

RECORDINGS

"Lives of great men now remind us, We can make our own sublime; And, with papa's push behind us, Get commissions every time."

"The foe at Manila, since Dewey's grand J. S., For food all their horses have slain; So now when a Don finds a hair in his hash He's bound to remember the mane."

Four extra pages this week.

Races at Newark next week.

Next month comes the encampment.

School meeting next Tuesday night.

Mrs. S. N. Morrow is visiting at Elmira.

Numerous cases of tonsillitis are reported.

Threshing has begun in earnest this week.

Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown are visiting in Newark.

Mrs. G. F. Hendricks visited in Newark Wednesday.

A Soldiers' Aid Society has been organized at Palmyra.

Wilfred Arms has been down from Youngstown, O., this week.

The Wolcott Grange will picnic at Lake Bluff next Wednesday.

Dr. John VanHee returned to his home at Detroit Wednesday.

David Testor of Rochester was in Sodus Saturday and Sunday.

J. F. Carson is expected home from Red Axe, Mich., in a short time.

Miss Nellie Payne will lead the Junior League Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Grace Williams Sutton is visiting Mrs. B. B. Kelly at Ontario.

Messrs. Handall and Harrington of Newark were in Sodus Wednesday.

Miss Jessie Young of Syracuse is visiting Miss Harriette Belle Snider.

Mrs. S. P. Snider and Dean Hatt of Syracuse are visitors at E. N. Snider's.

Miss Negro of Rochester has been spending the week at M. W. Garner's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borke of Rensselaer visited at B. F. Whaling's this week.

Miss Marion Hendricks returned Saturday from a visit at Sodus Centre.

Charles Lampson of South Sodus was a recent guest of his uncle, J. G. Dingman.

Isaac Reynolds of Alton has been granted an increase in pension from $12 to $17.

J. L. Webster of Rochester has been spending the week at S. W. Brundage's.

Miss Ma Granger is named as the leader of the Epworth League meeting Sunday.

Charles C. Wood of Philadelphia was a visitor at George Arnold's over Sunday.

Miss Ma Granger has returned from a visit with Michigan friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wright of Newark passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Abram Smith.

The after-harvest excursion to Niagara Falls on August 6th promises to be a large one.

Lightning struck the Sauer school house near Joy Tuesday. Very little damage was done.

Union services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday night. Rev. Ordway will preach.

The good people of Minstead are anxious to talk with the outer world by telephone.

The third race of the season held by the Sodus Bay Yacht Club will be sailed next Monday.

Photographer Stacy reports business at Sodus Point about the same as he usually receives.

Dr. John VanHee and H. L. Kelly passed the fore part of the week at the Thousand Islands.

Miss Edith Powers of Palmyra has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. D. Lamont the past week.

The "Rag Time Extravaganza Company" gave an interesting performance Tuesday night.

Mrs. C. C. Smith and daughter Florence of Auburn are visitors at the Methodist parsonage.

About twenty of the young people in this village held a dance in Rice's Hall Wednesday evening.

D. G. Rogers entertained the cottagers at Sprong's Bluff Sunday with G. H. Rogers' graphophone.

The Grange will meet to-morrow. R. K. Butts will lead the discussion, which refers to dairy affairs.

S. S. Granger took a jolly party from Sprong's Bluff to Sodus Bay Sunday in his launch "Bessie."

S. W. Case was called to Lock, Michigan, Monday by the announcement of the death of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Abbey returned to their home at Newark Monday, after a visit at Erander Smith's.

W. H. Richardson and family left Wednesday for their annual outing at their cottage at Point Charles.

G. H. Rogers has just completed a new boat house at Sodus Bay. He has also built a dock at his cottage.

The leader of the Christian Endeavor devotional meeting Sunday evening next will be Mrs. Robert Forester.

Politicians say that congressman Payne and assemblyman Greenwood will be nominated without opposition.

Local interest in the war seems to have abated somewhat. At least the newsboys' sales indicate that fact.

There will be no services at the Methodist church Sunday morning. The Sunday School will be held as usual.

To-morrow D. G. Rogers and family leave for their cottage at Sodus Point to be absent for four weeks.

We understand that a prominent farmer in Sodus has been thinking about cutting his oats with a lawnmower.

The Newark Presbyterian Sunday school, nearly 400 strong, held their annual outing at Sodus Point Wednesday.

A young boy in Sodus, whose father is a lumber man, asked his parental ancestor the price of "war boards."

Miss Ella Hathaway entertained at tea Friday evening in honor of her guests, the Misses Bryant and Ranson.

The sheriff's sale of the dry goods, etc., of W. T. Gaylord will be held next Wednesday at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Farmers report that the rains of the past week have been not a little beneficial, but add that much more is needed.

H. R. Cotton, E. W. Cotton, Miss Alice Gibson and Miss Jennie Cotton of Clyde were guests at Isaac Atkinson's Sunday.

The Westbury Soldiers' Association will hold its annual reunion at the village of Red Creek August 2d to 7th inclusive.

Albert Dodd has secured the most contracts and contracts for the right of way over the private property for the electric road.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Matthews were guests of Miss Mildred Snyder at the Snyder cottage, Sodus Point, Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cattieu and children of Sodus have been guests at J. F. Ford's a short time this week.—Clyde Times.

Arthur Whitbeck reached Sodus Wednesday from Rochester. He will spend a week with relatives and friends in this section.

Irwin Green, Carl Gurnee, Fred Yeomans, Frank Case, R. C. Hill and Mr. Ward passed the fore part of the week at Sprong's Bluff.

Mrs. A. J. Madell and children returned to their home in this village Saturday, after spending two weeks at Batavia and Oakfield.

Hon. E. B. Norris addressed the Grangers of Monroe County at Manitou Beach yesterday, where they held their annual picnic.

Mrs. Albert Carter, formerly Kittie Carson, has been visiting her relatives in town during the past week. She now resides at Minoa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Joyce of Marion were in town Tuesday. Mr. Joyce is an applicant for teaching the public school in this village.

In the berry patch of William Duffoo and Son, Tuesday, 1016 quarts of black berries were harvested with four Dundee harvesters.

The long distance telephone line was burned out by the first storm and for a number of days it has been of no use to the people in this town.

Mrs. Henry W. Shaver of this village and Mrs. C. C. Abbey of Newark united with the local Methodist church in full connection last Sunday.

The case of E. J. Gatchell vs. Mary Sutton was adjourned from Wednesday of this week until August 5th, when it will be tried before justice Toor.

The B. W. & O. officials passed through Sodus Wednesday enroute for Niagara Falls. They were on a tour of inspection and had a special train.

There seems to be no opposition to the renomination of assemblyman Greenwood. His good work at the last session makes him the logical candidate.

The livery firm of L. R. Bennett & Son of Lyons was dissolved Saturday. W. H. Bennett will continue the business and L. R. Bennett will locate at Auburn.

Lightning struck the electric light plant at Palmyra Saturday and the business houses found it difficult to do business owing to the darkness the remainder of the night.

There is good authority for the statement that a Mr. Crothers of Phelps caught a pickerel at Sodus Bay last week that weighed a few ounces less than fifteen pounds.

The mammoth barns belonging to Millard Weeks, a farmer residing near Newark, were totally destroyed by fire Saturday. The loss was over $2,000. They were partly insured.

The Buffalo Times names nearly a dozen candidates for the office of comptroller on the Democratic state ticket. Hon. E. B. Norris' name is favorably mentioned among the number.

A. B. Williams and family expect to leave to-day for their cottage at Point Charles, where they will remain for about three weeks. They will entertain a house party over Sunday.

Charles Sager entertained a party of eight or ten from this village Sunday at his cottage at Sodus Point. The ride on the Bay in his new launch was one of the pleasures of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Kelly of this village and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Kelly of Ontario were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fish at their Sprong's Bluff cottage Sunday.

Sodus Point defeated the Newark base ball team Saturday afternoon at Sodus Point by a score of 28 to 2. Is this the team that wants to play Sodus for the championship of Wayne county?

Newark experienced another rail road wreck Tuesday. A west bound freight car on the Central jumped the track, derailing nearly the entire train. No one was injured and strange to say but little damage was done.

Dr. Gard Foster of Rochester, who for the past three months has been attending the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Clinics in Paris and London, has returned and will resume practice at No. 19 East Ave. Monday, Aug. 1st.

Miss Elizabeth J. Pulver has received word that she successfully passed the recent teachers' examinations winning a second grade certificate. Only 12 out of the 85 students who tried the examinations, were successful.

Clarence Godfrey and Miss Jennie Godfrey of Port Byron, Miss Martha Davidson of Vieland, N. J., and Miss Mary Hardy of Gloversville were guests of the Misses Nora and Eda Pulver in this village Friday and Saturday.

Fred Clause, Miss Edith Parker, Howard Palmer, Miss Lizzie Mandeville Ray Wagar, Miss Marie Coyne, Asa Jennings, Miss Caston, James Mandeville and Miss Carrie Parker of Webster have been enjoying a week's outing at Sodus Point.

The Republican district convention will be held in Lyons Saturday, July 30th. The Senatorial convention will meet in Geneva Friday, August 5th, and the Congressional convention will be held in Auburn Saturday, August 6th.

The rain of Saturday did much good although it lasted but a short time. We have received no reports of serious damage. The local telephone exchange was burned out, but proprietor Whaling had it in operation again Monday morning.

The County Pomona Grange will meet in convention here on September 10th, when E. B. Norris, master of the State Grange, will deliver the address of the afternoon. Between two and three hundred delegates are expected.—Pittsford Cor., Rochester Union.

Last Sunday was said to be the liveliest Sabbath that Sodus Point has seen this season. Saturday night a great many people came on the trains to remain until Monday, and on Sunday hundreds of wheelmen visited the resort besides those who made their appearances in carriages.

Mrs. Charlotte Knight has received letters from different sailors who have been presented with the comfort bags that were sent last week. In our next issue we will present some of them. To Mrs. Knight is due the hearty thanks of all interested for her devotion to this worthy cause.

Rev. Horatio Yates was at Locke, Cayuga county, Saturday to officiate at the funeral of John W. Taylor, one of the most prominent men in that community. There was a standing agreement between the two that the one living at the time of the other's death should preach the funeral sermon.

Charles C. Fields has organized a "Basket Factory Nine," and challenges any local team. C. C. Fields, Bill Thayer, Pete DeNed, Henry Shaver, Gay Hulet, Pete Bodine, John DeNed, Robert Foster, and Al Madell are the men now daily drilling. Charlie is very sanguine.—Sodus Cor. Newark Gazette.

We present to the readers of this paper four extra pages, on which will be found the advertisements of the most prominent and hustling business men of this section. They are men who understand the value of advertising. They sell the most goods and consequently have fresh stocks. We urge our readers to patronize them.

Rev. M. S. Hard, one of the corresponding secretaries of the Methodist Church Extension Society, will preach in the Sodus M. E. Church, both morning and evening, on Sunday, August 14th. Rev. Hard is one of the prominent men in Methodism and an entertaining speaker. He is a warm personal friend of our local M. E. Pastor.

Collector A. W. Brower of the Port of Sodus Point informed a representative of THE RECORD that business at that port is fair, but the coal exports are not nearly as large as is reported in out of town papers. Newark writers are responsible for the big business boom at Sodus Point, placing their news under a Sodus Point headline.

Miss Mary Morley of Sodus Centre is at the ship yards near Saginaw, Michigan, superintending repairs to several of the family's schooners.

Sprague Grangers' gasoline boat is one of the finest little propellers ever seen on Sodus Bay. It is as handy as a pocket in a shirt. Mr. Granger never forgets to invite numerous friends to enjoy the pleasure of his little craft.—Dem. Press.

J. G. Dingman has accepted the Hillman "Perfect" apple slicer agency for Sodus and Williamson. The slicer has been used a great deal in this town and found to be a most excellent machine. Some of Mr. Hillman's best testimonials found their source in Sodus. Mr. Dingman would be pleased to explain the merits of this guaranteed slicer to any and all prospective purchasers.

Wednesday afternoon Rev. Horatio Yates delivered an address on the "Criminal" at the Silver Lake Assembly. The following day Rev. and Mrs. Yates started for a carriage drive. They will stop in Cato, Jordan, Syracuse and Stockbridge. At the latter named place they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Lyon, returning to Sodus the latter part of next week.

Messrs. Angus Harris, Willis David Curtis, Charles Benjamin Williams, John Jefferson Rivers and John Verne Whitbeck have engaged a cottage of Charles Sprong and moved into camp this week. Harris is to be marshal; Willis David Curtis is chief butler and C. B. Williams general house manager. Every one has an office. The parents visit them daily and stand guard around their nights.

John T. Kilham, who was prominently identified with the discovery and development of the Baldwinville natural gas field, is soon to sink some test wells in this section. He is meeting with decided success in the preliminary work of securing leases of land for oil and gas purposes, some of the best and most conservative business men having leased their land to Mr. Kilham.—Lyons Republican.

Dr. J. D. Briggs had a narrow escape from instant death on Thursday evening. He returned from Rochester on the evening train and was met at the station by his hired boy with the horse and buggy. After he entered the carriage the boy started to drive out from the station before the train left. When opposite the engine the horse became frightened and began to run. About the same time the breeching gave way, allowing the buggy to run on the horse's heels. In making the turn to the main road the buggy was overturned, throwing the Dr. out on his side and shoulder, breaking one of his ribs, besides severely bruising him. It certainly was a very fortunate thing that he was not more seriously injured.—Newark Gazette.