CHRONIC DISEASES,

CURED WITH A FEW OPERATIONS

No Medicines Given. No Surgical Operations Performed.

BUT five to thirty minutes is required for inveterate cases of almost any curable Chronic Disease, and so certain is the effect that but few diseases require a second operation. Exception is also made to broken bones, dislocations, and curvature of the spine, and malformed tumors. Even these will be much benefited, always relieved of pain, and sometimes fully cured. Diseases which are most certain of being cured with one operation, are Weak Spines, Inflamed Eyes, Loss of Voice, Diseased Livers, Kidneys, Heart, Falling of the Womb, all kinds of Sexual Weakness, [illegible] Bronchitis, Diabetis, Nervous Debility, &c.

Paralysis is the most slow and uncertain with this treatment: sometimes, though rarely, patients have been fully restored with one operation, they are, however, always benefited. To many incurable and [illegible] acquainted with this method of treatment, as practiced by Dr. Newton, at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Boston and New York, that it seems unnecessary to state that many [illegible] are conquered, and what seems most wonderful, is, that diseases heretofore considered incurable, like Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumors, Weak Spines, and Fever Sores, are frequently cured with one operation. [illegible] however, for those who come from a distance to have a second.

Since my residence in Syracuse, commencing July 17, 1862, I have registered [illegible] operations [illegible] the satisfaction of invalids, I will give the names of a few who have been cured by me within that time.

Mr. Charles [illegible], Elbridge, N. Y.—Fractured Ligament (four months) unable to walk, except on crutches—Made to walk as well as without crutches in one operation, now able to walk as well as any one. Can be referred to.—Treated July 28, 1862.

Miss Margaret Higgins, Syracuse, N. Y. Blind nine years. Treated July [illegible].—Perfectly restored in ten minutes.

Mr. J. A. Warner, Syracuse, N. Y.—Complete nervous prostration. Perfectly restored. Can be referred to.

Wm. O'Donnell, Syracuse, N. Y.—Fever Sores two years—Treated by several Physicians in the city without effect. Perfectly cured.

Truman Rommer, Belisle, N. Y.—Rheumatism, hardly able to walk. Cured in one operation. Treated July 29, 1862. Now at work harvesting.

Mr. John [illegible], Seneca County, N. Y.—Treated July 18, 1862. Contracted limb, stiff knee joint four years; unable to walk without canes or crutches, and given up by physicians. Restored. Left canes and walked away.

Mr. P. Archibald, Syracuse, N. Y.—Rheumatism two years. Perfectly cured in one operation. Treated July [illegible].

Mrs. Welcome Sonnet, Colliday, N. Y.—Fever sore, great suffering for years; treated by several physicians without benefit. Perfectly cured with four operations—Treated July [illegible].

Mr. M. [illegible], N. Y.—Enlarged ankle joints; very painful. Effects of mercury. Cured with two operations. Treated July 28, 1862.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, Syracuse, N. Y.—Bed ridden, spinal disease, general weakness—unable to walk. Brought into my operating room in arms. In twenty minutes discharged her carriage and walked away. Physicians say this is the greatest cure on record. Treated July 28th, 1862.

Mrs. Eloria A. Belloc, Syracuse, N. Y.—Ovarian Tumor and Prolapsus Uteri—Perfectly cured. Treated August 5.

Mr. M. Rodman, Elbridge, N. Y.—Sciatica and Spinal Disease thirty years. He says it is equal to a new life.—Mr. R. is one of the oldest and best farmers in the State, and can be referred to. Treated August 6, 1862.

Mrs. Julia S. Aldrich, Centreville, Cayuga Co., N. Y.—Prolapsus Uteri and Internal Ulcers—perfectly cured. Treated July 8, 1862.

Mr. John Whiting, Geddes, N. Y.—Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Gravel. Treated September 2, 1862.

Mrs. Joseph Hatchett, Phoenix, N. Y.—Heart Disease and Nervous Debility. Can be referred to. Treated September 1, 1862.

Mr. John Scoles, Clay, N. Y.—Chronic Inflammation of Kidneys and Bladder. Perfectly cured. Treated September 1, 1862.

Mr. Augustin Shew, Brewerton, N. Y.—Hip disease nineteen years; used crutch and cane fourteen years. Left crutch and walked away, with one operation. Treated August 29, 1862.

Miss Ellen McGraw, "Munger House," Oswego, N. Y.—Goiter. Greatly reduced with three operations. Treated Sept. [illegible].

Miss Hester Tuller, Marcus, N. Y.—Paralyzed Optic Nerve. Made to see perfectly clear and distinct with two operations. Treated Sept. 22, 1862.

TERMS FOR TREATMENT always reasonable, according to the means of the patient. Those persons who cannot afford to pay, are cordially invited "without money and without price."

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the moneys secured to be paid by a certain indenture of mortgage, bearing date the 31st day of July, A. D. 1857, made, executed, and delivered by Jacob [illegible] of Rome, Oneida county, State of New York, to [illegible] of Utica, in said county and State, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Oneida county on the 1st day of August, A. D. 1857, at [illegible] o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in book No. 107 of mortgages, pages [illegible], &c., and whereas there is claimed to be due and payable on said mortgage at the first publication of this notice, the sum of seven hundred and seventy [illegible] dollars and forty-one cents, and that no suit or proceeding at law has been commenced to recover the whole or any part of said sum as due and payable as aforesaid. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of a power of sale contained in said mortgage, and of the statute in such case made and provided, the premises described in said mortgage as [illegible]

[illegible] half of that certain piece or parcel of land described in a deed given by Daniel L. Boardman by [illegible] and wife, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Oneida county, in book No. 138 of deeds, pages 12, as follows:

Also, that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the town of Verona and county of Oneida, being part of lot No. [illegible] in the late Oneida Reservation, [illegible] the canal [illegible] side of said lot of sufficient width to contain fifty acres, and running the whole length of the said lot, agreeably to the survey of the same made by Joseph Perkins for [illegible] Gold and Thomas Hawley, said piece [illegible] conveyed to [illegible] in fifty five acres. [illegible]

Also, all that equal one undivided half part of all that [illegible] lot No. [illegible] in the [illegible] of Cox's Patent, lying south of the Erie Canal, the whole lot containing one hundred and seventeen and 38-100 acres of land, be the same more or less.

Also, all that piece or parcel of land in Rome, Oneida county, and described as follows, viz: The westerly half of lot number [illegible] in the Lawrence tract in [illegible] Patent [illegible] to be taken off [illegible] drawn from the centre of the northerly side of the lot to the centre of the southerly side [illegible] same part of the [illegible] deeded by O. B. [illegible] and wife to [illegible]

[illegible] will be sold at public auction at the Central Hotel, Genesee street, Utica, on the 24th day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

Dated June 26, 1862. [illegible], Mortgagee.

[illegible], Attorney.

The sale of the above described mortgaged premises is postponed to the 24th day of October instant at the same place and time of day.

RELIGIOUS AND ECCLESIASTICAL.

The attention of churchmen and others have been interestedly turned, for some days past, to the proceedings of the Episcopal Triennial Convention, in session in New York, with reference to the state of the country and the Episcopal Church South. A committee of nine reported resolutions, which occasioned a protracted, warm and very able discussion. Various amendments and substitutes were offered, but finally rejected, and on Wednesday evening the original resolutions reported by the committee were adopted by a decisive vote of thirteen yeas, seven nays; lay vote, eleven yeas, four nays. They resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, By the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies of this stated Triennial Convention, That assembling, as we have been called to do, at a period of great national peril and deplorable civil convulsion, it is meet and proper that we should call to mind, distinctly and publicly, that the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States hath ever held and taught, in the language of one of its articles of religion, that "it is the duty of all men who are professors of the Gospel to pay respectful obedience to the civil authority, regularly and legitimately constituted;" and hath accordingly incorporated into its liturgy "a prayer for the President of the United States and all in civil authority," and a "prayer for the Congress of the United States, to be used during the session;" and hath bound all orders of its ministry to the faithful and constant observance, in letter and spirit, of these and all other parts of its prescribed ritual.

Resolved, That we can not be wholly blind to the course which has been pursued, in their ecclesiastical as well as in their civil relations, since this convention last met in harmony and love, by great numbers of the ministers and members of this church within certain States of our Union which have arrayed themselves in open and armed resistance to the regularly constituted government of our country; and that while, in a spirit of Christian forbearance, we refrain from employing towards them any terms of condemnation or reproach, and would rather bow in humiliation before our common Father in Heaven for the sins which have brought His judgment on our land, we yet feel bound to declare our solemn sense of the deep and grievous wrong which they have inflicted on the great Christian communion which this convention represents, as well as on the country within which it has been so happily and harmoniously established, should they persevere in striving to rend asunder those civil and religious bonds which have so long held us together in peace, unity and concord.

Resolved, That while, as individuals and citizens, we acknowledge our whole duty in sustaining and defending our country in the great struggle in which it is engaged, we are only at liberty, as deputies to this council of a church which has ever renounced all political association and action, to pledge to the national government—as we now do—the earnest and devout prayers of all, that its efforts may be so guided by wisdom and replenished by strength, that they may be crowned with speedy and complete success, to the glory of God and the restoration of our beloved Union.

Resolved, That if, in the judgment of the bishops, any other forms of occasional prayer than those already set forth, shall seem desirable and appropriate—whether for our convention or church, be our country, for her rulers or our defenders, or for the sick and wounded and dying of our army and navy and volunteers, we shall gladly receive them and fervently use them.

—Prof. Plumer, of Western Theological Seminary, (Old School Presbyterian,) at Alleghany City, and pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of the place, has been compelled by public opinion to resign both his professorship and pastorate, in consequence of his sympathy with the rebellion. The Trustees of the Seminary accepted his resignation unanimously. His church were willing to retain him, but the Presbytery would not permit. Four of the students of the Seminary withdrew when his resignation was accepted.

—Nearly all the European State Churches have offshoots in our Western States, which are in thriving condition. The most of these Churches are strongly anti-slavery, and earnest supporters of the war. The Slave States contain but a small number of Churches of European immigrants, and most of them were known to remain Unionists after the outbreak of the rebellion.

—The First Baptist Church in New Haven, Rev. Dr. Phelps, pastor, has fifty of its members in the army. About the same number of the congregation have also enlisted.

—William B. Eastman and Albert C. Rollins were ordained by the Fourth Presbytery of New York on Sunday evening last, as Evangelists to the army. The charge was delivered by Prof. Henry B. Smith, D.D., in which he characterized the President's Emancipation Proclamation as the most momentous, timely and inspiring proclamation ever issued.

—At the regular monthly meeting of the American Foreign Bible Society, held last week, it was voted that one thousand five hundred dollars be sent to Rev. Cephas Bennett, of Rangoon, India, and five hundred dollars to Rev. E. C. Lord, of Ningpo, China, for printing and circulating the Scriptures in the Burman and Chinese languages. The Board also voted a large number of Scriptures to the army, in answer to numerous applications from that source—and decided to employ for a season one of their late colporteurs to visit as far as possible the hospitals and other stations in and around New York, with a view to seek out and supply all soldiers not in possession of God's word with the same.

—Rev. H. W. Read, who has Been a prisoner in rebeldom for three months past, was released on the 25th ult.

—The issues from the American Bible House for the month of September were one hundred and eighty-six thousand volumes, and it is probable that the issues of October will be as large.

—The place of Grand Rabbi of the Synagogue has been offered by the Jews of Mannheim to M. Jancow, the eminent preacher of Warsaw, who was some time ago arrested and exiled for his adherence to the Polish national party, but was pardoned at the beginning of September.

—The Presbyterian says that the fears entertained for the safety of Dr. Breckinridge of Kentucky, are groundless. Though surrounded by rebels he is unmolested, except that his house has been appropriated by the Confederates for a military hospital.

—French papers state that an edict has just been published in China recommending to the people the practice of full religious toleration. In this edict the Imperial Government has for some time been able to secure the freedom of religious worship, and, it is believed, will seek to put a stop to the religious persecutions throughout the empire.

—Nearly all the Protestant religious papers in the North heartily endorse the President's Proclamation.

—Rev. Dr. Hawks, of New York, and Rev. William Stevens Perry, of Maine, have gathered choice and voluminous materials for a history of the American Episcopal Church, and have applied to the General Convention for aid in preparing the work for publication in suitable form, for general distribution among churchmen. The publication was begun by Bishop White. It is decided to prepare the history in the form of a serial, and the General Convention authorized the Secretary to receive subscriptions during its sessions. The character of the materials on hand is stated as follows:

"They are the results of diligent inquiry and research among the old church families for original matter relating to the earliest annals of the Church—the materials for history gathered from the archives of Lambeth and Fulham, and the state paper office in London, the hundred and unpublished letters of the early missionaries of the Venerable Society for the propagation of the Gospel in foreign parts, narrating, with the freshness and authority of contemporaries, not only the religious condition of the English colonies, from the frontiers of Maine to the borders of the Spanish settlements at the extreme South, but also abounding in illustrations of local manners, statistics and history; the various rare and costly early printed narratives, sermons, reports, broadsides and controversial publications of those who were foremost both in laying the foundations of the Church, and in the inauguration of a new republic of letters in the wilds of America; the accumulated correspondence of the early American bishops, and the gatherings of fragmentary, and often incidental allusions, the Church's progress or decline, and giving from other and widely differing standpoints the testimony of foes as well as of friends.

—A civil tribunal in France has made the important decision that ex-Romish Priests may not marry. In the course of the argument, the prosecuting attorney remarked: "There is no Catholic religion without confession, and confession is not possible without the obligation of celibacy on the part of the priests." Which is supposed to mean that if the priests should marry, their wives would extract from them the secrets committed to them by the ladies of the parish.

—The Illinois Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, at its meeting of Oct. 2d, in St. Louis,

Resolved, That this Presbytery does most cordially indorse the proclamation of general emancipation, recently issued by the President of the United States, and declare that it would have given us unfeigned satisfaction if it had been made unconditional and universal.

—The following is a prayer of one of the New England Puritans in the days of the revolution:

Oh Lord! we view with terror the approach of the enemies of Thy holy religion. Wilt Thou send storm and tempest to toss them upon the sea and to overwhelm them upon the mighty deep, or to scatter them to the uttermost parts of the earth. But, peradventure, should any escape Thy vengeance, collect them together, again, O Lord! as in the hollow of Thy hand, and let Thy lightnings play upon them! We beseech Thee, moreover, that Thou do gird up the loins of these Thy servants, who are going forth to fight Thy Battles. Make them strong men, that one shall chase a thousand, and two shall put ten thousand to flight." Hold before them the shield with which Thou was wont in the old time to protect Thy chosen people. Give them swift feet that they may pursue their enemies, and swords terrible as that of Thy Destroying Angel, that they may cleave them down when they have overtaken them. Preserve these servants of Thine, Almighty God! and bring them once more to their homes and friends, if Thou canst do it consistently with Thine high purposes. If, on the other hand, Thou hast decreed that they shall die in battle, let Thy Spirit be present with them and breathe upon them, that they may go up as a sweet sacrifice into the Courts of Thy Temple, where are habitations prepared for them from the foundations of the world.

AGRICULTURAL.

SMALL POX AMONG SHEEP IN ENGLAND.—Prof. Simonds, an eminent Veterinary Surgeon, in England, has discovered the small pox in some of the flocks at Wiltshire, England. It is the second time it has appeared in England; but it is, according to the London Field, well known among the flocks of the continent. It was imported into England in 1847, with some Spanish Merino sheep, and wherever they went they carried the disease with them. Prof. Simonds, found the animals in Wiltshire in various stages of the disorder; some few had passed through the worst period, and might be pronounced convalescent, but of those attacked many died daily under the most disgusting circumstances, their bodies presenting a mass of malignant ulcers, and emitting a fearful stench. Mr. Simonds at once suggested inoculation of the remaining portion of the flock as the only means of preventing its almost total annihilation, and it remains to be seen what will be the result of the remedy suggested.

It seems that this flock had been noted for its health, had no contact with other flocks, and had received no accession to its numbers other than natural increase; and yet suddenly this malignant disease appears. It is asserted, however, that this disease, while highly contagious among sheep, cannot be communicated to other animals—not even to goats—neither to the human race.

HOW TO PREVENT FROSTS IN EARLY AUTUMN.—We see it asserted that "a farmer in Savoy, Mass., has a novel way of driving off the frost from his cornfields. He places a huge tin pan in the center of the field and keeps a fire in it nights." Doubtless the same man would punch to musquitoes to prevent them from biting. But farmers may prevent the havoc of early frost in autumn and late frosts in spring in the own fields, by under draining the land. A Western editor asserts that he has seen corn as green as in mid-summer, on drained land, after a hard frost which had killed the corn on an adjoining field, dead. Mole drains had elevated the temperature of the soil, prevented evaporation thereby elevating the temperature of the atmosphere near the surface, above the frost line. Digging ditches increases the altitude of the surface so far as frost is concerned.

TO CURE KICKING COWS.—It is unpleasant at this season of the year, if you milk out of doors, to be kicked over in the mud. Here are hints the irritable farmer, especially, will do well to observe.

1. Never allow the slightest degree of heat or passion, or departure from self control.

2. Never strike the animal but once at a time—no matter what the provocation may be—a single sharp cut with a switch (kept under the left arm) excites fear and alarm—two or more strokes produce a reaction, and cause rage but not fear.

3. Adhere faithfully to the principles of cause and effect, and the animal will quickly understand these principles, if the single alarming stroke always instantaneously follows every attempt to kick.

4. Treat the animal in a firm, soothing, gentle manner at all times—only let the blow always come quickly after every kick, whether it be merely an abortive attempt, or the whole pail of milk is upset—the intention of the animal is the same.

I do not wonder that so many fine cows are spoiled that are treated according to passion and caprice, and not according to principle nor rule. If a cow kicks maliciously, but happens to hit no one, the milker takes no notice of it; if a more accidental move of the foot overturns a pail of milk, a shower of furious blows follows, and it becomes impossible for any brute to know, from such irregular treatment, what connection there is between the punishment and the offence.

BREEDING FROM YOUNG SOWS.—The Maine Farmer says: "It is quite common to breed from young sows, say fall pigs, to come in with a litter of pigs when one year old, a practice to be utterly condemned, and if continued in the same family for a few generations of the swine, they will be found to dwindle down from three to four hundred, down to two or three hundred. It is much better to keep the sow three or four years, or even much longer.—They have been kept some fifteen years to advantage. The hog is some years in his natural state in maturing. It is a fact well known, at least to every Irishman, in the 'ould' country, that pigs from old sows will grow into hogs some thirty or forty pounds heavier than those from young ones."

A RASH SUGGESTION.—The Richmond Inquirer, in reply to a letter, has the following suggestions as to measures for evading the force of the emancipation proclamation:

The communication signed "Observer" in to-day's Inquirer, upon the proclamation of Lincoln, deserves attention; perhaps some action compulsory upon the people by the people may be necessary. It is the imperative interest of every slave owner living along the southern borders of the Confederacy, and adjacent to, our navigable water courses, to immediately transfer his slaves to some portion of the interior behind the protection of our army. But the food necessary to subsist them is one great difficulty in the way of such transfer. To obviate this our government should offer employment for slave labor to those farmers from the border and water courses, which will enable them to support their slaves in the interior. Transportation is another difficulty which prevents this removal. This might, to a very great extent, be obviated if the government would permit its wagons, returning empty from our army, to aid the people in removing their effects. Whatever is done in this matter should be undertaken immediately, as delay may entirely defeat the object, and cause the loss of millions of dollars to our cause. The proclamation of Lincoln is a notice to quit, served upon the border people of the Confederacy, and should be immediately acted upon. Whether the government acts or not, we hope the people will take warning, and hasten to remove every slave from the border to the interior.

Testimonial Letters.

[Geo. H. Mallory, Esq., New York, to Clarke Rice, Esq., Watertown.]

BRANDRETH HOUSE, N. Y., June 19, 1862.

Clarke Rice, Esq.:—Dear Sir:—I have just heard from my friend, Doct. S. S. Fitch, of 714 Broadway, that he proposes to visit Watertown for a few days. I have long and intimately acquainted with Dr. Fitch. He cured me of a bad cough, expectoration, &c., which had affected me 18 months. I have sent many invalids to him suffering with sore throats, bleeding lungs, heart troubles, dyspepsia, &c., and have in every case witnessed relief, and in many cases most astonishing cures. I have witnessed Dr. Fitch's immense practice and great success for many years, until I am forced to believe that he is one of the first of all living physicians. He leaves home awhile for the benefit of country air. Your citizens will have a rare opportunity of profiting by his great science and experience. You can recommend him to your friends with the most perfect confidence.

Please accept my affectionate regards,
(Signed,) GEO. H. MALLORY.

[Letter from John Gordon, Esq., of Ottawa, C. W.]

AYLMER, Ottawa, C. W., October 27, 1859.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—Two years ago I called on you as the bearer of a letter citing the case of Mrs. Mary Gordon, the wife of my brother, who was then a very distressed and helpless invalid. She had some two months previously been severely sick with a violent attack of erysipelas, which had confined her to the bed for some weeks, and which left her much diseased. She was confined to her house, and could not walk across the floor without distance. Her whole system seemed to be poisoned. She had great distress, dizziness, and a system of fullness in the head, pain in the chest and sides between the shoulders and under the shoulder blades, with a distressing, sinking feeling at the pit of the stomach, with cold chills running down the back and limbs. She had had falling of the womb for seventeen years, which was constantly growing worse. The pain in her head was agonizing, and she and her friends feared at times it would drive her crazy. She availed herself of all the medical advantages which this part of the country affords, but without relief. You prescribed for her and sent her remedies, abdominal supporter and braces, with medicines. They have cured her; she is completely restored to her health, and can now walk twenty miles, if need be. Her case has been considered very remarkable by our neighborhood, and has secured the gratitude of herself, her husband, and friends. Your success in this case has induced many invalids in this vicinity to apply to you with various complaints, and almost uniformly they have been helped. Some of your cures in these cases have been wonderful. I cannot do less than recommend the sick everywhere to avail themselves of your admirable treatment, confident as I am that it is best adapted of any that is practiced to restore the invalid to health. Among those who have used your remedies with benefit, I may mention Miss Ewing [illegible], whose left lung her doctor here said was gone, she is well; also Mrs. Chamberline, and Mr. James Reid. Mr. Reid was far gone in consumption, and is now very much improved. I could name others, but forbear. Trusting that your remedies may be effectual in curing others.

I am respectfully yours, JOHN GORDON,
High Constable, District Ottawa, C. W.

[Letter from Mrs. E. K. Clement, of Pa.]

[illegible], Monroe Co., Pa., February 22, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—It will be three years this winter since I called to see you. I was then pronounced in the last stage of the heart disease by the physicians of this place. They said there was no cure for me. I was then induced by the solicitation of my husband to go and see you, yet with but very little hope of being cured. You gave me remedies, &c., which I took, and followed your directions to the letter; and in six months time I could say, "I am well!" I could sleep as correctly as a little babe, and on my left side as well as my right, which I could not do for years previous.

Since my cure of the heart disease, many have been induced to try you, and several more are going to see you this spring. Our doctors must and do acknowledge that you can cure that disease.

Yours truly,
ELIZABETH K. CLEMENT.

[Letter from John Knowles, of Virginia.]

NORFOLK, Va., April 11, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I state to you that the remedies you have prescribed for me have had a wonderful effect already. I feel as if I were a new man. I have no palpitation [illegible] I have only had that throbbing at the pit of my stomach twice since I commenced taking your medicines. I will be very thankful to you if you will send me some more of your Heart Corrector and some pills, as I am entirely out. With heartfelt gratitude for the good you have done me, I am,

Yours truly, JOHN KNOWLES.

[Letter from the Hon. John Kelly M. C. from New York City.]

NEW YORK, November 26, 1857.

Dr. Samuel S. Fitch:—My Dear Sir:—Supposing that others afflicted as I have been, may be benefited by the knowledge and use of your remedies and treatment, I am induced to write you this communication. You may make any use of it you deem proper. For a number of years I have been afflicted with what I supposed to be disease of the heart. At times I have had great distress in the region of the heart and left side, occasionally violent palpitation and fluttering of the heart; the circulation of the blood seemed to be slow and obstructed in some way; my digestion was very imperfect. I was despondent and depressed; was troubled with headache very much and had turns of fainting, faint prostrate feeling, and it was distressing, and alarmed me. Having tried numerous remedies, as recommended by physicians, and without any apparent benefit, I felt myself hopeless of obtaining relief, when I was advised by a friend of mine to call upon you, as he felt confident that you would be able to relieve me. I am glad to inform you that his predictions have been fully verified.—The medicines and treatment you prescribed for my case have had a well nigh miraculous effect upon my system.—I am now nearly restored to my usual good health, and by the aid of your remedies, and the help of a kind Providence, I hope finally to be completely so. I would most certainly recommend your treatment to any who may be afflicted as I have been.

Very truly yours, JOHN KELLY, M. C.

[Mr. Kelly is well—June, 1862.]

[Letter from Mary J. Winship, Pennsylvania.]

DAN, [illegible], Bucks Co., Pa., July 5, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—It is with great pleasure that I write to inform you concerning my health. Little did I think, when I wrote to you, that I would ever enjoy as good health as I now do. I cannot express the gratitude I feel to you, with the blessing of my Heavenly Father, for the benefit I derived from your medicine. My health is better now than it has been these five years. My kind husband has spent a great deal of his hard earned money for the benefit of my health, but I found little relief until I commenced to use your remedies. I have never felt better than I do now. I have no pain in my side until I over exert myself. My bowels are more regular than they have been for the past five years. I am in all respects wonderfully improved.

Yours, with many thanks, MARY J. WINSHIP.

[Letter from Mrs. A. C. Hiersdot c. Michigan.]

SAGINAW, Saginaw Co., Mich., May 17, 1862.

Dr. Samuel S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—I feel that I owe you a debt of gratitude for the degree of health that I now enjoy. When I began to take your medicine, I was confined to my bed, and had a bad cough, and raised much. My physicians told me that my lungs were seriously affected. I was very much emaciated, had severe fevers and chills daily, and most profuse night-sweats. My strength was so far gone, that it was with difficulty that I could turn my head on my pillow. My friends did not think I could survive long. I procured your Pulmonary Balsam, which I began to take according to directions, and wrote you for advice, which you kindly gave. My health is so, that I can walk half a mile without much apparent fatigue. I have no cough, do not raise any, and suffer very little pain. With most heartfelt thanks for your kind advice, and the benefit I have received, I am,

Respectfully yours, MRS. A. C. HIERSDOT.

[Asthma Cured—Letter from Thomas Parker.]

WILMINGTON, Pa., February 6, 1862.

Dr. Samuel S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—I am now entirely cured of the asthma. I have every reason to believe that, but for your remedies, I should now have been in my grave.

I am, with the sincerest gratitude,
Yours very truly, THOMAS PARKER.

[A son of the Rev. William Ruger, cured of Scrofula.]

NEW YORK, February 4, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—Dear Sir:—The joy I feel in being able to report to you the restoration of my son's health can be understood only by a person who has seen a beloved child rescued from what he has regarded as inevitable death. You will call to mind, perhaps, what his state was when I first consulted you. His disease was scrofula, in a most aggravated form. Large lumps or swellings had made their appearance in the neck; he was much emaciated, strength gone, looked pale and sickly; appetite capricious, generally poor. An abscess appeared to be gathering just above the left hip, and there was a perceptible distortion of the spine just between the shoulders. After resorting to the best medical aid I could command for him, with little or no benefit, I concluded that my son could not be cured. It was a gloomy hour when this conviction settled down on my mind. By the advice of a friend I applied to you, about one year ago, and have been pursuing your treatment since, and with the most satisfactory. I may say wonderful result. My son appears to be well. The swellings have disappeared; he has full average strength, flesh and appetite, and his spine is fast recovering its normal shape. Your remedies are all excellent; but I attribute his cure particularly to the PULMONARY CORRECTOR. This is really a remarkable medicine, and I think it your duty to make it known as widely as possible that you have such a remedy.

Respectfully yours, WM. RUGER.

[Obstinate Jaundice Cured.]

CHICAGO, Ill., March 16, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch:—[illegible] in a very bilious place, I have suffered long and terribly from the jaundice. My physician here gave me calomel for it till I could not take any more. I was at times better, and then the miserable disease would come on again worse than ever. One of your patients, living at Dixon, in our State, was at my house last fall, and finding me so black almost as a negro, and hardly able to be out of my bed with jaundice, said, "Why don't you apply to Samuel S. Fitch, of New York? I know he will cure you." I did so, as you know, in October last, and from that moment you cured me. Within the first week I began to improve, and before I had taken what you sent me I was as well as I ever was in my life. [illegible] as a cure. This part of the country is full of bilious diseases. It can keep you, let me know. You've done a great work for me, and I am much obliged to you.

Yours gratefully, SAMUEL W. POWER.

[Bleeding Lungs Cured—Letter from Rev. C. Webster.]

GALENA, Ill., April 16, 1862.

Dr. S. S. Fitch, M. D., New York. Respected Sir:—I have been nearly well your patient, despaired of by friends and relatives. I can not but say my natural savior, and now that I want a little advice before I write to whom I can go as confidently as to you. It was for bleeding lungs I was under your treatment, and from the grave's edge, I am now [illegible] to the duties of [illegible] gospel in the M. E. Church in this country. Your advice and encouragement was worth all things. Yours truly,

C. W. WEBSTER, A. M.
