Work of a Sneak Thief.

Last Friday about six o'clock in the evening a stranger visited the Eagle hotel on Main street and applied for lodging. He was shown to a room and remained over night, leaving Saturday morning after the regular boarders had gone out. Before leaving he entered the room occupied by Jacob Anckley and took from the pocket of a vest a gold watch, filled cases; owned by Mr. Anckley, and valued at $35. The watch was attached to a chain, which with a gold initial ring in another pocket was left behind. Mr. Anckley did not discover his loss until evening. There is no clue to the thief, as he did not register.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Cook held an inquest Saturday in the case of Garrett, the man who was found dead near the New York Central freight house Friday afternoon. John Longley, Philip Swald, Frank Williams, Frank Bland and Dr. Deecke were sworn as witnesses, and the jury rendered a verdict that death was caused by acute pneumonia induced by alcoholism. The body was buried at Forest Hill yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Long's Fiasco.

Rev. G. W. Long was to have conducted services at Harugari hall yesterday morning, but the meeting was not held. In the evening the preacher and a few of his followers gathered at Harugari hall, but entrance could not be had as the door was locked. A room in the city hall was secured and a service held. Rev. Mr. Long preached from Gen. iii:24, "And he drove out the man."

At Jacobs' Opera House.

"The Midnight Alarm" was played in Jacobs' opera house Saturday afternoon and evening.

Next Wednesday night the attraction at the opera house will be Robert Mantell in the romantic drama "Monbars."

Thursday evening "The Burglar" will visit the opera house, and Friday and Saturday "A Pair of Kids" will be introduced.

Business.

W. R. Tygart, who recently purchased the saloon and bottling business of J. A. Curry, at the corner of Broad and John streets, is thoroughly remodeling the stores, and when the improvements are completed his establishment will be second to none in that line of business in the city.

A Laughing Event.

The coming engagement of Ezra Kendall in the "Pair of Kids" at the opera house next Friday and Saturday, promises to be the laughing event of the season. Everyone is anxious to see how Kendall manipulates the sticky fly paper and how he runs that mile in "3:06" on the revolving treadmill. There is a burlesque restaurant scene in the "Kids" which is said to be one continuous string of funny burlesq, comical pantomime tricks and sleight of hand antics. Kendall in his character of the old "Jay" of course runs the restaurant.

THIRD DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

Saturday's Harmonious Convention in Trenton—Winfield S. Porter of Western Nominated for Member of Assembly.

The republican assembly convention for the third district of Oneida county was held in the town hall, Trenton village, Saturday. Everything passed off most harmoniously and every one was in the best of spirits. The attendance was large. Many local politicians of the town were present and among those from out of town were: Dr. N. C. Scudder, Rome; Davis, B. A. Capron, Bonnville; Hon. E. J. Evans, Alder Creek; Hon. J. C. Davies, Hon. Russel S. Johnson, Camden; Hon. T. J. Owens, David Price, Steuben; F. X. Salzman, Forestport; John M. Edgerton, Utica; George E. Prichard, School Commissioner McCullough, Remsen.

T. J. Lewis, chairman of the district committee, called the convention to order at 12:15 P. M., and named ex-Sheriff F. G. Weaver of Deerfield for chairman; T. A. Farnsworth, Camden, and L. G. Waufal, Trenton, secretaries, all of whom were promptly elected and took the oath of office before Hon. J. C. Davies.

On motion of C. V. Schram, the list of towns was called and the delegates handed in their credentials, after which a recess was taken. It was 2 P. M. before Chairman Weaver used the gavel, and the following delegates on the corrected list answered to their names:

Annsville, J. J. White, Hiram Hillman, John Ditrick; Ava, Fred Kroup, Oliver Keyes, William Gookings; Camden, T. A. Farnsworth, L. C. Ball, F. W. Osborne; Boonville, L. W. Fiske, A. C. Reddy, E. Sanford; Deerfield, F. G. Weaver, Edward C. Davis, A. Grant Blue; Florence, Lafayette Sanford, Charles Hulbert, Ellsworth Paddock; Floyd, Frank J. Miller, T. T. Davis, Thomas G. Williams; Forestport, Jerry O'Brien, G. M. Stuhlor, George Farley; Lee, R. Bathrick, C. Wyman, J. Houser; Marcy, John R. Pugh, Thomas E. Roberts, David T. Williams; Remsen, Owen S. Evans, Thomas W. V. Schramm; second ward, Robert Dodd, Mathias Zimmerman, Theodore B. Davis; Vienna, James L. Armstrong, Dexter E. Nichols, Charles T. Nichols; Western, J. C. Davis, E. O. Kingsbury, E. A. Hall.

On motion of T. A. Farnsworth of Camden, the following district committee was unanimously elected: T. J. Lewis, Trenton; George E. Hallenbeck, Lee; F. G. Weaver, Deerfield; C. Hulbert, Florence; Charles E. Owens, Steuben; Charles Nichols, Vienna; D. C. Jones, Utica.

On call of the list of towns the names of the following candidates were named for member of assembly: W. W. Roberts, Boonville, by A. C. Reddy; George E. Prichard of Remsen by Owen S. Evans; David Price of Steuben, by Charles E. Owens, and C. W. Porter of Western by E. O. Kingsbury.

L. W. Fiske of Boonville very humorously seconded the nomination of Mr. Roberts.

On motion of Robert Dodd, two informal ballots were taken, resulting as follows:

	PORTER.	ROBERTS.	PRICE.	PRICHARD.
1st	23	14	3	11
2d	29	11	3	8

Hon. J. C. Davies moved that the convention proceed to a formal ballot.

Mr. Dodd moved as an amendment that nomination of Mr. Porter be made unanimous. The amendment was lost by a vote of 45 and 6. The original motion then prevailed and the formal ballot resulted as follows:

PORTER.	ROBERTS.	PRICHARD.
38	6	7

The nomination of Mr. Porter was made unanimous on motion of O. S. Evans of Remsen.

John R. Pugh and L. W. Fiske were appointed a committee to inform Mr. Porter of his nomination and conduct him before the convention. Mr. Porter accepted the nomination in a graceful speech.

At 3 P. M. the convention adjourned with the satisfaction that a farmer had again been chosen to represent the rural district of Oneida county.

C. Winfield Porter, the nominee, was born in the town of Western, about 38 years ago, and has always lived there. He obtained his early education in the town schools, and subsequently graduated from Whitestown seminary and Syracuse university. He is a dairy farmer, and with his father conducts a cheese factory in Western. He is highly esteemed among his fellow townsmen, and has always been a staunch republican. Twice before has he sought the nomination, being defeated both times by Russel S. Johnson of Camden.

Waterville People Interested.

The Atlanta State, Town and Country contains an article on the prosperous town of Calhoun, Ga., in which it says among other things:

"Calhoun has a future to it. Several years ago it won distinction by putting up the finest court house in the whole judicial circuit, without the issuing of a bond or the incurring of any debt. It is the county site of Gordon, one of the most fertile and prosperous counties in the state, and as it has rail roads and has splendid water power. The land produces prolific crops in the great staples, and is finely adapted to fruit culture.

A notable movement of progress is the organization of a needed institution, the bank of Calhoun. It has handsome quarters, located in a brick building of two stories. The officers and directory are D. H. Livermore, president; B. G. Boaz, vice president; H. F. Ferguson, J. B. Gordon, J. M. Harlan, N. J. Boaz, D. H. Livermore of Calhoun and Daniel Livermore of Sangerfield, N. Y., directors. These are all strong men, and give character to the bank. The capital of the bank will be increased at an early day, as the people value its usefulness and profitableness to both the town and its stockholders. Our readers will observe that Calhoun has secured a valuable new citizen in D. H. Livermore, formerly of Waterville, N. Y., president of the bank. He is a young man of progressive ideas, and we found him full of desire to advance the industrial and commercial interests of the town. This is the kind of immigration that Georgia needs. Here and there they are dropping into our midst, and they are worth a dozen to any of the ordinary class. In this connection we may say that Mr. Livermore has nearly finished a handsome two story residence at a cost of between three and four thousand dollars."

Newspaper Changes.

The office of the Utica Sunday Tribune will be removed early next winter to the building now occupied by the Press, which company it is expected will by that time be located in its new quarters on Main street. The Tribune has sold its presses and type to the proprietors of the Daily News, the new paper soon to be published in Oneida, and has purchased the entire plant of the Press, which will have a new outfit.

THE HIGHLAND CHAPEL.

Its Formal Dedication Yesterday—Historical Statement—An Abstract of Rev. Dr. Bachman's Dedicatory Sermon.

The Highland chapel on Mathews avenue was dedicated yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very large, many being obliged to stand thro'out the services. The interior of the church was tastefully adorned with flowers and grasses, and presented an inviting appearance. Rev. Dr. Bachman opened the service with an invocation, after which the choir of the church [illegible] an anthem. Rev. F. W. Townsend read a passage from the scriptures, and then, after an anthem by the congregation, W. S. Taylor, superintendent of the Sunday school, read a historical and financial statement, which was as follows:

A little more than four months ago, at this very hour, we laid the corner stone of the Highland chapel in prayer and song. To-day we realize the consummation of our cherished hopes as we meet within its finished walls to dedicate to the service of God this beautiful edifice, erected by the gifts of generous friends. It is appropriate that we render devout thanksgiving and gratitude to our Heavenly Father as we enter upon such a service. Surely his hand has guided and led us, and brought us to this glad hour. Our little school, numbering each week between eighty and one hundred scholars, has been sustained in interest, amid many inconveniences, by the hope that our chapel was week by week nearing completion. While devout thanksgiving to God should occupy the first place in our hearts, we can not but recognize and appreciate the great good that has been accomplished by Christian friends in carrying forward this work. But for the suggestion of the pastor of the First church, a suggestion inspired of God, and for the willing responses of generous hearts among his people, this goodly chapel would not now exist. To-day this pastor and many of his people are with us to rejoice in the completed work he devised, and hold themselves ready to help in all things for the advancement and glory of Christ's kingdom in this place. The names of all the donors will be preserved in the archives of this building to be known and read by those who may long years hence, when we have passed away, worship in this house of God. Some in them have given royally. All who have contributed have devised liberally. The deepest interest, too, has been maintained by the people resident on the Highlands. They fully appreciate the effort of the church to provide this Sabbath home where God's word shall be taught to them and their children and cherish the hope that ere long the gospel may regularly be preached to them from this desk, this day to be consecrated to divine worship. When it was proposed to them that if they would provide a lot for a chapel in this vicinity the people of the First church would erect the building, they responded "we will," and provided double by purchasing and paying in cash for two eligible lots. They are ready to assume a good measure of financial responsibility, and the ladies resident in this locality have shown an interest amounting to enthusiasm in carrying forward plans for the completion and beautifying of this house of prayer. Many outside friends, too, manifest an interest not in words only, but in deeds of kindness that gladden our hearts, and will give them, we believe, ample returns in the satisfaction they will derive in seeing the good work here to be accomplished. The beautiful organ leading us to-day in our songs of praise was purchased by the collections in our Sabbath school, supplemented by a generous donation from a teacher. The sweet-toned chapel bell that will each Sabbath break the stillness of this quiet hillside and call us to Bible study and prayer, is the willing gift of the children of the First Presbyterian church Sunday school, T. M. Howard superintendent. The seats in the primary class room, not yet placed in position, were furnished by our sister primary department at the First Presbyterian church, Mrs. J. W. Haskell superintendent. The matting on our floor was donated by John A. Roberts, assisted by Mrs. Sheriff of our school. The carpet for the platform was the gift of the Misses Wells, daughters of J. B. Wells, one of the earliest and generous friends of our school. The carpet for the aisles is the gift of John S. Caprou. The beautiful chairs for the pulpit platform were provided by the generous ladies of our Highland school. The stand in the front of the pulpit was donated by William Heath of the building committee; the pitcher and goblets by Mrs. Audes and Guthe of the Highlands; a text on our walls was contributed by Mrs. C. A. Disbrow; the chapel clock the gift of the ladies' Bible class in the First church Sunday school; the Bible on our desk the gift of two ladies. The library books will be spared from the library of the First church school. The seating of the chapel, not yet completed, will in large part be paid for by the ladies of the Highland school. The stove for the basement is one of the gifts of Mrs. Sladen. The oak table is another gift from Mrs. Sheriff. Other useful articles might be named, all contributed by the friends in the city and at the Highlands. Most nobly has every call met with a response, and it assures us that the work is owned and blessed of God and to Him shall be the praise. The building committee, William Heath, [illegible] Wright Broadbent, have completed this building to the best of their judgment, and a careful examination will satisfy all conversant with building expenses that the cost is much less than so good a building is usually furnished. The expense has somewhat exceeded the first estimate, and to add the equipment of the building with seats, heating and lighting facilities will require several hundred dollars. It would greatly rejoice all those engaged in this chapel and Sabbath school work if this money could be raised and we could announce our chapel free of debt.

A few generous subscriptions would suffice for this. Who that is blessed with means would not find pleasure in a liberal gift to permanently carry forward a work which has for its object the temporal improvement and the eternal welfare of many souls?

Following is a statement of the cost of the Highland chapel and to whom money has been paid:

[illegible]	[illegible]
W. H. Jones, stone mason	$53 00
F. X. Weiss, plasterer	335 00
George Griffith, cut stone	35 00
J. T. Jones, carpenter	1,000 00
Thomas Bailey, painting	145 00
William Fryer, plumbing	50 00
Wilkinson, for building stone	135 00
Callahan & Doyle, brick	35 00
M. H. Hubbard, architect	50 00
Mr. Hubbard presented to the building committee, the corner stone, valued at	10 00
Total	$1,935 00
Subscribed and collected	1,965 25
	$1,078 75
All of the above has been paid except
F. X. Weiss, a whose balance is due	$ 295 00
J. F. Jones, carpenter	600 00
Thomas Bailey, painter	145 00
Making a deficiency	$1,040 00
To which should be added account of C. C. Kellogg & Co. for glass, etc	200 00
For seating, ordered, but not yet furnished	250 00
Heating apparatus, estimate	100 00
Lighting, estimate	50 00
	$1,740 00
Less amount pledged and raised by the Highland ladies for the seating of church	[illegible]

leaving a balance of $1,608 to be provided to cancel the indebtedness. This may seem a large amount, but it is assured by the committee of gentlemen well known for their experience in building, that every dollar has been judiciously expended and that as a chapel, considering the excellent workmanship and its great adaptation to the purposes for which it is intended, will be found a better and cheaper building than any other possessing the same advantages yet erected in our city.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Bachman, who chose as his text a portion of I Kings xxii. Among other things the doctor said: We meet to dedicate this edifice as a house of prayer and a place for the study of God's word, where the youths and adults may assemble and learn the truth as in Josh. For years it will be the home of the Highland Sunday school. You are to meet here not to study and compare philosophy of men, to discuss politics or social affairs, but for the express purpose of searching the Scriptures, for in them we think we have eternal life. The speaker urged his hearers to become missionaries, and exercise their best endeavors to gather into the fold those who now have no church, no Sunday school. This he said was not only their privilege but their duty. He spoke of the social relations in the church and commended them where properly conducted. He thought the church should not be dragged down to the world, nor the world dragged into the church; also that a church edifice should not be made a religious club or play house.

The dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. F. W. Townsend. Rev. Arthur McMillan of Granite, Mont., pronounced the benediction.

LOCAL SPORTING.

City League Base Ball Meeting—The Actives Again Defeat the Fearless—A Cricket Game.

Yesterday afternoon the directors of the city league met and the committee, Dunn of the Acmes and Wentworth of the Fearless, appointed to consider the protest of the Shamrocks in the game with the Actives, Aug. 27, reported in favor of throwing out the game, thus making it necessary to play it over. It will be remembered that the protest occurred over a decision at third base by Umpire Kirkland. The report was adopted and the director of the Actives left the meeting. Technically the season ended Saturday evening, but it had been agreed all around that the Shamrocks and Actives should play the game scheduled for labor day morning to-morrow afternoon. The throwing out of the game by the committee makes the Shamrocks head the list to-day, with a percentage of .684, and the Actives are but two points behind. Should the latter win this afternoon, they would lead, and should the protested game then be played over and the Shamrocks win, the two teams would be a tie. Just what action the Actives will take in matter remains to be seen. Leaving the protested game in, if they played this afternoon and lost, they would still be a tie. The finish is close and exciting and should the two clubs decide to conclude the season this afternoon with two games, they would put money in their purse and give the spectators opportunity of witnessing contests in which feeling would run high. Another meeting of the directors is called for this evening.

ACTIVES VS. FEARLESS

At Riverside park, Saturday afternoon, the Actives again defeated the Fearless club. While practicing, George Windham of the former club had his nose broken by a thrown ball. The score of the game was:

On the state hospital grounds Saturday afternoon a cricket match was played between the state hospital eleven and the West Uticas, which, owing to the very effective bowling of the State Hospitals, resulted in an easy victory for them by nineteen runs and eight wickets. Mr. Tygart's New Venture.

W. R. Tygart, having purchased the saloon and retail liquor and bottling business formerly conducted by J. A. Curry, at the corner of Broad and John streets, is now engaged in renovating and refitting the stores, which, as they are not closed to the public, already evince signs of improvement. Mr. Tygart has had long experience in catering to the wants and needs of the public, and he will bring to bear all his ability to acceptably serve all who favor him with their patronage. The bar will be stocked with the best and largest variety of liquors, wines and beverages ever displayed in Utica, and will be attended to by those who are experts in the business.

The bottling of Bartholomay's beer will be continued as heretofore, and supervised with the same care and attention that has ever characterized this branch of the business. Goods will be delivered free to any part of the city, and all orders for family use will be promptly and carefully filled.

Mr. Tygart will give the retail liquor trade his personal attention, and will still continue to make as his specialties the famous Mount Vernon, Pepper, Park & Tilford, Hermitage, Old Crow and Nelson brands of whiskies. Orders will be delivered free to any part of the city.

Mr. Tygart will endeavor to merit the confidence and patronage of his former friends, as heretofore, and at the same time, by reason of his extended facilities and enlarged accommodations, to add many new ones to the list.

It is particularly requested that the patrons of Mr. Curry, who have bottles on hand belonging to his estate, will return them to Mr. Tygart without delay.
