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark at Alton. Mr. Morrill will be in Sodus for a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Buckler, widow of the late John Buckler, and mother of A. E. Buckler of this village, occurred at Williamson Tuesday and interment was made Wednesday. Dropsy caused death. The deceased was about 55 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justin Morrill returned to Fulton Tuesday, after passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark at Alton. Mr. Morrill will be in Sodus for a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Buckler, widow of the late John Buckler, and mother of A. E. Buckler of this village, occurred at Williamson Tuesday and interment was made Wednesday. Dropsy caused death. The deceased was about 55 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justin Morrill returned to Fulton Tuesday, after passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark at Alton. Mr. Morrill will be in Sodus for a few days.

C. Snyder is a happy man. His launch is now running beautifully on Sodus Bay. The trial trip was a complete success and proved to be a speedy boat. Several launches have been made with her on the lake and she has also been tested on the lake to good advantage.

Look out for our extra next week. Four extra pages, containing a cream of the advertisers in this section, with lots of good stories. The firms who are enterprising enough to advertise the year round are the ones who are doing the best business. They will give you fresh goods at right prices.

A petition is being circulated for the purpose of raising money to assist the band. The money will be used to good advantage. There are many incidental expenses to maintain and a quantity of music to purchase. The boys give open air concerts with good grace and we ought to recognize them in a financial way.

The Newark high school base ball team arranged a game with the Sodus Point Club for last Saturday but failed to make its appearance. The team in this village played the same trick a few weeks ago. They even listen to a proposal to get from this badly conducted organization.

We are pleased to inform our readers that we have closed a large advertising contract with the Toronto Company of Buffalo. They will advertise their famous discovery "Tonicum" extensively, and we are assured by the manufacturers that the remedy is absolutely guaranteed to be as advertised. They refund money if dissatisfaction occurs.

In an interview with Rev. Horace Yates, the pastor of the Methodist church of Sodus, he said that he had endorsed the letter written by Mr. Smith Ordway, pastor of the Methodist Presbyterian church, which appeared in the Wayne County Alliance on Wednesday last. He also said that he was in full sympathy with the Gell movement in Sodus.

A new game called the "Editor's Delight" is played in this way, with an exchange. Take a sheet of ordinary writing paper, fold it several times and inclose a bank note with a large to pay up all arrearages for one year in advance. Keep an eye on the editor and if a smile shows on his face, the trick works like a charm. Now is the time to play the joke.

Mrs. Lucy S. Harrington, relict of the late Rev. Van Rensselaer Harrington, died at her home in Lyons Tuesday. Deceased has resided in Lyons forty years. She was born in 1810 in Sodus on the farm now occupied by her brother, Evander S. Smith. She was married in 1834. Mr. Harrington was then pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Angelica.

Last Saturday afternoon as Rev. Smith Ordway was riding his wheel near S. DeRight's it broke, throwing him to the ground. He was hurt quite badly. B. J. Case was near and assisted him to the residence of Mr. DeRight and later he was brought home.

Mrs. Harrison Dunn of Lyons died last Sunday night. Deceased was 64 years of age and is survived by a husband, daughters, Mrs. Jennie McIntyre of Sodus, Mrs. Minnie DeLeonard and Mrs. Kate Seutter of Brooklyn and Miss Almira Dunn of Lyons, sons, Thomas and Arthur of Lyons and Harrison of Sodus. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The comfort bags, for the soldiers and sailors serving in the present war, furnished by the citizens of Sodus and members of the W. C. T. U., were forwarded July 18th to W. C. Hedway, U. S. N., Receiving Ship Vermont, Navy Yard, Brooklyn.

The thanks of the superintendent of the department of work among soldiers and sailors is sincerely extended to all who so kindly assisted in the work.

