

RECORDINGS

A CAPITULATION.

Her eyes are like torpedoes.
So silently they lay:
A flash, and all is over.
And victory crowns her way.
Fort Bachelor goes crumbling
Beneath the rapid fire,
And finally surrenders,
With peace its one desire.
Too soon my heart she captured,
Bombarded and displaced
My very frail defence with
Her lovely 10-inch waist!

Races next Thursday.

Labor Day next Monday.

Get ready for the evangelist meetings.

Mrs. Featherly is visiting Ontario relatives.

Mrs. John Atkinson was in Wolcott Monday.

Mrs. Demelt left Wednesday for a visit at Ontario.

The public school will open for the fall term Tuesday.

Malon Spear of Newark was in Sodus Wednesday.

Frank Percy left Wednesday for a trip to western states.

C. E. Wood of Philadelphia is visiting at George Arnold's.

Mrs. W. R. Norris was in New York city Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Matthews returned from Bath Monday.

Mrs. Mary Penn visited in Williamson Wednesday and Thursday.

Thirty people went to the Thousand Islands from Sodus Sunday.

The leader of the Epworth League Sunday will be Mrs. A. P. Hamm.

Mrs. William C. Fisher has been visiting Lyons relatives this week.

Harmon Beiter of Rochester is visiting at F. A. Austin's for two weeks.

C. C. Smith of Auburn was a guest at Rev. Horatio Yates' over Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Duffoo has been spending the week with Rochester friends.

Alexander Smith of Palmyra died on the street in that village Tuesday.

Mrs. Flower Drake of Newark has been visiting Sodus friends this week.

S. O. Scudder of Rome was a guest of Sodus friends Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tyson of Elmville were callers in town Sunday.

Miss Carrie Garner of Rochester is visiting Mrs. W. R. Norris in this village.

The Centenary Sunday school held their picnic yesterday at Sprong's Bluff.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. B. C. Bode.

Margaret S. Cole has returned to Newark, after a three weeks' visit at home.

Mrs. A. L. Ebray entertained several of her friends at tea Tuesday night.

A trip to Toronto next week will be well worth the time and money spent.

William Stone has returned from a two week's visit with Syracuse relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Rogers have returned from their cottage at Sodus Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson DeBrine passed Sunday with Pultneyville friends.

Mrs. W. J. Allen and daughter Dora are visiting relatives at Pictou, Canada.

Mrs. George Klumpp of Weedsport was a guest of Mrs. George Hendricks Tuesday.

Mrs. Mate Collins and children returned Tuesday from a short stay at Westbury.

Miss Grace L. Grannis and Miss Minnie Grannis returned Saturday from Elmira.

A. J. Barber will lead the Christian Endeavor devotional meeting next Sunday night.

Miss Lucinda Blanchard returned from Mexico and the Thousand Islands Tuesday.

Robert Smith has accepted a position with a Syracuse firm. He left for there Monday.

The Junior League services will be resumed at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Rev. F. M. Yamaguchi of Tokio, Japan, was registered at the Snider House Wednesday.

Mrs. R. W. Milner and Charles Milner left Monday for a two weeks' visit at Little Falls.

We are requested to announce that the Whitbeck district school will open next Tuesday.

Mrs. S. N. Keener of Newark was a visitor at Mrs. O. E. Danford's Saturday and Sunday.

The town board will meet next Tuesday to appoint polling places for the next election.

Henry Ewell and George Johnson of Rochester were guests at George Toor's over Sunday.

New subscribers can have THE RECORD from now until January 1st for twenty-five cents.

Rev. Bees, who will shortly conduct revival services in Sodus, comes highly recommended.

Mrs. P. A. Austin will return tomorrow from a ten day's visit at her old home in Rochester.

Miss Ada Boyd entertained Tuesday in honor of her guest, Miss Hazel Smith of Philadelphia.

Frank and Jay Corteville of Marlon visited their brothers in this village Saturday and Sunday.

A. A. Fisher has purchased the Featherly place, one and one-half miles east of this village.

Miss Sally Pudget of Williamson has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Granger.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Sergeant of Sodus have been spending several days in town.—Newark Union.

Rev. Kingsley F. Norris of Hartford, Conn., has been visiting his brother, E. B. Norris, this week.

Peter Sellinger has severed his connection with the Poucher meat market, conducted by H. S. Boyd.

The Grange will meet tomorrow and William Duffoo will open the discussion on the topic assigned.

Miss May Leadley of Rochester spent Monday with Miss Anna Craggs and Mrs. Isaac Atkinson.

Henry Rivers and Bert Sergeant left Monday for Mt. Morris, Mich., where they will evaporate apples.

Miss Nora Pulver will leave for Gloversville tomorrow, where she will teach school for another year.

Several from this village attended the entertainment given at Opera Hall, Sodus Centre, Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Duburk and daughter Susie of Williamson visited at Mr. and Mrs. William Dekker's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dekker and daughter of Pultneyville visited their parents in this village last Saturday.

Mrs. E. B. Anderson and children of Palmyra reached Sodus Wednesday to spend a few days with relatives.

A representative of the proposed electric line from Rochester to Sodus Point had business in town last night.

Mrs. L. S. Church of Marysville, O., is spending two weeks at the faith home of Mrs. Tutthill, west of the village.

Miss Kate DeGelleke returned to Rochester Wednesday, after spending two weeks with relatives in this village.

Mrs. M. B. Sprague, formerly Bertha Boyer of Sodus, has moved with her husband to Philadelphia from Boston.

County court will convene next Tuesday instead of Monday, on account of the latter being a legal holiday.

Samuel Parsons of Syracuse, who is connected with the Syracuse Post, was at Dr. W. S. Lee's Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Kingsley was a guest of Mrs. S. S. Granger at her Sprong's Bluff cottage from Friday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Darling of Long Island and Mrs. William Phillips of Walworth are visiting Mrs. R. J. Newell.

The Williamson Sentinel's management has decided to publish on Saturday hereafter instead of on Thursday.

Mrs. E. H. Landon of New York is making her yearly visit with Sodus friends and relatives. Mr. Landon is expected later.

One week from next Monday Alvah H. Pulver will leave for Madison, N. J., where he will enter the Drew Theological Seminary.

The season at Sprong's Bluff will soon be brought to a close. At no time during its history has it been so popular as this year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fox left last night for Croton-on-the-Hudson, after spending a large portion of the summer in Sodus.

Mrs. Silas Reynolds of Clyde visited at Albert Granger's from Saturday until Wednesday. She resided in town 30 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Featherly expect to leave next week for Despatch. They will reside on a farm purchased by Mr. Featherly.

It is funny how some papers will "roast" an enterprise because they do not get the printing. The encampment came in for its share.

Mrs. Campbell and daughter of Rochester and Miss Minnie Coughlin of Rochester were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollenbeck Sunday.

George Seeley fell in the barn owned by M. E. Reynolds, Monday, and dislocated his shoulder. Dr. Myers was called and relieved Mr. Seeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and daughter were visitors at Mrs. R. J. Newell's Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Phillips is a sister of Mrs. Newell.

Miss Hattie Hopkins of South Sodus was with friends in this village Saturday. She began teaching school in the Calciana district Monday.

Miss Susie Cole expects to leave tomorrow or Monday for Alexandria Bay, where she has been re-engaged as teacher for the coming school year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Snider left Wednesday for a carriage drive to Syracuse and return, where they will visit the state fair. They are expected home tomorrow.

Benny and Hazel Turner have returned from North Rose, where they visited their grandmother, Mrs. Briggs, and their uncle Thomas, to commence school.

Evangelist Bees will be in Sodus September 11th to begin a series of evangelist meetings. His methods are said to be directly opposite those employed by Rev. Geil.

Mrs. H. L. Gaylord and Mrs. S. L. Bennett visited Williamson friends Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Bennett will spend the next few days with friends near Troy.

A party of Sodus Point campers will trip the light fantastic at the Rice Dancing Pavilion this evening. Mr. Rice promises a profusion of ice-cream, lemonade and cake.

The handsome steel yacht "Cypion" of New York attracted considerable attention at Sodus Bay the fore part of last week. She is owned by O. F. Thomas of Lyons.

The promoters of the races that will be held next Thursday are putting forth every effort to make them successful. If the day is fair there should be a large crowd present.

Marion Mills, the guideless wonder, without doubt the most intelligent horse that the world has known, is dead. Death was the result of injuries received at the Cortland fair.

Mrs. P. P. Butts and Mrs. C. M. Tuttle left Monday night for Coldwater, Mich., where there will be a reunion of various relatives. They expect to be absent about ten days.

Mrs. Martin Lamb, formerly Miss Lena Benton of this village, and daughter, who have been visiting Sodus and Williamson friends for two weeks, returned to their home at Canastota yesterday.

Mrs. E. Rogers and Mrs. G. E. Danford of this village, Mrs. E. H. Landon of New York and Mrs. S. N. Keener of Newark were guests of Mrs. D. C. Hulett at Sprong's Bluff Monday and Tuesday.

James Debrine drove to Rochester Monday and returned Wednesday. He thoroughly enjoyed the trip, as it is one of his old stage routes, and many familiar scenes were brought back as he passed along.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the Methodist church on Sunday, September 11th, and the following day at 2 p. m. the presiding elder will hold the quarterly conference.

J. H. Pulver wishes us to state for the benefit of the public at large who are interested in the putting through of the new road, that the distance between his residence and that of Mrs. Moses is exactly eleven feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Robinson of Arcadia and Mrs. Harriette Vanderbilt and daughter Ella of Lyons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace, Mrs. Louisa Austin and Mrs. Wood in this village Tuesday.

The Misses Minnie and Pearl Smith are visiting in New York. Miss Minnie returns to Croton-on-Hudson September 8th, where she has been re-engaged to teach in the union school at that place for the present school year.

The Rochester papers, Monday chronicled the elopement of Miss Grace Barrett of Huron and Ernest Decker of Rose. Friends of the young people claim they were quietly married and that the affair did not savor of elopement.

The sixth and last scheduled race of the Sodus Bay Yacht Club was held Monday at Sodus Point. The Phantom won, the Henrietta came in second and the Pedro third. The races this year have been conducted with great credit to the club.

Mrs. D. A. McMillin of Ontario Centre, formerly Miss Satie DeGister of this village, has been visiting relatives in Sodus this week. Her future home will be at Grove City, Penn., where her husband has secured a position in an educational institution.

The Presbyterians are making arrangements to hold an organ recital this month, at which Prof. Stephens of Watertown will play. He will also bring a violinist with him. It is possible that Frank Conklin, the lamplighter, will assist. The date will undoubtedly be Friday, September 10th.

John Schuyler, Sr., while walking across a board that was stretched over the cellar entrance of the house, was precipitated to the bottom of the cellar Tuesday by the breaking of the board. A gash was cut in his head and his ear was badly torn.

The tenth semi-annual convention of the Knights of the S. F. I. will be held at Walworth on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 13th and 14th. The different lodges of the district are requested to present papers on various topics. The one assigned to the Sodus lodge is "Brotherhood."

Judge Cowles of Clyde, Judge Norton of Newark and G. S. Tinklepaugh of Palmyra were in Sodus Tuesday to referee the matter of erecting a new road from the Rude Addition to Main street, north, through the property of M. M. Kelly. The gentlemen reached a decision but it was not made public.

Col. A. S. Wood of Wolcott, department commander of the New York state G. A. R., has honored W. J. Cheetham of this town by appointing him an aide on his staff. Mr. Cheetham expects to accompany Col. Wood to the National G. A. R. encampment at Cincinnati, which meets in a few days.

The Wayne county Republican convention was held at Palmyra Saturday and re-nominated Marvin I. Greenwood for the Assembly. Mr. Greenwood's record during the past year was a clean one and his nomination for a second term voices the sentiment of a large majority of the citizens of Wayne county.

There will undoubtedly be a large crowd at the horse and bicycle races next Thursday afternoon, September 3rd. The entries indicate that the sport will be first class and the directors are doing their best to make the meet worthy of the town. The first event will be started at 1:30 p. m., sharp. Music by the Sodus Cornet Band.

The business men of Sodus, Williamson, Ontario, and other points along the line of the proposed Rochester and Sodus Bay electric road, will find their trade rapidly going to Rochester if the road is put in operation. It will mean a great loss of business to those places.—Sodus Record.—Lyons Press.—THE RECORDS never published this item.

Sodus is the only place in the county which has held a celebration to commemorate the close of the war with Spain. Last Friday afternoon and evening the citizens of that village gave themselves up to a general jollification and made the occasion noteworthy by the firing of cannon and an appropriate program of music and addresses.—Lyons Courant.

A letter from B. R. Pintler, who formerly taught our public school, tells us that he is at Lansing, Mich., where he is looking after the interests of E. B. Huxley of Ontario, who is evaporating apples on an extensive scale. In the letter Mr. Pintler told of a visit to the state capitol, where he saw many trophies of the battle field which were picked up by Michigan soldiers.

The story is told of a young widow—it seems, somehow, as if she lived at Red Creek—who put up a costly monument to her late husband and had inscribed upon it, "My grief is so great that I cannot bear it." A year or so later, however, she married again, and, feeling a little awkward about the inscription, she solved the difficulty by adding one word to it—"alone."—Wolcott News.

S. Osborne Scudder of Rome, who is connected with the United States Geological Survey, is spending a few weeks in Lyons, in the interest of his department. He is at work on a map of the state of New York, which the Government is having prepared. The work on this map has been in progress for several years and when finished will be the most comprehensive work of its kind extant.—Lyons Republican.

